EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

CONDER CHARLES G. MURPRY. CHARLES G. MURPRY. DEAGE MODITION, JOHN MC Assertatemberi-Charles G. Barrer AS KRANEN, Beemsters, S. H. MILLER S. Greenwood, Charles Conner, See's.

Bloomsburg Official Directory. out there Routing Co.-John A. Funsion ment, U. H. Ghovz, Cashler, of Automat Rouk-Chan, R. Panton, Pres't P. Teetes, Cashier, P. Teetes, Cashier, Secondar many Montal Saving Fundand Loop As Secondar thank Market Free L. C. W. Minkey Homesburg Sudding and Saving Earl Association Va. Placott, Prest, J.B. Boalson, S. Placotter, Manual Scanny Hand Association, J. Placotter President, C. G. Bankley, Sec

Church Directory. PRESENTERIAN CHURCH, index—Hey, Stimpt Mitchell, stant, Newton 1974, M., 75, P. M., than Newton Williams of A. M., value Jeense—Williams and J. P. M., and free, I be prove rented; strains

Bloomsburg Directory.

PAPER BAUS just received and for sais at the Contradicts Office. CLOTHING, &c.

DAVIO LOWENDERO, Merchant Tailor, Sin

DRUGS, CHEMICALS, &c. P. LUTZ, Druggist and Apothecary, Main a

CLOCKS, WATCHES, &C. ( ) SAVAGE, dealer in Clocks, Watches and + Jovelry, Mainet, just below the American Tonse.

R. CATHCART, Water and Clock Maker, Ma. BOOTS AND SHOES.

M. ICNORR, Dealer in Boots and Shees, Intest by and best styles, corner Main and Market Streets, in the old Post Office. ENRY KLEIM, Manageturer and dealer in the least and Shuca, Groceries, etc., Main street

PROFESSIONAL.

Diff. Will, M. REDER, Surgeon and Physician Delice over the First National leads. J. C. BUTTER, M. D. Surgeon and Physicia B. BOHISON, Attorney-at-Law, Office Har-

)h. B. F. KINNEY, Surgeon bentiat.—Teeth 1 in EVANS, M. D., Surgeon and Physician I amin wide Main street, below Market.

D. A. L. TUBNER, Physician and Surgeon, of the over Kleim's Drug Siller, residence of door below Rev. D. J. Watter. MILLINERY & FANCY GOODS. PETERMAN, Millinery and Favey Good

Miles tazzie BARKLEY, Bulliner, Bames, 1 Goods, Manust, below Market, TES, JULIA A. & SADE BARRIEY, Jadis Il Cladis and Dress Patterns, southerst corn lair and West sta.

HOTELS AND SALOONS. FORES MOVEL, by W. Bont, Taylor, cost en-

MERCHANTS AND GROCERS.

POX & WHIB, Confectionery and ligher wholesale and retail, Exchange Block.

("KELVY, NEAL & CO., dealers in Dry Cook Greenrie, Flour, Feed, Salt, Fish, Iron, Nai be, N. E. cor, Main and Market sta. H. Millier & SON, dealers in Dry Gon Concerns, Outconware, Flour, Salt, Su-colons, etc., Mairies,

MISCELLANEOUS.

[] M. CHRISCHAS, South Truth a Harner [], maker, Shive a line Hinth Street. 1) W. ROBRUNE Line of the larger and dress 7. THORNTON, Wall Paper, Window blue

W. CORELI, Puritime Unema three also is brick, Main Street, went of Market at. BOSENSTOCK, Fintographer, over Robbin to Dyer's Store, Main'st.

CAMUEL JACOBY, Marble and from Bin Works, East Bloomshory, Berwick road. W.3. RABB, dealer in furniture, trunks, code 1) B. BIULEMAN, Agent for Munson's Coppe 1 Tubular Lightning Real.

FOSTER, Gine 2biket, and While and Fane,

Catawissa.

P. DALLMAN, Merchant Taller, Second St. D. habitist Building. Dil. J. R. ROBRITS, Burgeon and Physich (MEDICAL & ELINE, dry goods, procuries, an KELLTR, Billard Saloon, Cysters, and fe CUNQUEBANNA or Brien Rotel, S. Rosten Charler Proprietor, south-cast corner Main an WM. H. ABBOWF, Attorney at law, Main St.

