THE COLUMERIAN AND DEMCRAT, BLOOMSBURG, COLUMBIA COUNTY, PA.

BLOOMSBURG, PA.

Friday, April 16, 1875.

Ben. Wade backs down from the Republi can nomination for Governor of Ohio: Renson, his party would not nominate him be- for the present, cause they could not hope to elect him.

W. Hays Grier has been appointed to clerkship in the office of Secretary of In. ternal Affairs. He is editor of the Columbia Herald and will make an efficient officer.

The Clearfield Republican says that the production of timber for market the present year is fully one-half less than the proceeding year. If the market is not glutted from other localities this would indicate a rise in prices.

Judge Boggs, of Armstrong county, has issued a new rule, requiring attorneys while an inexorable law that can not now o in attendance at court in open session to keep their heels below the level of their heads! The "star" of good manners seems to be that ought to give contentment to the worktraveling westward, too !

Sunbury has grown into one of the most important railroad centres in this State. The Philadelphia and Erie, the Northern Central, the Danville, Hazleton & Wilkes Barre, the Shamokin, the Lackawanna & all concentrate at that point.

The report of State Treasurer Mackey shows that there was one dollar and seventysix cents in the treasury aside from the sinking fund, March 31. This is a condition o affairs that indicates the loveliness of radical financiering. The laws passed in 1874 bring on bankruptey in 1875 .- Ex.

On !-- The Williamsport Gazette & Balletin has discovered what we know no other reader did in the columns of the COLUMBIAN. "outrageous abuse of Senator CAMERON." "or any other man."

"He has optics sharp I ween, Who sees what is not to be seen."

But the G, d B, is famous for discovering things that never had existence.

Treasurer Mackey reports one dollar and seventy-six cents in the State Treasury on the last day of March applicable to the payment of general claims against the State. There are two or three millions in the Sinking Fund, however, that ought to be applicable to the payment of bonded debt and interest but he says only about two hundred thousand can be used in that way. Why, we do not understand.

John Cessua is not only as pestiferous buy as irrepressible as the average musquito. Repudiated with loathing by his own party in his Cougressional district, he has managed to get a clerkship in the Attorney General's office at Washington, which, to be consistent with the general subbery prevailing at the capital, is dubbed by the euphonious title of Doputy Attorney General. The people of this State may well compromise if the administration at Washington will enter into bonds to keep him there.

its employees, are satisfied laborers. That is er be set aside by any human agency. Let the operators offer wages and conditions men and the best end will soon be reached in spite of unreasonable exactions on either

The most foolish of all absurd things is for the workmen to give any excuse for the exercise of the authority of the State. That is a power they can not resist. Pennsylva-Bloomsburg and the Sunbury and Lewistown nia furnished 3 b),009 men for the late civil war, and can double that force if necessary to keep the peace within her own borders Should her strength not be sufficient, the Federal government would be required to exert all its power. Resistance, therefore, as senseless as to denounce the sun for hining. Above all things, then, the miners should be careful not to do anything that will give the slightest excuse for the exercise of State authority or for calling upon the military. Public opinion sympathises with them in fair and just demands, but will sternly condemn them for violence. With public opinion on their side, and correct action, they will eventually obtain just terms of compensation. The corporations who are the principal aggressors against them, must yield in the end to the public voice, for their very existence is only by sufferance. A war to wipe them out by legal means will be inaugurated and will in time succeed. The corporations fear it and therefore can not afford to defy public sentiment perpetually.

to bring the whole German nationality under one sceptre. The Emperor, replying to this through the Austrian Ambassador at Rome, deplores the struggle between Church and State and adises prudence.

He first "appeared in public upon the stage" as a very creditable State Senator, then as a chronic candidate for Governor, was elected Judge, out of the expense of the United States, for all which he soon rotated to Congress, but before he takes his seat becomes a candidate for State Treasurer. lican candidate for Governor has more votes than the regular nominee of that party, and a Democratic candidate has about one-fifth of the whole number. As a majority over all is required, the election will now go to Democratic State Convention for Governor : the Legislature, a majority of which will be bought up by one of the aspirants. Upon the whole, the result is about as important as a sharply contested election for Burgess in Bloomsburg.

BLAB .-- It is announced from Washington that the Federal Supreme court will not pronounce upon the constitutionality of Civil rights (negro equality) bill "until after the fall elections," when a decision maintaining its unconstitutionality will be made. We believe it is not the practice of that court to announce in advance what their decisions will be, or to make the time of their delivery dependent upon the occurrence of elections, or to permit results at the polls to govern its judgment. The Judges of the Supreme court of the United States are shelved for life and do not much care for political results. Yet as some of them had to promise certain decisions in order to get on the bench there is no telling what impropricties they may not be led into in these de moralizing Radical times.

The Pittsburgh Radical papers, always distinguished for the recklessness of their falsehoods, when Lawnsbury was arrested for the murder of Butler, not only undertook to inculpate a number of leading Democrats, without a shadow upon which to found their charges, but also represented Lawnsbury as one of a band or community of Dem ocrats who were organized to resist the draft. All these statements are equally groundless, as is also the additional error that we fell into, Erchange. that Butler was a deputy provost marshal.

The facts are, as we now gather from the papers of the vicinity, that Batler was no alms of a nobleman, that he claimed to bea fficer at all, but one of those reprehensible relation to his highness on the ground that
