A Double-Headed Falsehood.

Several times during the present year the Columbia County Republican has pretended to cite expressions from a speech made by Mr. Buckalew in front of the Court House, in Bloomsburg, some years since, well knowing their falsehood but intending them for cfrculation and use in other parts of the State. For instance, in that paper, under date of July 11, 1872, appeared the following:

"Mr. Buckslew in a speech upon the Court House steps in Bloomsburg, in which he reviled the Union soldiery as Lincoln Hirelings, sald:

"Fellow citizens, when I landed in New York from South America and found that Abe Lincoln, the rail-splitter of Illinois, was President and W. H. Seward his Secretary, I was humilia-

He also states, in his report of March, 1872, that there were $500,115,400 of these bonds retired between June 30, 1869, and March 1, 1872; yet we find in the same monthly statement that there were $1,-184,029,300 of five-twenty bonds outstanding on March 1, 1872, which only shows the actual retirement of $418,634, 500 worth of these bonds during that spirits and inspirers of the plundering period.
