Radicals refused to admit him, for the double reason that he was not legally elected and was personally unfit to occupy a seat in , the Senate. Though they had refused to admit him they did not formally reject his application. After Sheridan had forced the recent legal Legislature to leave the capitol of Louisiana, the carpet baggers remaining again elected Pinchback to fill the place he had been contending for. It is now said he will be admitted for fear a Democrat may eventually succeed to the place. A postion of Pinch's life has been spent in the penitentiary.

We apprehend that the Republican soldier who writes so carnestly will find that the consequences of the abolition of slavery to the negro only begin to exhibit themselves, and that as yet we have but the shade of a shadow of what is in store for the inferior race. The evil to the white and for the present of she South is more manifest, but the main evil is yet to come upon the North, and eventually the South will be greatly profited. Only carpet bag rule keeps it back now. The assured Democratic success will bring peace and prosperity beyond the ken of any of us to the down trodden land. The common misfortune is and ever will be that there is imminent danger of an end to pure, unselfish, unostentatious and unoppressive liberal government in this country, for want of independent high toned statesmen having army. Its people robbed alike of their propample leisure to fit themselves for the business. But without pressing abstract views government, that the President's family relanow, we urge attention to the able article of "Enquirer."

Had we room we would publish the message.

A necessity for additional revenue to meet the extravagant expenditures of the Government sooms to be admitted, and it is said President Grant will send a message to Congrass urging additional taxation. Tes and Coffee and perhaps other articles, will probably be taken from the free list and made to pay a considerable duty, and the tax on whiskey and other luxuries will be increased. The thought of lopping off uscless officors and reducing salaries to what they were in Democratic days does not seem to even suggest itself to the Radicals.

Being dissatisfied with the report of the sub committee on Louisians, composed of two Republicans and oue Democrat, the Radicals expense of the city of New Orleans, into an have sent another committee to New Orleans to investigate, four of whom are Republicans and one a Democrat.

There has been palpable perjuring before the committee investigating the Pacific Mail Steamship subsidy business. Ten millions were appropriated to this company, and it cost $750,000 to get the bill passed. The principal in expending it swore that he paid none to members or officers of Congress.-Some officers admitted, under oath, and others have ran away. It is charged that the committee does not try to find out what Irwin, the disburser of the company, is now in jail for refusing to answer questions.

The Senate has postponed the Louisiana discussion and is proceeding with the several appropriation bills. The House has been engaged on unimportant business. It cut down King Calico's visiting appropriation from thirty to twenty-five thousand dollars.

The Spoliation of L-uisiana. The spoliation of Louisiana by the voraclous carpet-baggers, several of whom are relatives of the President, aided and sustained by the standing army under the command of its Lieutenant General and by direction of the administration, is a dark and inglorious crime that will mar a page of the history of this nation. Once, to mention New