Light Street.

1 CMAN & Co., Wheelwrights, first don Oll N A. OMAN, Manufacturer and dealer in  $\left| \left\{ -\frac{2\pi}{3}, 4.727, \, \text{dealer} \right. \right| \right|$  in stoves and Tin water in stoves and Tin water in 1 Grain, Flour, Feed. &c. All kinds of Grain.

Espy.

Columbian.

BLOOMSBURG, PA., FRIDAY, MAY 31, 1872.

COL. DEM. - - - VOL. XXXVI - - NO. 15

Buck Horn.

M. & G.W. H. SHOEMAKER, dealers in dry Orangeville Directory.

DR. O. A. MEGARGEL, Physician and Surgeo Main at., next door to Good's Hotel, DAVID HERRING, Flour and Grist Mill, and Dealer in grain, Mill Street.

GAMUEL SHARPLESS, Matter of the Hayburn O Genta Cradie, Main St.

WILLIAM DELONG Shormsker and make turer of Brick, Mill St., west of Fine

Philadelphia Directory.

WAINWRIGHT & CO., WHOLESALE GROCERS, N. E. Corner Second and Alch Streets, PHILADELPHIA.

freaters in TEAR, SYBUPS, COFFEE, SUGAR, MOLASSE RICE, SPICES, BY CAMB SODA, &C., &C. #2-Orders will rec. ive prempt attention.

HARVEY B. WALKER,

MEAR, SCHROPP & CO. . Incontens and Johnson or CHINA, GLASS AND QUEENAWARE, No. 4 NORTH SECOND ST.

PHILADELPHIA. Ascoriginal accorted packages of Queenswar matantiv on hand. feb2a72-tr.

Business Cards.

E. H. LITTLE, ATTORNEY AT LAW. Office Court-Howse Alley, below the Column Office, Electrishurg Pa, C. B. BROCKWAY,

ATTORNEY AT LAW, - ntomenung, PA. # OFFICE-Court House Alley, in the Countries building. C. W. MILLER, ATTORNEY AT LAW, Office Court House Alley, below the Conum nas Office, Bounties, Back-Pay and Pension follequet. Bloomsburg Pn. sep,2076 TOHN M. CLARK, ) .

ATTORNEY AT LAW. OFFICE above Hower's Store, Main street loomsburg, Pa. ROBERT F. CLARK,

ATTORNBY AT LAW, Office Main Street below the Court House comsturg Penn'a. B. FRANK ZARR

ATTORNEY AT LAW. BLOOMSBURG, PA.

office with J. G. Presne Brower's Block. Can be consulted in German or English, money 72-41 TLARLES C. LEIDY, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW,

FFICE ON OAK STREET, MOUNT CARMEL SORTHUMBERLAND COUNTY, PA.
Lotterions promptly made, Conveyancing coulty executed are all other business connected with this poresson carefully attended to induce, Northumberland and Columbia counter.

1871-8.

VEW STOVE AND TIN SHOP. DIATATI HAGENBUCH.

in Street one door above 1. Mondenhail inge assorment of Steves. Realers and as constantly on hand, and for safe at the strains, and for safe at the strains, and half of safe at the strains and half of the safe at the safe and the safe and safe and

BLOOMSBURG MARBLE WORES.

MAIN STREET, BELOW MARKET, BLOOMSBURG, PA. Monuments, Tombs, Headstones, &c. Work really executed. Orders by mall will receive peculi attention. N. M. Work delivered free of intrge, T. L. GUNTON, Proprietor, ecil 271-tf. P. O. Box 237.

PARGAINS-BARGAINS. QUICK SALES AND EMAIL PROFITS.
HAVE YOU'R MONEY.
GO TO HENRY YOU'R
Last Ulcocasions Pa., for all kinds of the best come and city nowle
F U R N I T U R E.
Prices remounded and the best an I'll

WULCAN WORKS,

DANVILLE PA. WILLIAM H. LAW. Vanufacturer of Wrought Iron Bridges, Entersustation, Fireproof Bulletines, Women' Iron Booting, Rooming and Doos Jarin Gates and fenering also Wrought Iron plant. Stacks and fit finds of Smith Work, or Lepans promptly attended to.

