Mr. E. L. Mynus, collector for the Columnan, will wait upon these indebted to this office for the pur-pose of receiving the amounts due. We trust that those indebted will be prepared to pay what they owe when he calls, but if not, they will again hed upon. It will scarcely be domanded of us to enter an apology for making collections, but for the satisfaction of these desiring it we will just say that as we have to pay each for every thing as we go our purse is not long or deep enough to hold out unless it is reptentished with some degree of promptness.

Rev. Dr. McCron will preach in the Luthor an church, Bloomsburg, on Sunday the 18th, at which time there will be an election for pastor. A general invitation is extended to the public Dr. McCron is one of the ablest elergymen the country, and we understand has signified hi willingness to accept a call to the church of this town, which will no doubt be unanimously extended.

The address of Mrs. Walker, printed on the first page, is well warthy of attention. It reasons concisely and intelligently upon a subject as to which there may be much reform without risk of useless experiment or injury to anybody The course of female education suggested would no doubt be of eminent advantage, intellectually as well as practically.

If any body wants this weather hotter than 'n is let him try a bake oven. If that don't suit parhaps there is but one other experiment to try. Certain facts were domonstrated the other day by an eminent professor of this town, to wit that a butcher's spring wagon, with short body and closed top, is not a good institution upon which to haul long scantling; that it is not well under such circumstances to extend the load purtly over the horse's back, that to jerk a line suddenly from under the tail of a horse may produce violent results, and that it is some times for the best that single trees should break.
