Advices from Omaha tell of paririe fires raging in Nebraska, destroying the country almost entirely within a circuit of thirty miles from thecity. A prairie fire started two miles north of it on Sunday, causing much destruction of buildings, fences, sheds, &c., at the race track. The soldiers were out all Sunday night and yesterday fighting the flames to save the barracks, and have so far succeeded in their efforts. The scarcity of coal in England is be coming more serious than ever. Owing to the difficulty of obtaining miners in Belgium the mining companies of that country are not able to execute their English orders, and the result is a scarcity which has again adva need the