S. B. Brawings and Estimates supplied, 68(2771-18).

would amounce to the citizens of Blooms nd vicinity, that he hat just received a m implete assortment of WALL PAPER, WINDOW SHADES, FIXTURES, CORDS, TASSELS, nd all other goods in his line of business. All he bewest and most approved patterns of the hy are always to be build in his catablatament. mar.5/69-11 Main St, below Market.

NEW YORK, CORK, AND LIVERPOOL NEW AND FULL POWERED STEAMSHIPS, THESIX LARGEST IN THE WORLD, OCEANIC, CLUTIC, REPORTAL, ATLANTIC, BALTIC, ADBIATIC, ESSUON burdes—2,009 h. p. caoh, Sailing from New York on SATURDAYS, from Liverpool on THURSDAYS, and Cork Horbor the day following. iverpool on THUESDAYS, and Cerk Harbor he day following.
From the White Star Dock, Pavonia Ferry, levery City.
Presenting recommodations (for all classes) tvalled, continuing SAFETY, SPELD, AND COMFORT, SECOND and tests to the continuing smoking-tests and tests in indisting section, where least notion is surroung and stewardesses accompany strainer. hose strainers. It would Steerings, Six curren-y. Those wishing to send for friends from the diff Country can how obtain afterage prepara syltheates, $25 currency.
Fasseringers Looked to or from all parts of America, Paris, Hamburne, Sorway, eweden, India, Australia, Chim, etc.
Excursion thacks granted at lowest rates.
Drafts from $1 qrywards.
For respection of paris and other information.

Protocoperisins of pinns and other information, ply to No. 10 Broodway, New York, J. H. 6PARKS, Agent, Or to W. PEATOUK, Bloomsburg, Pr. MARK TWAIN'S NEW BOOK,

"ROUGHING IT." In ready for Canyassers. No book is looked for more inputionly than this, and agents will de-yell to get territory for it as early as possible Apply for threaders and terms to DUFFIELD ASHMICAP, Publisher, 741 Sansom St., Philadelphia.

BUSINESS CARDS, BILL HEADS, PROGRAMMEN. POSTERN,

Neatly and Cheaply Printed W. EDGAR, Susquehanna Planing Mill From the latest Styles of Type at the Coldwhian Office.

Miscellaneous

DENTISTRY.

H. C. HOWER, BENTIST, cetfully offers his professional service diles and gantiemen of Bloomsburg and y. He is prepared to attend to all the vertical services of the services the tech carefully and properly attended to.

Residence and office a few doors above the curt House, same side.

Bloomsturg, Jan. 171-ly

THE GREAT MAGICAL

HAIR FORCER reduce a very strong beard. It does not in any my stain or injure the skin. Try it. It is no umbur. Price is cents per bottle. Sent by all poet paid, to any address, on receipt of the Address WILLIASC. WAGNER.

ang : 71-ly. Adams County, Penna NS RANCE AGENCY.

Horse Yneft. FREAS BEG-VN, Apent, REGOVERNOUS Pa.

THE SIMPLEST, CHEAPEST AND DUST IN

USE! HAS BUT ONE NEEDLE! A CHILD CAN BUN IT! Designed expecially for the use of families, so adies who desire to knit for the market. Will ich comprises all the new and popular varieases at prices which cannot fail to sait all. These goods are offered at the lowest cash rates are will be granulated to give satisfaction. A call is solicited before purchasing elsewhere as it is believed that better bargains are to be found than at any other place in the county.

THE ORANGEVILLE MANUFAC-BANUPACTURES OF

of the most Approved Patterns.

Jebbing, and Castings от ан фекстрикава.

Mill Cearing,

DEALERS IN General Merchandise, Lumber, &c., &c. ORANGEVILLE, PA.

Ployes of every Description, mong which will be the cylebrate.

KNOB MOUNTAIN HERO, schnowledged by all to be the best plow extant for the farmer. Also the Champion, Sterns' Patent and

The Montrose. ALSO, DOUBLE CORN PLOWS, Cultivators,

Iron Bettles. and Castings

Country Produce, Lumber, Old Iron, taken in Nemprose. We also have a store in connection with our Agricultural Works, where may be count a full assortment of MERCHANDIES, where mile sole at small profits. Give as a all become purchasing elsewhere and we guar-mite satisfaction.

