Friday, April 28, 1875. Hon, W. W. Ketchum, of Luzerne, dclines to be considered a Republican cauddate for State Treasurer.

The prohibitionists are in the field. A convention is to be held in Harrisburg, June 16, for the purpose of nominating a State ticket.

Mercer county has forty candidates for nomination to the office of Sheriff-just equally divided between the Democrats aid Republicans.

The government is coining a new twenty cent silver piece, but it will be used principally on the Pacific Coast. When can they afford to let this part of the country have a little specie?

Any editorial institention to this issue of the COLUMBIAN that may be observable, is to be attributed to the fact that the editor has been unable to attend to his vocatior, for reasons that will be observed in the obitusry column. Contributions, however, to the local columns give them unusual inter-

In Connecticut the Democrats have a State, State Treasurer, Controller, a Demo-States Senator and all but one member of clean sweep.

The decision of Judge Pearson, that the tax on coal is unconstitutional, if sustained by the Supreme Court, will cut down th revenues of the Treasury about five hundred thousand dollars. Some advocate the calliug of an extra session of the Legislature to supply the deficiency. Not necessary.

The "Louisiana Question." which has pestered the country several years, and damaged the administration beyond repair, i settled at last by the Legislature accepting the Wheeler compromise, and organizing un-der it. It is to be hoped the disgraceful scenes heretofore witnessed there will never he renewed, and that the interest of that distracted State will now receive some atten tion from the Legislature. All the members ousted by Sheridan have been re-seated.

A SQUARE FIGHT AND A SOUND WHIP PING .- For the rest it only remains to say that we have been fairly and soundly beater in a square, stand-up fight. There was no contention in our ranks, no pretence of "ap athy" on either side, and no reason why w should not have beaten, except the very good one that we didn't have votes enough .- New Haven Journal and Courier, Republican.

The whole number of immigrants arriv ing in this country during the year 1874 was 260,814. Of these 43,896 were from Eugland; from Ireland 47,688, Scotland 8,765 Wales 558, Germany 56,927, Austria 6,891 Hungary 852, Sweden 4,436, Norway 6,581, 705, Switzerland 2,439, France 8,741, Italy 5,787, Spain 571, Russia 7,447, Poland 1,549, broached in this State, by an attempt to bring torward a third term candidate for Governor, to take the sting out of the third com pretensions of Gen. Grant. The game may have the credit of cunning-it will not rave that of success-for gambling politiians are understood in these times, One of those huge burlesques upon tattling crones, popularly known as newspaper "interviewers," has been after amiable John Miller, chairman of the Democratic State committee. After representing that exemplary and undemonstrative gentleman as a sort of monster land sea-lion, capable of swallowing all the world and something more, gobbling up the Republican party last fill merely as a sort of appetiser, the interviewer proceeds to extract from him sundry most valuable sentiments in favor of econo my and reform and especially of a general reduction of the enormous salaries now imposed and of the departmental expenses at Harrisburg, all of which will be heartily approved by the people.

The utter absurdity and folly of placing a candidate upon a Democratic ticket who is not himself a Democrat was so thoroughly exploded in 1872, by the Greeley nonsense and by repeated smaller efforts since, that we are surprised it should again be broached, especially when it did not command over meshalf the Democratic strength, and that under protest, as in Pennsylvania. The Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of small knot of politicians who compose the "Liberal Republican" strength of this State, cratic Senate, a Democratic House, a United are a little too persistent in thrusting themselves forward for office to create a very a Congress. This may be considered a pretty strong impression in behalf of the unselfishness of their motives and the sooner those who tende upon that capital subside the bet-tar will their services and patriotism be appreciated by the people. There are only two political parties now in this country that command its attention and one or the other of these must triumph at the polls. Bartering will be justly and emphatically condemned whenever attempted.

"A Democratic State Paper."

