

THE COLUMBIAN

Friday, Nov. 1, 1872.

FRANK COOLEY, ASSISTANT EDITOR.

Railroad Time Table. LACKAWANNA & BLOOMSBURG R. R.

LOCAL. The crop of chestnuts this year is unprecedentedly large.

Thanksgiving Day this year comes on the 28th of November.

Four and three tenths inches of rain fell on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday last.

First and after the 1st of November it will be lawful to shoot rabbits until the January following.

Gov. GEARY has appointed Andrew F. Russell of Danville Associate Judge, vice Peter J. Hughes, deceased.

Squirrels never were fatter or more plenty than they are this Fall.

The real estate of Peter Stricker late of Catawissa, deceased, was sold on the 19th of October to John and Franklin Stricker for $1,515.

If you want a good and cheap County paper, subscribe for the Columbian. It is bristling with news and miscellany. Raily around the old dog.

CONGRESS admits that the result of the October election by no means renders the election of Grant a certainty, and adds, "Our hardest work is yet before us."

The electoral ticket in opposition to Grant was nominated by the Democratic convention at Reading. It is composed of Democrats. It ought, therefore, to be supported by every Democrat.

The vigorous and manly address of the National Democratic Committee will be found in another column. We commend it to the attention of our readers.

"All that I am in the world," said Mr. Lutz, "is consistency and all that I owe to that opinion of me which the people express when they call me Honest Old Abe. Now, what will they think of their honest Abe when he appoints Simon Cameron to be his familiar adviser?"

A good many office-holders complain that the business does not pay in these days of double and extra assessments. "Voluntary contributions" for election expenses are as easily as found both under the inspiration of a pair of pliers without chloroform. And the taxation is perfectly level, except to those concerned in the operation.

The Democrats of Scranton, Pa., increased their majority largely in the recent election. In the election for Governor in 1869, Decker, Democrat, had 522 majority. At the election in 1871, last, Buckwalter had 1,099 majority. Scranton was one of the places that could not be bought by the Union Ring.

COUNTERFEIT twenty-five and fifty cents are said to be in extensive circulation. If any of our readers who owe for papers have any suspicious currency they will be well advised to send them to the office. We are not quite certain whether it would be as well to take counterfeit money as to have none at all.

We are informed that gold has been found near Shicklesbury in the richest kind of a vein in connection with silver and copper. We have not seen any of the precious metal nor have we seen any one who has, but the story is a good one. There will not be a large amount taken out—though there may be some people taken in.

THERE is an election in South Carolina to-day for Governor and other State officers. A Treasury Ring forced the nomination of a corrupt man who is a member of it, and the honest Republicans of the State nominated an independent ticket. The fight is between regular King and the calling Republican. It is to be hoped that the latter will win—Press.

Yes, Mr. Forney, it was "to be hoped" that the honest Republicans would win, but they didn't. The seceders in South Carolina were as powerful as those in Pennsylvania at the late election and carried the State. And yet you support the leaders of the party in which such political rascality is practiced. Your desire for reform is certainly not very strong.

NORTH MOUNTAIN.—We have just returned from a visit to this popular resort. Since our last visit there important and desirable changes have been made. Additional boats, city built, have been placed upon the Lake, a walk cut along the shore to the outlet, and seats provided at that point. The lawn stretching from the Hotel to the water's edge has been graded, and the grove cleaned out. A fine paling fence encloses the grounds which are being rapidly beautified. The stones are being removed, the ground broken up, and fruit and ornamental trees have been planted in abundance. As the soil is excellent abundant crops will undoubtedly be secured. The Hotel itself has been thoroughly repaired. A fine porch has been constructed in front, and a Billiard Table has been put up in an appropriate room. New beds, bedding, and other furniture have been supplied, so that the Hotel is completely equipped. The old misnomer "Long Pond" has been dropped and the more appropriate name of Highland Lake substituted. Col. Kicketts has also constructed a first class trout pond, and in due time will stock the lake with black bass. He has a force of men constantly at work, and will spare no effort to make the place the finest summer resort in the State. Deer are so abundant as to be a nuisance, and the absence of such nuts and acorns this season, small game is scarce. With improved roads and a good landlord Highland Lake cannot fail to become popular.

The Mechanics of Light Street recently held a meeting and adopted the ready system. This is a move in the right direction, and should be generally adopted. Credit is the bane of our country.

The Grant party are running the canvass on purely commercial principles. Votes are made a cash transaction. Without money and bribery the canvass would not last a week.

GENERAL BASKIN, who has been feeling the pulse of the people out West, says, on his return to New England, "No human power can defeat the Liberal cause."

We have been requested to state that Samuel Rimby has refitted his Hotel at Jerseytown and is now prepared to entertain guests with every comfort and convenience.

BEVERAGES.—The diamond has a powerful attraction for light, but it possesses likewise the noble quality, to reflect in return all it drinks and much more in its splendid radiation. Like the seed, which we entrust to good mother earth, it drinks the nourishing milk of the elements only to return it greatly purified and multiplied. Thus we drink the beams of love and affection only to reflect them like the sparkling diamond, with magnified lustre. And is not that the diamond beautiful? Yet if we do so we are still more beautiful. H. Z.

CORN HUSKS.—The husks of corn are well worth the trouble of saving. Whendried and torn into strips they make excellent mattresses, clean and sweet, and very soft and elastic. Plated into a rope and wound round a central point, they make serviceable door mats, the manufacture of which will furnish pleasing and useful fire-side employment for many a stormy day when outdoor work is impossible, or for the long evenings of winter. They are worth saving for these purposes alone.

