

BLOOMSBURG, PA.

Friday, Nov. 19, 1875.

BENEFIT CONCERT AT OPIA HOUSE ON THANKSGIVING NIGHT. TICKETS AT GEORGE A. CLAIRE'S.

The negro vote elected Hartman. The majority of our white voters are Democrats.

The Democrats carry Mississippi by a large majority and gain six Congressmen in the following Congress.

Steady, stable! The State is entitled to but six, and the Democrats had one.

The Granger Vote. The vote for Col. Proctor shows that an organization of the Farmers took no part in the late contest.

Hard Times. The election is over, and the voters of this State have again endorsed the Republican party.

The Democratic Vote in Columbia county was increased this year about twenty-seven per cent over that cast for Lieutenant Governor last year.

The following list shows the credit that should be given to each township. The gain is given in whole numbers and is nearly correct.

Table with 3 columns: Township Name, 1874, 1875. Lists townships like S. Conyngham, Beaver, N. Conyngham, etc.

The Democracy have attended five gubernatorial funerals. The candidates were all from the East.

We thought the West, was recognized in nominating Lieutenant Governor Latta, and Auditor General Temple at Pittsburg last year.

Election Betting. We are opposed to betting, not only because it is contrary to law, but because it is against sound morals.

Philadelphia's Prothronary. The twelve judges of the several Courts of Common Pleas of Philadelphia met on Saturday last to elect a Prothronary.

Campaign Management. Our recent criticism on the last campaign, has called forth a friendly response from all sections of the State.

Foreign News. London, Nov. 13.—While the tide was ebbing to-day a bore or tidal wave, ten feet high, swept up the Parrett river, in Somersetshire.

REGISTRATION NOTICES. Notice is hereby given to all legatees, creditors and other persons interested in the estate of the late Frederick C. Hartman.

W. P. JONES & CO., Catawissa, Pa., invite the attention of cash buyers to their unusually large and attractive stock of NEW GOODS.

WATER-PROOF cloths, all colors, from 87 1/2 cents upwards. A special bargain at $1.10, worth $1.25.

Full line of ribbons, neckties, ruffles, collars, cuffs, belts, combs, and the largest assortment of fancy goods to be found in this section.

Prints at 8, 9, and 10 cents. Cotton flannels at all prices. Best brands of bleached and brown muslins as low as can be found elsewhere.

Please call and see us and we shall endeavor to convince you that we can sell you goods as low as any establishment outside of New York.

THE POPULAR CHEAP CASH STORE. W. P. JONES & CO., CATAWISSA, PA., Nov. 9, 1875.

The Labor Association. The Pottsville Workingmen devote a column and a half of well written criticism on our recent editorial headed "Wanted in Pennsylvania."

The Democratic Organization. THE ERRORS OF THE CAMPAIGN AND THE POLICY OF THE FUTURE.

MESSRS. EDITORS.—An editorial under the caption of "Want of Organization" appeared in the Harrisburg Patriot on the 6th inst.

How far this nameless correspondent represents the Labor Reform element of Schuylkill we are unable to say.

Our article embraced three points: 1st. An anti-Democratic platform.

2nd. A nominee for Governor who was afraid to take the field.

3rd. An imbecile Chairman. The Workingmen propose to examine "these assumptions inversely," and at once launch into praise of Col. Wright, and abuse of other men.

This does not explain the trick at Erie. Nor has Columbia county any other defence to make except that under all these adverse circumstances he increased her majority twenty-seven per cent!

great wrong. Their predecessors have shamefully neglected that most important duty. But in this important political crisis, which must decide the fate of our Republican institutions, we invoke the patriotism, courage and energy of our State Central Committee, and especially of its chairman, to take the first step in the efficient organization of the Democratic party, and due to infuse new life and fresh energy into the hearts of the devoted patriots, who year after year, without even the incitement of hope, have marched to the polls and battled in vindication of the Democratic creed, although experience taught them that their leaders have quietly succumbed under the monstrous accumulations of flagrant election frauds without an effort to punish the guilty or vindicate their own cause.

Mr. Chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee, organize your party in the prosecution of the perverted villains whose trade it is to cheat the people out of their sovereign rights, and you will have opened to your party the road to emancipation and victory.

It is disgusting and disgraceful to hear each election in this once respectable commonwealth, individuals and newspapers complaining like crying babies, of notorious election frauds, amounting to thousands of votes, sufficient to elect and install winning candidates over the legitimate choice of the people, and yet not one organized body found to enforce the law against the well known perpetrators of such monstrous deeds. Democrats, rouse yourselves! Now is the time to act and ORGANIZE!

"AN OLD DEMOCRAT."

"Getting the Vote Out." Considering the active and earnest nature of the recent canvass in Pennsylvania, it is surprising to see how large a proportion of the voters of the Commonwealth stayed at home, or neglected to go the polls.

The aggregate vote is six hundred and nine thousand, five hundred and sixty-four (609,564)—not so great an aggregate as more than 63,000 as was cast at the Governor's election in 1872, and not so many votes as more than 46,000 as were cast for President in 1868—seven years ago.

Making allowance for the sick and those absent from home on business and other causes, the increase of population since 1872, the increase of the number of voters from one county to twenty thousand. There was thus a great failure all round in the strenuous efforts made to "get out the full vote." About one voter in every eighth or nine failed to respond to the appeals made to "rally" him.

The Democratic vote is not so heavy by nearly 30,000 as it was for Auditor General seven years ago, and the Republican vote is not so heavy by nearly 85,000 as it was for President in that year—1868.

The highest aggregate vote ever cast in this State was that for Governor in 1872, when it was 672,347; the highest Republican vote ever cast by Pennsylvania was that for Hartman in the year 1868, 553,387; and the highest Democratic vote in the Commonwealth was that in 1868 for the Democratic candidate for Auditor General, 321,739.

Thanksgiving. PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR OF PENNSYLVANIA.

The following proclamation has been issued: In the name and by the authority of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

In the abundant crops which Heaven has blessed us; in the absence of pestilence and want from our midst; in the diminishing distrust that pervades the channels of trade, and the prospect not only of a revival of commerce and manufactures throughout all the States of the country, but of the high and cordial reunion of the people thereof, the nation has occasion for thankfulness.

I respectfully ask, therefore, that the people of Pennsylvania, in accordance with the recommendation of the President of the United States, assemble on the 25th day of November, 1875, to give thanks to the Great Author of all our blessings, and to petition for the continuance of divine favor to our nation and State.

Given under my hand and the great seal of the State, at Harrisburg this eighth day of November, in the year of our Lord eight hundred and seventy-five, and of the Commonwealth the one hundredth.

By the Governor, J. F. HARTMAN, P. M. S. QUAY, Secretary of the Commonwealth.
