"Up Goards, and atThem,"

This was Wellington's famous order at the turning point of the Battle of drawn from want of animals to draw Waterloo. Victory was snatched from them. Some idea of the scourge may the jaws of defeat, and the great Napo- be formed from the fact that in and leon lost his battle and his empire. We have the strength to defeat our opponents next Tuesday, if we can poll our vote. At the late election it is estimated what the amount of loss will be as no that 50,000 Democrats staid from the polls,-enough to have given our ticket a hand-some majority had they but voted, despite the fraud, treachery, repeating, and importations of thousands of negro votes. This game cannot be repeated next Tuesday. The New York repeaters and Virginia negroes will be needed at home, and Radical money no longer flows like water.

Democrats of old Columbia it is your duty to vote! The Democratic Convention at Reading placed in nomination an electoral ticket, every man upon party, and to that extent endorse the rottenness, thieving and corruption that rottomess, thieving and corruption that have disgraced our land. You add ad-plentifully with carbolic acid and with ditional fetters to the people of the South and place the whites at the mercy of thlowing carpet baggers and ignorant negroes. There can be no neutrality in this contest. Those who are not with us presently aid Grant, Cameron, Hartranft and their rotten crew, and approve of Grant's debauchery, his nepotism, hisgift taking, and his oppression of the South.

Do not not the coward by slinking to the rear when your brethren in the same cause are making a gallant fight. Come to the front, and teach our wouldbe musters that there is yet a power in the land strong enough to protect their rights and repress wrong. Your weapon to day is the ballot. Use it next Tues day, for God alone knows how long even that defence will be left you.

To work, then,-get out every vote, stand at the polls all day-be on your guard against bribery and corruption. By a strong pull we yet can win. *

Poll the Vote.

The faint-hearted and careless may excuse themselves from the duty of voting at the Presidential election, on the ground that there is no probability of carrying Pennsylvania for Greeley and Brown, but the truehearted and dozen years, will not falter now. Partheir political views at the ballot box. The object of party organization is not merely to elect individuals to office, but to obtain an expression of public opinion through the agency of the ballot, on the issues of the political canvass. Therefore the duty of members of a political party to attend the election and record their votes, does not cease when in their judgment it appears that the candidates of their choice may not be successful in this or that locality. They still owe it to their organization to poll their full strength in order that as strong an expression of public sentiment as possible may be had in favor of its principles or doctrines. The Democrats and Liberals of Pennsylvania have consequently to discharge the important duty of sustaining their principles by their votes, a duty which they owe not only to their pariy, but to themselves and to their country. Every democratic voter who absents himself from the election, tacitly assents to the re-election of Grant and actually consents to an endorsement of all the monstrosities and villanies of his administration. Every voluntary absentee casts halfa vote against amnesty, against the right of the people to local and self government, against reform in the civil service, and against reconciliation and peace. Every such absentee casts half a vote for arbitrary arrests, for the suspension of the habeas corpus, for a continuation of carpet bag rule in A True View of the Penusylvania Election. the southern states, for Tom Murphyism in the custom house, and nepotism and, Tilton, gives the following true picture of the recent election: "Pennsylvania Democrator Liberal worthy of the name is able to satisfy his conscience for such dereliction of duty? We are not of those, however, who regard Pennsylvania so hopelessly lost as to warrant us in making no effort to carry the State. We do not yield the battle. There are THREE HUNDRED AND SIXTY THOU-SAND Democrats and Liberals in the State, and if these could be brought to the polls on the fifth of November, the and perjury—such a victory is worse electoral vote of Pennsylvania would be assured to Greeley and Brown. Are we so demoralized by the fraudulent the 8th of October. Whom the gods we so demoralized by the fraudulent and corrupt October triumph of the Cameron ring that we may not rally our forces for the next onset? For shame! Let it not be said that the gallant legions of the Pennnsylvania Democracy are so type of public service. It is generally easily dismayed! Our brethren elsewhere are waging a noble battle for the Right. In New York, Connecticut, New Hampshire, New Jersey, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Wisconsin the campaign is vigorously urged with the most encouraging signs of Liberal victories in all these States. Throughout the whole South, with the exception of South Carolina, the work goesbravely on, and one hundred and twenty-five electoral votes will be cast in that portion of the Union for Greeley and Brown. Then let the line be re-formed in Pennsylvania. Let us hasten to retrieve the lost ground. Let us resolve to deserve success, and

AT the recent election in this State Hon. Wm. Elwell of Bloomsburg, Columbia county, was re-elected president judge of the twenty-sixth judicial district, having no opposition, and receiv-ing every vote cast for the position. This is the best kind of evidence that Judge Eiwell is highly acceptable to the people of his district, and is a compliment which in these days few judges ever obtain. We congratulate him upon the well deserved honor which has been accorded to him .- Phila. Legal Gazette.

