THE COLUMBIAN, VOL. IX, NO. 42
COLUMBIA DEMOCRAT, VOL. XI, NO. 38

THE COLUMBIAN

(COLUMBIA DEMOCRAT, STAR OF THE NORTH AND COLUMBIAN CONSOLIDATED.)

Issued weekly, every Friday morning, at BLOOMSBURG, COLUMBIA COUNTY, PA.

AT TWO DOLLARS per year, payable in advance, or during the year. After the expiration of the year, $2.50 will be charged. To subscribers out of the county the terms are $2 per year strictly in advance —$2.25 if not paid in advance and $3.00 if payment be delayed beyond the year.

No paper discontinued, except at the option of the Publisher, until all arrearages are paid, but long continued credits after the expiration of the first year will not be given.

All papers sent out of the State, or to distant post offices, must be paid for in advance, unless a responsible person in Columbia county assumes to pay the subscription due on demand.

POSTAGE is no longer exacted from subscribers in the county.

JOB PRINTING.

The Jobbing Department of the COLUMBIAN is very complete, and our Job Printing will compare favorably with that of the large cities. All work done on demand, neatly and at moderate prices.

A LECTURE on the nature, treatment and Radical Cure of seminal weakness, spermatorrhœa, induced by self-abuse involuntary emissions, impotency, nervous debility and impediments to marriage generally, consumption, epilepsy and fits; mental and physical incapacity, &c., by ROBERT J. CULVERWELL, M. D., author of the Green Book &c.

The world-renowned author in this admirable lecture, clearly proves from his own experience that the awful consequences of self abuse may be effectually removed without medicine, and without dangerous surgical operations, bougies, instruments, rings, or cordials, pointing out a mode of cure at once certain and effectual, by which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

This Lecture will prove a boon to thousands and thousands.

THE MEDICINE THAT CURES —IS— VEGETINE.

Taking into consideration the character of its vouchers, the history of its cures and the immense increasing demand, VEGETINE may be fairly entitled the leading medicine of the age.

For scrofula in the blood, VEGETINE is an infallible remedy, and no person need suffer from tumors, ulcers and all diseases arising from impure blood, if VEGETINE is used according to directions. There is not a case of scrofula in existence that VEGETINE will not cure provided, however, the vital functions have not lost their power of action, all that may be said to the contrary notwithstanding.

VEGETINE is pleasant to the taste, mild in its influence, and absolute in its action on diseases, as the following unquestionable evidence will show.

PAID NEARLY $400.00 ! !

JANUARY 2, 1875.

H. R. STEVENS, Esq:

Dear Sir:—When about six years old I was vaccinated. The parties who were vaccinated from the same virus died from the humor. The humor spread over me so as to affect my eyesight, that I was rolled in bran to prevent me from scratching my person. The disease finally settled in my head. I remained in this condition about twenty years, troubled all the time with sores breaking in my head and discharging corruption from my ear. At this time a small kernel appeared on my neck, gradually increasing in size until a tumor formed of such an immense size I could see it by turning my eyes downward. All this time I was taking various remedies for my blood without any substantial benefit.

I then went to a prominent physician in Boston who, during his treatment of six months, lanced the tumor eight times, which cost me nearly $500. This left me with a running, aggravated sore, without at all diminishing the size of the tumor, and a sickly, feeble condition. I consulted another physician in Salem, who, after considerable time, succeeded in healing the sore without reducing the size. At this point I commenced to use VEGETINE, through the earnest persuasion of a friend. After I had taken this medicine about one week I experienced wonderful sensations. My whole body seemed to be undergoing a radical change, until, finally, the tumor broke and discharged frightful quantities. From this time it decreased in size until the bunch disappeared, but my neck still bears the ugly scars of the sore and lance. I am now healthy and strong and able to work every day.

I will also mention that I have been an acute sufferer from inflamatory rheumatism ever since I can remember, until commencing the use of VEGETINE, when almost immediately all the muscular pains ceased. This at present I volunteer for the purpose of benefitting other suffering humanity, and you will confer a favor by giving it as much publicity as thought proper.

Very gratefully, O. M. SAVELS, Ashland, Mass.

WHAT IS VEGETINE?

It is a compound extracted from barks, roots and herbs. It is nature's remedy. It is perfectly harmless from any bad effect upon the system. It is nourishing and strengthening. It acts directly upon the blood. It quiets the nervous system. It gives you a good, sweet sleep at night. It is a great panacea for our aged fathers and mothers, for it gives them strength, quiets their nerves, and gives them natures sweet sleep—as has been proved to many an aged person. It is the great Blood Purifier. It is a soothing remedy for children. It has relieved and cured thousands, and is very pleasant to take; every child likes it. It relieves and cures all diseases originating from impure blood. Try the VEGETINE. Give it a fair trial for your complaints; then you will say to your friend, neighbor and acquaintance, "Try it; it has cured me."

Report from a Practical Chemist and Apothecary.

BOSTON, Jan. 1, 1874.

Dear Sir: This is to certify that I have sold at retail 1543 dozen close bottles of your VEGETINE since April 12, 1870, and can truly say that it has given the best satisfaction of any remedy for the complaints for which it was recommended that I ever sold. Scarcely a day passes without some of my customers testifying to its merits on themselves or their friends. I am perfectly cognizant of several cases of scrofulous tumors being cured by VEGETINE alone in this vicinity.