Hotels.

BENTON HOTEL

the occasion of our seventh Annual Re-union. At such a time, among such as-sociations as cluster around our organi-zation, amid such a concourse as is here assembled, composed of citizen-soldiers of our parent State, what topic springs so spontaneously to the heart and to the lip as our own Commonwealth! Let us pass the hour in recearing her triumphs, in recalling her power, and in petitions for her prosperity. For in petitions for her prosperity. For whose hearts should beat more warmly for her honor and good name than those who have faced peril in her defence and shed their blood for her preserva-

When our sturdy ancestor, William Penn, pitched his tents on the banks of the Delaware, like Emerson's architect, "He builded wiser than he knew." A Royalist himself, and vassal of a king, he named a nation of republicans. A man of peace and a hater of war, he unwittingly created a "race of soldiers," and our Royal Quaker would have been dumb with amazement could the veil of two centuries have been lifted to reveal to him the result of his own handl-

The feeble colony planted by his hand soon ripened into a powerful commu-nity; brave, because the times and the situation demanded that men should be I INKLEY KNITTING MACHINE slert to protect and avenge; intelligent, because its founders were no reckless adventurers seeking new fields for plun-der and oppression, but men of reason and thrift, loving social order and re-garding intelligence as its foundation. As time advanced and the masses of Europe sought here that freedom which do every sitten of the limiting in a solution of the limiting in Britain attempted to lay a heavy hand upon her American colonies, and beed to the very latestand heatstyles ever offered to the etitizens of Coinrable County. He can accommodate the public will the following goods at the lowest rates. Men's heavy double soled stip boots, men's double and single tap soled kip boots, men's double and single tap soled kip boots, men's double and single tap soled kip boots, men's heavy stogs above of all grades, boy's double soled boots and shoes of all grades, boy's double soled boots and shoes of all grades, boy's double soled boots and shoes of all grades, boy's side boots and shoes of all controlled to the following graders, women's glove kid falmoral shoes men's, women's glove kid forms of oppression Great in birth, training, and lineage—sprang as one man to resent it. Consider what forms of oppression Great Britain tried to exercise, and how stinging they would be to a Pennsylvanian above all others. She compelled the American farmer to send his products to England, and to buy all his goods in nia, therefore, revolution was not calcul-lion. It was a struggle for self-preser-vation, and how gallantly she main-tained it! Within her borders, on the very spot afterwards sanctified by the Declaration of Independence, was held AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS in 1774 a Continental Congress—before even the first gun of Revolution was fired at Lexington. She was one of the carliest to commit herself to the strug-gle, and how she prosecuted it every Pennsylvania school-boy is familiar. The Continentals, in their semi-Quaker uniforms, were the steadlest ranks of the army. When other troops had exthe army. When other troops had expended their impetuosity and wavered, or too often fled, the Continentals stood a living wall which nothing could break.

And who were the Continentals? "The Pennsylvania troops of the line." Let ORANGEVILLE, PA.

