Friday, May 31, 1872. Brigadier General Harrison Allen. We have carefully abstained from any editorial comments upon the candidates named by the Republican Convention of this State, believing that an early ex-posure of their public character and record might lead to their withdrawal. This cannot be done now. To use Lin-colt's homely phrase "It would be swapping horses while crossing a stream." stream.'

But, as the Republican party is boasting of the military record of their canhome. ing of the military record of their can-didates,—though we do not regard that as the best test as to fitness for a civil office—we propose to give that of "Brig-adier General Harrison Allen"—their candidate for the important office of Auditor General. Not that he is their only here on the ticket, because it cononly hero on the ticket, because it con-

only here on the ticket, because it con-tains the classic name of Gen. Todd for Congressman at large, as well as that of Gen. White, who marched to Richmond without a struggle. Besides, it is led by the name of Maj. Gen. Hartranft,without a struggle. Besides, it is led by the name of Maj. Gen. Hartranft,— the hangman of an innocent woman at the dictation of men who freed Jeff Davis, and gave office to Longstreet— who was nominated for Governor through the instrumentality of Gen. Joshua T. Owen, who was sentenced by a court martial to be dismissed the army on the charge of being found drunk in the streets of Harper's Ferry, and insulting the daughter of his Lieut. Col. Now, however, we have to do with the hero Allen, and we take extracts from his record as given by the Yankee historian of Penn'a. soldiers, Mister Bates, as compiled in a recent number of the Putriot. Harrison Allen, Major 10th Reserves, June 29, 1861. Resigned, February 14, 1862. The only mention of him in connec-tion with this regiment, whose gallan-try was illustrated on so many bloody fields, is this: "On the 14th of Februa arry, Major Allen, having been for a long time in fill health, resigned, and Adju-
