THE GRATEFUL CLIENT .- A New fork lawyer, who procured the acquittal of a man who was under arrest for assault and battery, was waited upon the next day by his client and most gratefully thanked for his services. What can I do for you?" asked the client. "Nothing," replied the lawyer. 'Don't you want an office? I control my number of votes." "I have no po itical aspirations," replied the lawyer. 'But ain't there some man you want to have licked," rejoined the client. The poor lawyer has not yet recovered from this powerful exhibition of gratitude. BLARNEY .- "Ah, Jemmy, Jemmy,