Very respectfully yours, AL. GILMAN, 46a Broadway.

Poetical.

A DEUX TEMPS.

Yes, this is our dance, this waltz from the Duchess:
What is that you are saying?—
You thought I was playing
You false, with this waltz, this dance from the Duchess?
You thought I had rather be sitting and talking
With that little M'Manners
There, under the banners,
Or it may be, perhaps, in the corridors walking,
Instead of remembering this dance here with you, sir,
This dance from the Duchess,
The lovely Grand Duchess,
The sweetest dear tempter! Ah, if you but know, sir
How I dote on the Duchess, with its gliding and sliding
Soft measure for measure,
You'd know from such pleasure
My feet would never go straying or hiding.
What is that?—you might have known it was merely
This special sweet measure,
The dance, not the pleasure
Of dancing with you here? Well, really, you're nearly
Persuaded me that such was the reason:
And I'm sure I would fain sir,
If you'd go on in this strain, sir,
Walk and talk with M'Manners to the end of the season
And to the end of my life too, perhaps is my meaning?
Well, no: for M'Manners
There, under the banners,
Just when we encountered you waiting and leaning
Against the bay window, had confessed a relation
I guessed days ago—
His engagement, you know,
To that Belle—Now, Harry, don't kiss me before all creation!

Miscellaneous.

American Young Men.

American history presents many remarkable instances of young men taking prominent and commanding stations at an age which would be thought very young in other countries. We subjoin a few striking examples from the list of those who have passed off the stage of human action:

At the age of 29 Mr. Jefferson was an influential member of the Virginia Legislature; at 30 he was a member of the Virginia Convention; at 33 a member of the Continental Congress, and at 34 he wrote the Declaration of Independence.

Alexander Hamilton was only 20 years of age when he was appointed a lieutenant colonel in the army of the Revolution and aid decamp to Washington. At 25 he was a member of the Continental Congress, at 30 he was one of the ablest members of the convention which framed the Constitution of the United States, at 32 he was Secretary of the Treasury, and organized that branch of the Government upon so complete and comprehensive a plan that no change has since been made upon it.

John Jay, at the age of 29, was a membe of the Continental Congress, and wrote an address to the people of Great Britain which was justly regarded as one of the most eloquent productions of the times. At 32 he prepared the Constitution of the State of New York, and in the same year was appointed Chief Justice of the State.

Washington was 27 years of age when he covered the retreat of the British troops at Braddock's defeat, and the same year was honored by an appointment as commander-in-chief of the Virginia forces.

Joseph Warren was only 29 years of age when he delivered the memorable address on the 5th of March, which aroused the spirit of patriotism and liberty in Massachusetts. He fell gloriously fighting in the cause of freedom at Bunker Hill.

Fisher Ames, at the age of 27, excited public attention by the ability he displayed in the discussion of questions of public interest. At the age of 30 his masterly speeches in defense of the Constitution of the United States exerted great influence, so much so that the youthful orator of 31 years of age, was elected to Congress from the Suffolk, Massachusetts, district, over the Revolutionary hero, Samuel Adams.

Joseph Story entered public life at the age of 26 years. He was elected to Congress from the Essex district when he was 30 years old.—He was Speaker of the Massachusetts House of Representatives at the age of 32, and the same year he was appointed by President Madison a judge of the Supreme Court of the United States.

DeWitt Clinton entered public life at the age of 28. Henry Clay at 26 years of age. The most youthful signer of the Declaration of Independence was Wm. Hooper, of North Carolina, whose age was but 24 years. Of the other signers of the Declaration of Independence Thomas Heywook, of South Carolina, was 30 years old; Elbridge Gerry, Benjamin Rush, James Wilson, and Matthew Thornton were 31 years of age; Arthur Middleton and Thomas Stone were 33 years of age.

The Grand Duke Alexis.

Lucy H. Hooper writes to the Philadelphia Evening Telegraph about Alexis as follows:

And so the grand Duke Alexis, that hero of travel, whose love match and persistent constancy to his bride made such a pretty chapter to royal romance has actually consented to undergo the prosaic formalities of a divorce. I hear that his young wife belonged to a noble Hessian family and was maid of honor to the present Empress, whose especial pet and favorite she was. She was not pretty, but was extremely graceful and winning in manner, and she possessed a very fine and stylish figure. One evening the Czarina saw her maid of honor enter all in tears, and throwing herself at the feet of her imperial mistress she confessed that she was betrothed to the Grand Duke Alexis, besought the consent of the Empress to their marriage. That very night the too-fascinating demoiselle was hurried off under a police escort towards the frontier and the Grand Duke received orders to join his regiment without delay. But the lover escaped and fled to Germany, where he soon rejoined his lady-love, and they were married according to all the rites of the Church. But two years of matrimony and of the paternal displeasure seems to have worn out the Prince's constancy, for he has consented to the divorce, is to be received into favor again at the imperial court, and is shortly to join his regiment at Eheatherinenburg, which a life pension is to be settled on this discarded wife. As the
