Commendable.

General Winfield S. Hancock, by the death of Gen. Meade, became senior major general of the army and has just and mine, to be held at Philadelphia, been ordered to the command of the in 1876, and has appointed a Commissmilitary division of the Atlantic with headquarters at New York or Philadelphia as he may elect. The relations between Gen. Hancock and the President have not been of the most friendly nature and it is claimed by the friends of the President that Gen. Hancock's recall from his banishment in the department of Dacotah is in pursuance of the Natural resources of the Country a desire to establish an era of good feeling throughout the country. Whether this be true or not the act was a graceful one on the part of the President and puts an admirable officer in a place to which he was entitled alike by rank and ability.

Too Much.

Joseph F. Marcer, who in his capacity of City Treasurer robbed the people of that city of $300,000, and who was pardoned by Geary just before the October This however was rather more than the other Judges (Hare, Thayer, Mitchell, Judge Lynd was thereupon greatly exerclaed and delivered an address defending his action. The revocation, however, still stands.

Cheap and Nasty,

The Seranton Times offers the following suggestions to the incoming legislature of this state :

There is one thing we wish to see attended to at Harrisburg this winter, and this is to have the price of legisla-lators raise to some sort of decant price. In the palm of superior excellence. As it now is we have to blush every time we talk with a New York man on the subject of legislation. While legis-lators at Albiny are worth from $1,000 No mineral shall be wanting ; for what to $10,000 per head the same article can the East lacks the West will supply. When we consider the great wealth when we consider the great wealth and moded interests of our state, this is a most humiliating comparison. We and the North in miniature, the ceasecall upon all our senators and mem-bers of the assembly who have any state pride, not to sell themselves one that cotton into cloth. Each section of cent short of the ruling rates at Albany. The dignity of our state must be maintained and in order to do it we must show the country that we have as val uable legislators as can be furnished by any other state in the Union.

We endorse the above cleverly sar castic advice of our sprightly cotemporary, but perhaps it would be as well to

The Times is inclinded, for "the dignity of the State," to put up the price of legislators and as they are bound to sell themselves it may be best after all to make them as expensive luxuries as possible.

The Next Test.

The world's history is full of examples of brave men struggling to repel injustice and correct wrong, and however defeat may come to them, their battles never cease until their objects have been accomplished. A reform once begun tends to purify those struggling for its success and intensify their vigor for its ed the people of the United States. final triumph. Thus with the men of Pennsylvania who have started out to remedy the evils of a foul political rule, and whose first battle was fought in October last. Those heroes are resolved never to close their werfare until they have attained that for which they fight. The October election in this State was a democratic journals are urging the cauvindication of all that was alleged against the foulness of the Cameron | legislature not to permit the Honorable Treasury Ring, because the developments already made in the city clearly show that the bal men then arraigned resorted to far worse frauds than those of notorious and unserupulous, whose which they were charged to escape the name has passed into a synnoym for legpenalty of their justly deserved defeat.