The Horse Disease.

The remarkable epidemic which first made its appearance in Toronto, Canada, has spread over the country with intonishing rapidity, and in the large cities has caused great trouble and inconvenience from the almost total stoppage of transportation. Boston, Rochester, Albany, New York and Washington have all suffered. The horse cars In New York will probably all be withnear the city of New York it is estimated that there are between thirty and forty thousand horses down with the disease. It is impossible to tell estimate can be made of the number of cases likely to terminate fatally. In New York large amounts of freight are now lying on piers of different steamship lines for want of teams to remove it, and, it is stated that if the disease does not abate soon, ocean steamers will be seriously delayed. Several steamers which have arrived within the last two or three days, have not yet discharged their cargoes. Sound steamers, also, have been delayed for want of freight room on the piers.

The disease seems to be of a catarrhal nature attended in some instances with violent inflammation of the throat, and in others with an affection similar to which is a Democrat. By staying at home that of diptheria in human beings. you give half a vote to Grant and his We take from the New York Sun the following:

of rubbing their limbs and loins too much. Every drop of water that they drink should be pure and fresh. They cannot have too much air, provided they are not exposed to a draught.

Let your horses rest if you can.

In regard to the use of turpentine so confidently recommended by General Roberts in his letter to Mr. Bonner, we have to say that perhaps all the benefits of turpentine, with much greater safety to the horse, might be obtained by sprinkling it so that the horse would inhale it instead of rubbing it on him. Turpentine is a very powerful substance. It will limber the joints, and make them like withes, and it should be used cautiously.

As to rubbing it on, we should want to think twice before doing it, although it may be good.

It will be well for owners of horses to exercise great watchfulness and attend promptly to any case which may make

ALTHOUGH there have been as yet no eases of the horse epidemic in this county the frightful rapidity with which the disease spreads should give us warning. As a matter if interest we give the most noticeable symptoms of the disease. As will be seen proper care and attention are all that is needed. The first noticeable symptoms will be dauntless democrats who have rallied to a flow of tears from the eyes, a watery the front after successive defeats, for a discharge from the nose and general languor. Next, a cough, which, becomties are organized and maintained in ing more frequent will soon occur in order that masses of people may express paroxysms. In the commencement the membranes of the nose will be found pale or of a leaden color, and those of the eyes presenting a yellowish or reddened appearance. Many cases are ushered on with a chill. All this is soon succeeded by a general feverish condition, manifested by heat of mouth, membranes of the eyes and nose reddened, pulse frequent, though soft and easily compressed respiration outstands and yellow ward, and went early. He voted for one, stepped outside the door and allowed two or three others to vote then came back and voted again. "Didn't the Charlies trouble you?" I asked. "You're a little green lambkin. They always told me when it was time to leave for another poll, and I generally left." But the stories they told of their adventures would not be credited. A reporter who went with one of the gangs voted at thirty-two polls. He is membranes of the nose will be found compressed, respiration quickened and sometimes laborious. At this stage the bowels may be sluggish, urinary organs inactive and the discharge from the nose often assuming a yellowish or greenish appearance. The disease usually runs ils course within ten days, and with proper treatment few if any cases ought to prove fatal. Those that do so are usually complicated with other diseases, > as bronchitis or pneumonia. The latest reports from the various cities show an alarming increase in the side by side with the Father of the number of horses afflicted. In Norwich, Conn., scarcely a horse is to be seen, the teams being drawn by men and oxen. In South Boston the horse-cars are also drawn by men, while Rochester has The point is that, whereas Gen. Washfallen back upon running the fire-engines by hand. The disease is spreading everywhere. Philadelphia, Buffalo, Paterson, N. J., Binghamton, Providence, R. I., Oswego, Albany, Watertown, Bangor, Me., and many other places, are adding their notes to the prevailing cry of distress.

