In the face of official corruption the like of which was never known before in this country; with a host of dishonest revenue collectors; with baycnet rule and flagrant disregard of existing laws; with arbit, ary and unjust oppression of citizens both North and South; with legislation outside of the Constitution; with burdensome taxation and with a hundred instances of Executive incapability and personal interference at once illegal and undignified, the organs of this party of hypocrisy and fraud have the audacity to claim for the organization that purity of purpose and deed which its whole career proves false. Nothing like it has ever appeared tion; with burdensome taxation and deed which its whole career proves false. Nothing like it has ever appeared in political history.

It is marvelous that this party so outrageously corrupt that its ablest and best men have left it in disgust should yet take refuge under the banner of "God and Morality." The Press whilst writing under the rotten nominations at Harrisburg and the exposure of the rank dishonesty which characterized the election in the Fourth Senatorial District can still find time to abuse the corruptions of the Democracy.

Can the Press hope to convince men of ordinary intelligence, even, that a party which can persecute a people for imaginary Ku Klux enormities, which exist only in the too desirous minds of selfish offers seekers, and condone the

Besides, such an outrage is far more to be dreaded by the Catholic Church than the Protestant. Whatever other than the Protestant. will know how much this administra-tion has cost them and it is more than probable that the figures will prove very uncomfortable to many of those Christian Statesmen of the "loyal" stamp who have cried most loudly against the dishonesty of the Demo-

What would the satisfaction of killing one poor teacher weigh against the damning force with which each stab and blow HAVING furnished in last week's Co-HAVING furnished in last week's Co-LUMBIAN the opinions of the Republi-can press as regards the nomination of which Protestants are apt to look forward to fature encroachments of the Catholic Church. The "Scarlet Wo-man," as some of them call her, is en-veloped in all the horzors, the cruelties, Hartranft, we now give the following from Forney's Press as to Allen the nominee for Auditor General:

nominee for Auditor General:

So general is the dissatisfaction in regard to the nomination of Col. Harrison Alien, of Warren, by our late State Convention, as the Republican candidate for Auditor General, that his retirement from the Republican ficket is prospectively.

For Auditor General, that his retirement from the Republican ticket is pronounced to be essential to success in October. Our own objections to General Hartranft having been so sternly criticised by some of our brethren, it may perhaps propritate these gentlement to state that the appeal for the retirement of Col. Allen is most carnestly made by some of those who most carnestly support General Hartranft. The objections to Col. Allen are best known to those who make them.

We simply refer to the demand for his retirement from the State ticket as an admonition and a fact. Let us not fear that the discussion of even regularly nominated candidates can injure the Republican party. Nobody denies that the late Republican Convention committed grave mistakes, and our failure to point them out will make them fatal. There is full time to correct and cure them; better to meet them and to master them in advance than blindly to enter upon the Presidential struggle and go down under their sheer dead weight.

Besides, whatever may be our opinion of the natural disposition of this ancient lion, it is certain that now his nalls are effectually clipped and his teeth drawn. Were he ever so willing, the days of kneeling kings and excommar cated princes have gone by. Civilization will never in all probability again permit the rise of any great religious hierarchy.

However the Catholic Church may retain vitality as a form and vehicle of religious faith, it is contrary to all common sense to suppose that it can ever attain temporal power in this country. No party or sect who through its head places itself in avowed opposition to the progressive spirit of the nineteenth century, can make headway in a nation through which progress wers its most defiant and aggressive shape.
