BEECHER TILTON AGAIN. When shall we hear the last of it? This whole disgusting business has been reopened, and the probability is that another trial in the courts of Brooklyn will reproduce the testimony in the first case, and some more. The council of Plymouth church struck the name of Mrs. Moulton, from the list of membership, ostensibly for non-attendance, but really out of petty revenge for her having told in court what she knew about Beecher, Mrs. Moulton answered in a letter, and gave her reasons for not attending, reiterating what she had before testified to, and asking for a council of churches to judge between the parties. The Plymouth coumittee could not well refuse this, and accordingly an investigating committee composed of representatives from fourteen churches has been appointed, seven churches to be selected by each side.

In addition to this, Frank Moulton has prosecuted Beecher for malicious prosecution. It will be remembered that Beecher had Moulton indicted for perjury, and when the defendant demanded a trial, the prosecution vindicated. What is to come of all this no one can predict.

Brother Beckley of the Republican i alarmed lest he should be converted to Catholicism. No danger; because in the first place they don't want him, and in the next place he would have to confess his sins, which if truthfully done would consume the balance of his lifetime.

We commend, however, to his attention the following from the Methodist, a leading paper in the denomination of that name : "There is one thing done against Roman and which is likely to spike all our Protestant guns unless it is immediately stopped. The settled policy of this country is toleration of all sects. Keep out of this political secret society.

THE BANKRUPT LAW. We are informed that at a meeting of the principal business men of Pittsburg and vicinity resolutions were adopted condemnatory of the present bankrupt law as tending to unsettle trade and mercantile confidence by opening a path to fraud, and calling upon congress for necessary legislation to abate this great and growing evil. A memorial to congress was prepared to be circulated for signature and forwarded during the present session, and a call upon congresamen from this and adjacent districts was adopted asking them for their hearty co-operation and aid in support of this measure.

This is right. The law enabled a few honest men to start life anew, and a great many scoundrels to cheat their creditors, and get rich by failing.

Let us illustrate. The organization spoke bravely against land grants. Why not against Government subsidies? The former takes vacant lands, but the latter depletes the Treasury of money. The Government should represent th people, and the people pay the money into the Treasury, not to foster individual or corporate speculation, but to pay the necessary, egitimate expenses of governmental administration. CATAWISSA AGAIN.

[The COLUMBIAN takes kindly to that ancient town of bad side-walks and protuberant porches, and having told its inhabitants the christened name of their habitation, of course we yield space to the following reply, which is full of facts not generally known. EDS, COLUMBIAN.]

The creek above mentioned was proud of the honesty and ability of their termed by them "Catawese," or rendered into English signifies "pure water;" and by other Counties, we have no reason to fear identifying the name the Indians gave to the creek with the present name of the town. The outgoing officers deserve credit for the it is evident that it is derived from "Cataimpartial and economical conduct of our wese." At least we are warranted to pre-County affairs. Their duties were not at all sume so, until the contrary be shown. The times pleasant, but they did what they first authentic account we have of its setcould under the circumstances for the inter- tlement was the granting by Patent, of two hundred and eighty-two acres, and one quarter of an acre, [on which part of the town now stands] by the Honorable the Proprietaries of Pennsylvania to Edward Shippen Jr., and Joseph Shippen Jr., the 14th, of February, 1770, who by their indenture on the 1st of May, 1773, granted the same unto Ellis Hughes in fee; who, with Hannah, his wife, by their indenture of the 27th day of June, 1778, granted ninety-two acres and one quarter of an acre, [part of the above mentioned tract,] unto William Hughes who laid out the town in the year 1787. Up to this date the town was known as Catawissa, at the time of its being granted it was called "Catawese or Law-paughpetin's town," but afterwards it became ang licised, and was called Catawissa, In the last week isside of the COLUMBIAN I find there was a little conflict of opinion among several antiquarians relative to Catawissa, ever being called "Hughesburg." I do not wish to act as a mediator in the matter, yet as the settlement of Catawissa is not the most important event in modern history, I desire to write a few words in relation to the issue between the two gentlemen. I have dropped the case. But Moulton, with his laid out in the year 1787, by Wm. Hughes. mentioned that the town of Catawissa was Up to that date it was known as Catawissa but directly after the town was laid out by the gentlemen before mentioned it was called Hughesburg, and as late as the year 1794 it was called by that name. It may be asked where I obtain the authority for this statement. I would reply by saying that I have access to certain deeds made during the early history of Pennsylvania, which have the name of "Hughesburg" mentioned. I have also been informed by several old residents of our town, that it was at one time called "Hughesburg," When the town resumed its primitive name, I am unable to say. Among the early pioneers of the town were James Watson, Fenton, Sharpless, and other I will only say that all that remains of the early setlers is the Quaker meeting-house

