Some over zealous youths raised an alarm of fire on Thursday night of last week, a few coals having fallen from a tilted stove. Great care should be exercised in so grave a matter as an alarm of fire, else our citizens may treat a genuine one as false and refuse to assemble when their services are really requisite.

THERE will be special services in St. Paul's church on Easter Day. The floral decorations, which Mr. Lloyd Paxton always so bountifully provides, will be of more than usual beauty. The music of this season of the Church's rejoicing is joyous and inspiring, and is more than usually delightful after the sombre character of that during the enten fast.

On and after Monday next, the 1st of April, it is lawful to eatch trout with ook and line and the piscators of our county are doubtless preparing themelves for the sport. The condition of hestreams is, however, anything but favorable and from present appearances t will be nearer the 1st of May than of April before there will be much comfort in throwing the fly. Trout fishing through the ice is contrary to all the laws of the "gentle art."