The COLUMBIAN is in favor of an independent Democratic State paper at some central point, and thinks the Harrisburg Patriof fills the bill tolerably well, but would fill it much better if it had 50,000 subscribers. That may be, but how is it going to get the 50,000? Won't the paper have to branch out a little and risk something before it can expect such an immense patronage? People are not apt to subscribe for a journal unle-s it pleases them, and just how that amount of readers could be induced to subscribe for the Patriot with its present pretensions, we do not know. The Patriot is undoubtedly a well conducted, newsy and respectable journal, and does able service for the Democracy of the State; but it cannot expect to get subscribers by the hundred thousand until it commends itself by its enterprise and competition with metropolitan newspapers. We,

of course, all like it in this section, because A majority will be 185 votes The Republiwe are acquainted with it and know its mercan party in the south is composed almost its, but there are sections where it is not so wholly of negroes. They are controlled by well known, and, consequently, where it is carpet-baggers, who being office-holders, are not so well appreciated. We should like to see it get 50,000 or a 100,000 subscribers, but Hungary 852, Sweden 4,436, Norway 6,581, Denmark 3,188. Netherlands 1,543, Belgium plished-that's the rub. The proprietors themselves have more to do with this than anybody else. Let them make as great a paper as the New York Herald, Tribune, Times or World, and the subscribers will souri, will be represented by 138 votes. With some of their own accord. It would be a such a beginning in the Convention, the big thing to have such a paper as the organ of the Democracy of Penusylvania, at Harrishurg. Of course much could be done in this direction by active canvassing and soliciting, but that would be only one tributary to a big circulation. Other things must the Conklings and Tom Murphys, the Cambe combined with this to produce the desired result .- Bellefonte Watekman.

President Grant and a portion of the Cabinet a re off in the eastern States, where they have been celebrating the Centennial anniversary of the battles of Concord and Lexington. Yankee histories have created an impression that these were the opening scenes of the revolution, but some enviou writer dissipates it by referring to the cap ture of a ship and other belligerent acts by the Rhode Islanderslong before. The truth is there were numerous other instances of hostility and rebellion, which led to the organization of "minute men" at all points, and it was that organization which surprised and drove the British troops at Concord and Lexington. The Massachusetts vankees have always been adepts at exciting the sentiment of pity and it was this that gave them the preponderance of attention in the opening of the revolution, to which they contributed little after the commencement and first campaigns,

The presiding officers of the two Houses of the Legislature of Louisiana have declared the general appropriation bill, which Kellogg has declared a law, a forgery. They say it is not the bill that passed the Legislature, and that it was altered after it went into the hands of Kellogg. Some of the items are increased, and others decreased. The only excuse offered for the forgery is that it was done in the interest of the tax-payers. This is Grant's model Governor, whom he supports by bayonets, and whom the Senate a few days ago thanked him for upholding He's a beauty, indeed ! What a delightful state of things prevails in Grant's satrapy. The Governor turns forger to protect, as he alleges, the people against a corrupt legislature, whose appropriations are beyond the ability of the treasury to meet. What will be the next infamy in the Louisiana basiness? We wait new developments.-Er.

The Great Strike,

The great coal strike still continues without immediate prospect of settlement. The corporations are evidently able to control all other operators, and we therefore do not believe that they will ever yield. It is a common saying that they have no souls to save. but more unfortunately for the strikers they have no stemachs to feed, and with their im mense aggregation of capital, they can hold out for an indefinite period.

There seems to be considerable division among the miners, and a large portion of to be an authority at all, it can not long be interfered with, and through this will probably come the end of the strike. As a most effective means of preventing strikes in the Hazleton is still in a state of siege and the town and vicinity are occupied by troops. The expense, we see it stated, foots up about $5,000 per day, which will be paid by the State, the tax-payers of course furnishing the money. The troops may have to remain all summer.

It is from this great rule, that every man is entitled to the best if he can get it honestly, that political progress has in our day to flow, and it is only by preaching it faithfully and striving for it zealously that the future of Democracy can be assured.

The application of all this to the efforts of the Democratic party to set our affairs to them probably desire to work. As the rights is obvious enough.