The Golden Age, edited by Theodore has given to the country the best of all reasons why the Republican party should be defeated. The Hartranft victory in that State-a victory by a dishonored over an honorable man-a victory by a Ring over the People-a victory whose swollen majority was heaped up by repeaters and magnified by fraud-a victory of the penitentiary than a defeat. The Republican party would destroy they first made mad. It needs no prophetic foresight to see that sooner or later there is sure to be a popular revulsion against the Hartranft confessed that if this man's ticket had been left to its own merits to sustain it, and had not craftily borrowed an extraneous help from Grant and the necessities of the next Presidency, it would have gone down into the dust under the weight of 75,000 adverse majority. The Republicans of Pennsylvania therefore, stand convicted of voting for a Governor whom in their hearts they despise, for the sake of re-electing a Federal Administration which thus becomes a partner in the frauds of the most gigantic of State Rings. The Pennsylvania Republicans give up to party what was meant for mankind. They out-Tweed Tweed."

POSTMASTER GENERAL CRESWELL ruled about a year ago that newspapers could only be sent through the mails to regular subscribers, but numbers of the New York Times are now sent to parties all over the country who have never asked for the same and don't want it. Grantism, it seems, can go free.

Horace Greeley said "General Grant-never has been defeated and never will be." He said nothing about President Grant, who is quite a different com-modity, and has been defeated in almost-everything he has undertaken since he Stand to Your Guns.

We hope the overwhelming defeat in this State hast Tuesday will not cause any Democrat or Liberal to give up the contest. Our cause is just as sacred to-day as it was before there was a ballot cast, in the present campaign. The poo-ple bave as great an integral of the county of Columbia, the under sign ministrator &c. of Benjamin Camp, late Township of Locust, in said county, dec ministration, overthrew the honest voice of the people of Pennsylvania. In the end this great cause is sure to succeed, because it challenges the respect of the honest men of all parties. It may possibly meet a crushing defeat everywhere, for a time, but ultimately it will triumph, and right prevail. If we were struggling simply for office, the case would be different; but, as our fight is one of principle, we must wage the battle until victory crowns our efforts. To surrender now, with the battle partially fought, would be cowardly in the extreme, and unworthy of freemen. Supfought, would be cowardly in the extreme, and unworthy of freemen. Suppose the Union army had given up the contest after the first bloody defeat at Bull Run, what would the world have thought of our courage, and our cause? This country would be the despised of all nations, and to day we would be mourning over a divided Union, and a disgraced Government. We do not look upon the contest as hopeless, with Pennsylvania gone, for with Indiana in our favor, our chances are about, or nearly as the strength of numbers chrystalized in an active, vigilant and aggressive party. Above all this there is another consideration. There is a point of honor in this contest. Democrats cannot now desert their allies, the Liberal Republidescrittner affect the Interal Republi-cans. They stood by us the second Tues-day in October, and we are in honor bound to stand by them in November. Thousands voted our State and county ticket. If we overestimated their num bers, it was our fault not theirs, and bers, it was our fault not theirs, and does not relieve us of our duty to them. We, therefore, say to the Democrats of Bucks county, every obligation of honor and political fealty appeals to them to go to the polls in November and vote for Horace Greeley. He is our candidate, as well as the representative of everything that is worth contending for in politics, and Democrats cannot afford to politics, and Democrats cannot afford to be recreant to him and the cause of right.

A CORRESPONDENT of the Buffalo Courier writes as follows to that paper. A perusal will give some idea of the rescality and outrageous fraud which made up Hartranft's so-called majority

On my way home last night I fell in with a company of Reddy's boys, and found their company rather entertain-ing. They were just home from Phila-delphia, having succeeded in making a delphia, having succeeded in making a little pile by visiting many polls and leaving the name of Mr. Hartranft with the people behind the rail. One party of twenty-five men, living in the eighth ward of this city, drove around the city of Philadelphia in an omnibus, drawn by four horses, and voted at forty-five different polls, and wound up the day's sport by putting in a second belief at the poll where they be ond ballot at the poll where they be-gan operations. They were supplied with lists of names by The, Allen to answer to at each polling list, and were answer to at each polling list, and were only one of four gangs from the Eighth ward of this city. If the others did as well as this, they alone added 4.500 votes to Hartranft's majority. One man, who didn't believe in crowds but "quiet business," admitted to voting 61 times—or rather, as he corrected himself to putting 61 believe Hartranft's 61 believe Hartranft. self, to putting in 61 ballots. He supplied himself with the names of four or five men in each election district of a employed.

In sundry newspapers we find an article which has the appearance of having come from the editorial manufactory in Washington. This article bears the portentous and thrilling title, "Grant Country,"and it is an attempt to defend the Doctor from what it calls "the weak aspersions of the imbecile writers and pigmy maligners of the present day." ington was abused and was yet a good President, Dr. Grant must be a good President because so many people say that he isn't. It is not every day that you meet with such delightful logicsuch convincing sequiturs.