We would announce to the paidle in general that we have taken the well known Agriculturation of Works of this place and shall make it our aim to manufacture First Class Agricultural Implements equal to any other makers in the State, and agricultural implements equal to any other makers in the State, and agricultural implements equal to any other makers in the State, and agricultural implements equal to any other makers in the State, and agricultural implements equal to any other makers in the State, and agricultural implements equal to any other makers in the State, and agricultural implements equal to any other makers in the State, and agricultural implements equal to any other makers in the State, and agricultural implements equal to any other makers in the State, and agricultural implements equal to any other makers in the State, and agricultural implements equal to any other makers in the State, and agricultural implements equal to any other makers in the State, and agricultural implements equal to any other makers in the State, and agricultural implements equal to any other makers in the State, and agricultural implements equal to any other makers in the State, and agricultural implements equal to any other makers in the State, and agricultural implements equal to any other makers in the State, and agricultural implements equal to any other makers in the State, and agricultural implements equal to any other makers in the State, and agricultural implements equal to any other makers in the State, and agricultural implements equal to any other makers in the State, and agricultural implements equal to any other makers in the State, and agricultural implements equal to any other makers in the State, and agricultural implements equal to any other makers in the State, and agricultural implements equal to any other makers in the State, and agricultural implements equal to any other makers in the State, and agricultural implements equal to any other makers in the State, and agricultural implements strong and died in penury—a voluntary sacrifice for his country. What Penusyivania did abroad let Franklin answer. That patriot-sage, to whose wisdom and majestic simplicity even kings paid court, secured the moral and material aid of the most potent of England's rivals. In him all civilization recognizes not only the diplomatist, who gained kings and ministers to himself and his cause, as if by some process of enchantment, but also the accomplished philosopher. The world is still shocked by the recent death of Profes-sor Morse. But that man, illustrious as he is, was but the pupil of a greater than he, and the telegraph sprang from the master hand of Franklin guiding of the setting sun tinted the firmanent that of Morse. With the Revolution may be said to have ceased the first great epoch of the bistory of our State. She came out of that struggle crippled and exhausted, but full of resource and vitality. Her vast stretch of richest territory, in ex-ch asganitomac—historic natme—complete and s here didiers

the post of honor—the right of the line prings and at Drainesville the first victory of the Army of the Potomac was achieved by a portion of the Reserve Corps. The disasters of Bull Run and Ball's Bluff thad thrown a gloom over the North, and For the result of this minor engagement cast armly a gleam of sunshine upon our dark-

After the transfer of the army to the Peninsula, the Reserves were again placed on the right of the line, on the Chickahominy, and in a short time plunged into the terible "Seven Days' Battles." The first of these was the hotly contested action at Mechanicsville, where after untiring exertion and heavy loss, the enemy, largely superior in numbers, by your stubborn resistance was prevented from turning the right of our line. That night and the next morning we fell back to Gaines Hill, where the Reserves under General Fitz July Poster was forced. John Porter were fiercely engaged. To give you a little rest it had been determined to hold the Division in reserve, but hardly had the battle commenced efore you were in the thickest of the fight. For the time engaged this was the flercest and most sanguinary battle of the war, and in the mind of every soldier the name Gaines Hill is the synonyme for slaughter. Without rest or respite succeeded the engagement at New Market Cross Roads. Here, as in the preceding days, your loss was great. The attempt of the enemy to drive our army very nearly proved succeeded to the interpretation.

Another change of commanders was followed by another defeat, and Chancellors and the cellors was added to the list of reverse to our arms, In this battle only verses to our arms, In this battle only were set to our arms. drive our army very nearly proved successful. Divisions were disorganized, brigades broken and regiments scattered; men fought side by side without reference to organization or commander. Columns formed under the banner of the Union, and charged wherever an officer of the restriction of the personal appears of Gov.

complete, though unavailing victory for our army, but we were in no condition ath and disaster. At Harrison's Landing, the harvest of sickness and death was pitiful. To die for one's country may be sweet, but to be racked with fever, palsied by disease, are forms of death for one's country which reasonable beings, although heroes, would not select. You bore your selves as became the sons of those who suffered at Valley Forge.

The longed for change soon came. The longed for change soon came.—
Gen. Lee had advanced down the Shenandoah, and the Army of the Potomac was recalled from the Peninsulatointercept him. You met your old enemy in an artillery skirmish near Gainesville, and the next day you were plunged into the fierce engagement of Second Bull Run. In this action all the available forces of both sides were fully engaged.
Our army had been marching for days without rest, and with but little to eat.
The artillery and cavelry horses had a shared the fortunes of the Army of the Potomic in its victories and detreats. He was a Pennsylvanian, and a Reserve like ourselves, our comrade;
a soldier trained to the pursuit of arms, in the study, as in the field. He had fought under the flag of his country on the plains of Mexico. An accomplished gentleman; a man of thought as well as action.

