TO OUR PRIENDS, GREETING

By the first of July coming we shall have completed two years of the publication of the Collections since it last come into our lands. More than three-fourths of its subscribers are indebted dipwards of a year subscription, and more than half of them have not paid anything. As our circulation is large time. not paid anything. As our circulation is large the is a heavy tax upon the publisher and too heavy a load for him to carry much longer. During the summer and autumn, and especially the ensuing month, Mr. E. L. Myers will call upon those subscribers who Mr. E. L. Myers will call upon those subscribers who are in arrears for the purjoss of receiving payment of the amounts due, and the hope all will meet him kindly and be prepared to liquidate this indebted-ness. It is far from a pleasure to us to send out a eaglector or dun people for dues in any form, but eaglector or dun people for dues in any form, but everything in our line of business must be paid for kind yet attempted,—Reliefonte Watchman, in each and we cannot therefore afford to carry a for what is due, but that all will take pleasure is adding the paper to the extent of paying what the

The five o'clock p.m. mail from Philadelphia via. P. & R. R., did not reach us on Monday last until 81 o'clock, p. m., on account of : wreck near Shuman's station. Though serious enough to cause a detention of near four hours there was no one injured.

Mr. H. C. Lutz, formerly of Bloomsburg, but for the past five orsix years living in the west, a larger portion of which time he resided in Fort Scott, Kunsus, was in town visiting frends last week. Horace looks well, even though he did come from the grasshopper region.

We were shown a few days since, by Mr. John, G. Quick, of Rupert, a lemon measuring 101 by 12 inches. This lemon grew upon a tree belong ing to Mr. Quick, that is about 28 years old, and a the present time is loaded down with the golden fruit, the quality of which, it is said, is much be ter than of that coming from the south.

Our old type friend Mr. M. F. Conner, route agent on the D. H. &. W. R. R. from Sunbury to Hazleton, stepped in to see his Columnian friends on Saturday last. Judging from his hale appearance it agrees with Millard to fill the position of mail agent for Uncle Sam. He is now rusticating in Orangeville.

Mr. Wm. Coffman of this place lost a valuable cow one day last week. He had cut some nev hay for her, and after eating considerable she began to bloat, and soon after died, Mr. John Sterner also lost a fine cow th same week. She had caught a cold whiel effected her internally. She was sick but a few days and apparently died in great agony.

SAD ACCIDENT.- A young man, named Timothy Reggin, whose parents reside in Catawissa, and who was in the employ of the L. &. B. R. R. Co under Mr. M. McDonald, of this place, started for his home in Catawissa, after concluding his day's work on Monday, and on Tuesday morn ing was found lying near the track a few mile below Catawissa, dead and horribly mangled.

A fellow who had evidently been doing cor siderable sampling, the other day was coming down town and seeing an orange peel on th payement in front of a confectionery, stopped and addressed it as follows: "You'era (hie) mi erable, trittin', insignificant looking thing, so yo are, hardly worth noticing, but darn it you this could throw Goliar and not half try."

The "Centennial Dramatic Association" will uppear at the Bloomsburg Opera House, on McKinney's, Friday evening, June the 18th, 1875, in a meloframe in three acts, by the popular author, Douglas Jerrold, Esq., entitled "The Drunkard's Doom." This play has been produced with imense success, by the special request of He-Majesty, Queen Victoria, at the Royal Theatre London, and has also met with universal favo n our best American Theatres. There is suposed to be an elapse of five years between each ct; each scone closing with a grand picture The object of the play is to show how a one happy, rich and respected home may be made wretched by the terrible curse-wine. This day was never produced in this or neighboring places, and considering this fact everybody hould attend. This, of course, wrought dire vengeaus a the M. D's, mind, and he determined to "lay ow" for this feline nuisance. He then prepared "dose of grape and canister" and told his wife s inform him of the eat's next visit to the chicky. He had not long to wait, however, ere he and an opportunity for revenge, for it was but a ew minutes till the madame told him that the cat was after the chickens again. In breathles ilence the doctor, with musket in hand, crept up a near to his for as possible without frightenis t away. Taking a long breath and deliberate air to fired at the cat, but owing to a little miscalulation as to distance, missed his mark and the ext moment three little, innocent chickens lay cattered all over the doctor's yard. The cat i yet at large and ready for more fun.

To Correspondents.—Certainly the dullest icinary might have the fact impressal upon it y this time that editors never give attention to manunications that are not accompanied by he name of the author. It is an insuit to offer them and they are seldom ever read, but go traight to the waste basket.

Arithmetical problems are not of general pubic interest, are very troublesome to put in type, and editors do not often have time or incline ion to test their accuracy. These are abundancasens for declining them.

A correspondent rather savagely denounce he Republican platform, but as denunciation sithout illustration or accompanying proof and argument is unprofitable, if not incomprehenside, we prefer that the writer address himself to a temperate discussion of the position he assumes a general terms. There is no law, we believe, against people making all the fine professions bey please, and none to compel anybody to believe them. Practice would materially aid the correspondent we refer to in becoming a news-

Other remedles as cures for son sumption, probably contain opium, which is a mewhat dangerous drug in all cases, and if taken reciy by consumptive patients, it must do great in-ury; for its tendency is to confine the morbid mat-er in the system, which, of course, must make a cure osible. Schenek's Pulmonic Syrup is warranted not to contain a particle of optime: It is composed of powerful but harmless herbs, which act on the ngs, liver, stomach and blood, and thus correct all orbid secretions, and expedual the diseased matter om the besty. These are the only means by which nsumption can be cured, and as Schenck's Put onic Syrup, Sea Weed Tonic, and Mandrako Pills is the only medicines which operate in 1918 way, it solvious they are the only genuine cure for Pulmo-ary Consumption. Each bottle of this invaluable modeline is accompanied by full directions. Dr.

chenck is professionally at his principal office, cor-er Sixth and Aren Streets, Philadelphia, every tonday, where all letters for advice must be ad-