THE BERWICK ROLLING MILL.—The works of the Berwick Rolling Mill Company of this town went into operation on Friday the 17th inst. There are at present in working condition five puddling furnaces and two heating furnaces, capable of making ten tons of finished iron from the pig per day. When the mill is entirely finished, there will be ten puddling furnaces and three heating furnaces, furnishing a capacity of twenty tons of iron when running on pig iron and thirty tons per day when working part scrap iron. Everything started off smoothly and without the least mishap. The mill is now furnishing bar iron for the car works of the Jackson & Woodin Manufacturing Company, and we understand there are now on file large orders from this company. The iron which we have seen is a fine sample of merchant iron, and we are told by experts that the market affords no better. The machinery which propels the mill works to the satisfaction of the owners, consists of fifty and another of two hundred and fifty horse power. The large engine drives the roll trains and the alligator and rotary squeezers. The small one runs the fan, shears and pump. Water in ample and even superabundant quantity is supplied by a steam force pump from a well seventy feet deep. The mill is well arranged in all its parts and its successful starting augurs well for the future success of the undertaking. The enterprise is well managed and in the hands of first class business men. M. W. Jackson is the President of the company, George B. Thompson, the Vice President and Treasurer, and B. E. Crispin, Jr., the Secretary. In a word the citizens of our borough are proud of their new iron works, and adding this concern to the extensive establishment of the Jackson & Woodin Manufacturing Company, and the works of Press Bros. & Thornton, and the new firm of Newton, Jackson & Michael, Berwick expects to give our large town a show race by the time the census taker makes their next rounds.—Independent.

Address of the National Democratic Committee to the People of the United States.

The October elections are over. They enable us to form a tolerably accurate idea of the true political situation of the country.

In Georgia we have to recount a victory for the Liberal ticket so unexampled as to take her out of the list of doubtful States, and practically to pre-empt in advance the decision of at least 125 votes in the Electoral College. To this number it is only necessary to add sixty votes to elect Greeley and Brown.

In Pennsylvania the distinguished Chairman of the Liberal Committee has eloquently characterized the methods by which the result of the election there was accomplished. We commend his statement to the thoughtful attention of the country.

In Ohio, despite most unprecedented gains for the Liberal-Democratic ticket, the Grant managers have carried the election by a reduced majority, having brought to the polls their entire reserve vote. Had our Democratic friends in certain localities of that great commonwealth shown the same earnestness and activity, and enabled us like our enemies to record our entire strength, they would now be exulting over a brilliant victory. In Indiana the Democratic and Liberal forces have achieved a most important success over Pennsylvania tactics most unscrupulously employed by the Administration and its allies, showing thus that a free people when aroused know their rights and dare maintain them. Indiana has fifty democratic friends in certain localities of that great commonwealth. The moral of these results is that victory is still in plain view for our national ticket, and that energy and courage will assure it. That victory must be won. If we mean to preserve free institutions on this continent we must assure it.

The event in Pennsylvania, on Tuesday last, when considered in its causes, is the most appalling political catastrophe that has ever taken place in this country. Should the system through which this catastrophe was brought about be condoned by the people and foisted on the other States, it seals the doom of freedom in America. A sad contrast it is surely that the city in which our republic was born and the authors of a free people should now be the first to toll the knell of its liberties. It is for the free, unthought people of the States to calmly review the fearful crime against suffrage in Pennsylvania.

and to decide whether it shall be repeated within their own borders.

For the first time the system of free government and the sanctity of the ballot are really on trial in the United States. From this hour forward the preservation of the franchise in its integrity dwells all other issues.

Let our friends in each of the States catch inspiration from the heroic conduct of our fellow-citizens in Georgia and in Indiana; and from this 11th November let their struggle be manful and unceasing for liberty and an untainted ballot box, for Reform and an honest Administration of the Government.

AUGUSTUS SCHELL, Chairman National Democratic Com.

He is somewhat improved by his summer trip, but is very feeble. In the event of his death or resignation the President will probably appoint Hon. David K. Carter, of Ohio, at present chief justice of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia.

The experts appointed to investigate frauds in St. Louis have brought to light facts proving that $100,000 have been stolen by a ring connected with the building of the new county jail.

A fearful hurricane swept through the province of Syracuse, in Sicily, on Sunday last, blowing down several houses, and it is reported that thirty-two persons were buried in the ruins.

Boss Tweed, of New York, is still missing, but it is said that he will be ready to appear when wanted in court to answer the several charges of thieving now standing against him.

The overflow of the River Po has caused excessive damages throughout the plains of Lombardy and Piedmont. Whole villages have been inundated, the inhabitants driven for safety to the highlands, and all their crops and stock swept away. The Mincio and Ticino, affluents of the Po, have also overflowed and created much distress.

Previous to his departure from Berlin for Italy Mr. Bancroft, the American Minister, addressed a letter to the Emperor, informing His Majesty that he had been charged by President Grant to thank him for the great trouble he had taken in the settlement of the San Juan boundary question, and assuring him of the good will and friendship between the Germans and American nations.

Important Testimony! The following letters are among the many we are constantly receiving from persons who have been cured by Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic, and Schenck's Mandrake Pills.

Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic, and Schenck's Mandrake Pills.

Peannegro, Salem County, New Jersey. Dr. J. H. SCHENCK, N. E. Cor. Sixth and Arch Streets, Philadelphia, Pa. Respected Sir—I take pleasure in adding my testimony to that of the many others who have been cured by the efficacy of Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Sea Weed Tonic, and Mandrake Pills. I was afflicted with a severe cough, and my chest was so sore that I could not sleep. I had been treated by several physicians, but without success. I had almost given up hope, when I saw an advertisement in your paper, and I bought a bottle of your Syrup. I used it for a few days, and I was cured. I feel now as well as ever, and I am able to do my usual work. I am, Sir, your obedient servant, J. H. SCHENCK, N. E. Cor. Sixth and Arch Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.