"A sage in council The artillery and cavalry horses had been in harness and saddled for two weeks, and were in no condition to give battle to our confident opponent. The fate of the battle was still against us, and the Army of the Potomae hadanoth-er page of fruitless heroism to add to its history. Will, can any member of the Beserve Carne farcet the liver in the

with a ruddy glow, as if the reflection of the scene of blood beneath. Three days after, the Army of the Potomac was encamped within the lines of defense around Washington, and we that struggle crippled and exhausted, but full of resource and vitality. Her vast stretch of richest territory, in extent the second of the original thirteen colonies, with her hills and valleys studded with the most precious minerals; her people energetic, thrifty, and lovers of law and order. Then commenced a stride of unparalleled prosperity which placed our noble Commonwealth the foremost of the States, and made her the reliance of the country in the mighty shock so soon to im-

At the battle of Fredericksburg our Division—now numbering little more than a brigade—was selected to make than a brigade—was selected to make the attack, on the left, that was to break Gen. Lee's line. You advanced and drove the enemy from his entrenched line and occupied his camps beyond, securing a substantial advantage. The issue of the battle turned upon the re-serves holding the position they had been ordered to gain each had gained. been ordered to gain and had gained.— Gen. Lee knew this and concentrated Gen. Lee knew this and concentrated his every effort to recover that portion of his line. Massive columns in gray closed around that devoted band of Reserves, yet you stood an unshrinking target for the pitliess fire of your powerful adversary, hoping to the last that you would not be left unsupported. Still no assistance came, and when ammunition and hope itself had failed, you retired step by step to the ground left two hours before, shorn of our third your number. The other Divisions had vainly thrown themselves against the strengthened heights back of the town' and after fearful slaughter the army withdrew of night began to fall the third brigade advanced suddenly and quietly up the hill, surprised the enemy and drove him in confusion down its south-eastern therefore, you heard that the Potomac had been crossed with the unmistakable intention of invading Pennsylvania, you promptly petitioned for permission to release the Arroy of the Potomac and had been crossed with the unmistakable intention of invading Pennsylvania, you promptly petitioned for permission to rejoin the Army of the Potomac and assist in defending your threatened homes, families and firesides. Could this request be granted you felt that you would not diminish, if you could not in-crease, the lustre that already attached to the name of the Reserve Corps. In response to these appeals the necessary orders were issued and with lightened above all others. She compelled the American farmer to send his products to England, and to buy all his goods in British markets only. She forbade American manufactures. She denounced our iron works as "common nuisances," and declared that America "had no right to manufacture even a nall for a horseshoe." With Pennsylvania, therefore, revolution was not really an every eye to manufacture of the sew of common to the product of the sew of mediate commander from the time you entered the service. You felt that under his eye you would be invincible.— But on the march you heard the Army of the Potomac hailed a new commander. The hand of another was to guide it in the approaching con-flict. And he was a leader worthy of this mighty trust. He had entered the struggle like ourselves, and as commander of brigade, division and corps he had shared the fortunes of the Army of

"A sage in council An Achilles in the field," Reserve Corps forget the inspirating action of our gallant and fearles commander, General Reynolds, when the troops on our right gave way in confusion? At that critical instant he grasped the flag of the Second Regiment and dashing to the right rode up and down the line. The effect upon you was electrical. Every man put forth renewed energy and in a second Instory. Will, can any member of the Reserve Corps forget the inspirating action of our gallant and fearles commander, General Reynolds, when the troops on our right gave way in confusion? At that critical instant he grasped the flag of the Second Regiment and dashing to the right rode up and down the line. The effect upon you was electrical. Every man put forth renewed energy and in ashort time the thinned ranks of the enemy gave evidence of your carnestness. Vain effort of the Reserves! The fortune of war still frowned upon our arms. Death had beled carnival in our ranks, and our wasted and bleeding columns with a ruddy glow, as if the reflection hand. With equal fitness the gallant Reynolds, and the knightly Hancock, fought I was on recruiting duty in the interior of our State, and was not permitted to participate in the glory you had won. What I have to say of this battle is not drawn from personal observation, but from the relation of my comrades, and what has passed into his-

BENTON HOTEL.

