R. Gersbacher, N. Seybert and A. J. William give notice that they will apply to the Legislature to repeal the act laying out a State road from Foundryville, Columbia county, to the pub-He road near Good's school house, in Luzerne county. As the Columbia county and most expensive part of the road has been made, and also a large portion of that in Luzerne, it is sheer folly to ask a repeal now, when less than $500 will complete it. Over $4,000 has been expended upon it by Columbia county people, which would be a clear waste if the smalle balance of the road is not made. The people in interest had better attend to the matter.

DEATH OF CHARLES CONNER, ESQ. Charles Conner, Esq., a well known and universally respected citizens of Columbia county died at his residence in Orangeville, on Satur day evening last. He held this many years. and discharged his duties with such ability and integrity that he commanded the highest regard | times. and confidence of all the heads of Departmen at Harrisburg, the Legislatures and all others with whom he came in business contact. Retiring from this position he took up his residence with a sister in Orangeville, though he ment much of his time with friends in Blooms burg. Last fall be was the choice of a large portion of his party for member of the Legislasure, and was defeated only by an accidental majority of two er three votes in convention. As stated in the beginning of this brief notice, he was well known and universally respected. A reoral and opright man, his integrity was doubted by none. Quiet and inoffensive he was without enemies, though he was a man of firm and Domestic decided opinions and actions. He never married, and, we are informed, leaves the bulk of