W. F. HATT, Projector,
W. F. BLATT, Projector,
W. T. BLATTT, Projector,

The Pennsylvania Reserves!

and Nation was cast to the winds, and, with the noble McCall at your head, you forgot that you were "Reserves," and hastened to the front. Here let it be remembered that Pennsylvania sent the first troops to the field. On the first troops to the field. On the morning of the 18th of April a handful of gallant Philadelphians reached last meeting of our Association, you delegated to me the honor, however understand the consistency of addressing you upon this the occasion of our seventh Annual Reserves, as one of the bravest of men, and the moved. In the wisdom of this change I hardly think the mass of our army including the night and of General McClellan soon brought or der and organized the Army of the Potomac. At the battle of Fredericksburg our while the Sixth was coming up by for-Pennsylvania Reserves, had successively reached the field and taken position, while the Sixth was coming up by forced marches. At that hour the enemy was ready for the attack. By some mistake Sickles' Corps had been located nearly a mite in advance of the position assigned to it, and before the line could be changed the enemy's batteries opened and his massive columns advanced against its front and flank. The Fith Corps promptly obeyed the order to cover Sickles' retreat and check the enemy, now yelling in pursuit. The Regulars charged, but these sturdy soldlers in their impetuosity allowed themselves to be out-flanked, and were in imminent danger. The crisis of the day had arrived. The foe must be repelled or our entire line abandoned. It was then that the Reserves were singled out to retrieve the day. You knew the force a truegle had now come and that was then that the Reserves were singled out to retrieve the day. You knew the flerce struggle had now come, and that upon you was the duty of deciding it, Not heeding the tempest of balls, you received the first shock, and then, with your received the state of the your peculiar battle shout, you sprang thrown themselves against the strengthened heights back of the town' and af ter fearful slaughter the army withdrew from that field. Certain demagogues and newspapers, by distance secured from danger, had clamored for action.

In obedience to the outery Gen. Burnside fought this battle against his better judgment, and it terminated, as he dreaded, in disaster, a further lesson of the bitter fruits of incompetent dictation.

Another change of commanders was followed by another defeat, and Chancellorsville was added to the list of reverses to our arms. In this battle only a portion of the artillery of our Division

The Scendard Research and Chancell or verses to our arms. In this battle only a portion of the artillery of our Division

The Scendard Research your peculiar battle shout, you sprang forward and bore down your opponents.
Fresh columns of the enemy hastened to support their yielding comrades.
They fought with desperation. The steady ranks melted before the rapid and murderous fire of the Reserves.
You were fighting on your own soil.
Love of home and its imperiled safety steeled every muscle and aimed every musket. No foecould withstand a charge impelled by such motives. You swept the dense masses of the foe over their own dead and wounded from the field, and, like loosened cliff, rolled headlong down the steep. Evening hat them, and then, with ing its triumphant standard on a distant part of that memorable field. A detachment of the enemy h ad occupied Round Top—the key-point of our left wing, which if held would render our whole line untenable. As the shadows of night began to fall the third brigade

At dawn of next morning the conflict agony of silence lasted three hours. The enemy was massing his guns to sweep the hills with a concentrated fire, silence our batteries, drive our infantry from the heights, and then, by pushing for-ward his whole force, to capture and occupy our line. The sagacious mind of General Meade comprehended the enemy's design. The terrific artillery fire was responded to by our batteries for a time, but they gradually ceased, when the enemy, supposing them si-lenced, began that last mighty effort by which he hoped to avert disaster. His massed columns deployed into the open field and assaulted our whole line. Our artillery, which had husbanded its ammunition and its strength for this supreme moment, opened with all its accumulated fury, and from right to need I speak his name? Recognition of the picture gleams in the eye of every soldier within sound of my voice. Gen. Meade was the chosen of the heroes to lead the veterans of the Army of the Potomac to battle. It was an appalling responsibility from whose weight it was an appalling responsibility

The deeds wrought by both contending armies during those three days of strife

Local notices, twenty cents a line.

RATES OF ADVERTISING

As perhaps I weary you with your own eulogies, my comrades, I will revert to your further career but briefly. After Gettysburg followed a succession of marchings and counter marchings with occasional skirmishes until the battle of Mine Run closed the campaign of 183 In the following Markets the series.

serve of the opportunity of seeing home and friends. After this action the Pennand friends. After this action the Penn-sylvania Reserve Corps withdrew from the service, which for three years they had so henored, and sought that repose which they so richly merited. You re-member the rejoicings which welcomed your progress homeward. At Harris-burg you were hailed with a public tri-tumph such as greeted a conversor riour you were halted with a public tri-umph, such as greeted a conqueror of old. The arrival of a regimentor com-pany at a town or village was the signal of a gala-day. Yet amid this joy many a heart was wrapped in the silent dra-pery of woe. The Reserves had gone forth a corps of fifteen thousand men, and had dwindled to less than a brig-ade. The speciacle of your wasted ade. The spectacle of your wasted ranks, where so many familiar faces were wanting, struck to the heart of many a mother, wife, sister, or child, the keenest realization of bereavement. I have said that the Reserve Corps left the service after the battle of Bethesda Church. But some re-enlisted and continued with the army of the Poto-mac until the end. I will not speak of those who remained. We were few in number, but we endeavored to main-tain the honor of the Reserve banner, tain the honor of the Reserve banner, and preserve untarnished the traditional lustre of our name. At Cold Harbor, Petersburg, Five Forks, and at Appomattox Court House, you were represented. Therefore, my comrades, the Reserve standard was borne in every battle fought by the army of the Potomac, until the fall of Richmond gave peace to our weary land.

I have thus far traced feebly the career of the Pennsylvania Reserve Corps as illustrative of the conduct of our Commonwealth in the war for the Uni-At dawn of next morning the conflict again commenced, and for full six hours the enemy hurled his solid masses against our well defended lines. Our men stood like a part of the primitive rock on which it rested, and baffled the fury of the assault at every point. The volleys on both sides were as rapid as lightning, and it was one incessant peal of musketry and thunder of artillery along the summit and slope of that deadly ridge, till the line of our corps, as it stretched across the field, now sallying forward bending backward, and springing to its place again, looked like a huge serpent of fire waving to and fro on the eminence. Nothing in the war had equalled those hours of carnage. Suddenly a pause as of death spread over the whole field, and this again to mean the first the solid masses again to me which Pennsylvania contributed in the mighty contest. Dropping then "the pomp and circumstance of war," let us view our native State in its other and peaceful aspect. She is the geograpical, political and moral centre of the United States. She is the chamsplon producer of the Union and present of the united states. She is the chamsplant of the ond the field of the primitive of the Pennsylvania Reserve Corps as illustrative of the conduct of our Commonwealth in the war for the Union. I have chosen that Corps, since it is the appropriate one for the typical one for the typical and example of that vast body of self-sacrificing men which Pennsylvania contributed in the mighty contest. Dropping then "the pomp and example of that vast body of self-sacrificing men which Pennsylvania contributed in the mighty contest. Dropping then "the pomp and example of that vast body of self-sacrificing men which Pennsylvania contributed in the mighty contest. Dropping then "the pomp and example of that vast body of self-sacrificing men which Pennsylvania contributed in the mighty contest. Dropping then "the pomp and example of that vast body of self-sacrificing men which Pennsylvania contributed in the mighty contest. Dropping then pared for any emergency in any respect. Does the country need iron in its various shapes and devices? Every hill and mountain that diversifies our rugged landscape offers its priceless mineral treasures. Coal to work it? The lavish hand of nature has built the very foundations of our broad surface of this sa-ble wealth. Our vast fields of teeming crops and countless flocks, abundance for all, tell of the husbandman's thrift and promise. The mariner treads the deck of Pennsylvania oak, launched from Pennsylvania dockyards. Our artificers apply their skiliful hands to everything that can minister to the need, comfort or luxury of mankind. The thunder of trip-hammers, the hiss of molten iron, the rattle of the shuttle and the click of the reaper unite in a triumphant chorus of varied industries.

Reynolds, and the knightly Hancock, sons of our Commonwealth became his chief lieutenants; and Pennsylvanians led the van in the deliverance of Pennsylvania.

When the battle of Gettysburg was funded by the many than the battle of Gettysburg was funded by the many than the field. Gettysburg was corrected by the many than the post-funded by the many than the many t the continent. Colleges and universi-ties radiate their benign influences from Common school system is the model for the world. It is voluntary as becomes freemen. We have raised vast educa-tional establishments where a grateful State maintains and trains the children of her fallen soldiers. To Governor Curtin we are indebted for this justice