DEBT STATEMENT

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3 .- The debt state ment for December shows an increase of $1,615,062, 70, compared with an increase luring December, 1874, of $3,659,967. 88. During the late campaign radical editors and orators claimed that their party was in favor of retrenchment and reform, and on that ground appealed to the people for continued support. The election is over and the truth now comes to light. In a year the national indebtedness increased over three and a half million of dollars. There is no occasion for this. Despite hard times the people are taxed as heavily as ever. We cannot expect any redress from so profligate a party. Its defeat will insure honesty and economy in Government.

Municipalities, merchants, manufacturers, all business men, and even newsfirst excited surprise; but a more thorough paper proprietors, are cutting down their study of the leaders of the party and the forces to the least available, and otherwise backers of the paper convinced us that self reducing expenses wherever practicableinterest rather than principle dictated their nay, possible. Our Legislature will meet in a few days. The members should fall in in every way not detrimental to the public service. There are so many useless holes into which the money of the Commonwealth large that they first attract attention. When the Legislature convenes they should stor them at once; they should legislate on the following points:

I. Cut off all the supernumeraries, such as the extra array of pasters, folders, door keepers, assistant sergeants-at-arms, etc These are the drones that eat up the honey of the working bees. They are as useful as a city snob on a farm. II. Reduce the salaries of all the officials about the State Capitel, where it can be done. Laborers, artisans, ordinary clerks, all classes of hired service must now take less for the same amount of work, and most of these are producers too, why should not the public official, who is no producer?

III. Let each Legislator refuse to take the $100 allowed him in postage stamps. This costs the State $25,100 per session while $25 per man, or $6275 is amply sufficient. As it is, stingy members hoard and sell their surplus, and generous ones give them away to friends and needy and seedy

IV. A little package of stationery, given each member each winter, for which the State is charged $25 each man; in the aggregate, $6275. Now each package is worth no more than $5, or $1255 in all. Thus the State is cheated out of $5020 again. Let the members do without these, and buy their stationery, as do honest people, who scorn to sponge.

V. Purdon's Digests cost $4 a copy Each member wants one or more, and usually vote for them, piling up a bitl of $3514 against the State annually. The members should buy their own Purdon's or do without them.

VI. The spirit and the letter of our new Constitution require that the fees of county officials should be turned into the county city, or State treasuries. A bill providing for this was once passed, but owing to the bargain between Hartranft and our city ring, whereby he hoped to secure a re-election this was vetoed. Such a bill should be passed this winter, and since Hartrantt cannot run again, he will, perhaps, approve it It will save the people hundreds of thousands by reduction of taxes.

It is the duty of the whole Legislature t attend to these matters at once. The people demand it. It is especially the duty of the Democratic House, who are pledged to retrenchment and reform. Otherwise, they will soon wander in barren plains, where none of the grass for political fattening grows, and none of the fragrant roses of political honors are to be called. The people will drive them into the political desert to fast for more than forty days .- Philadelphia Chronicle.

THAT STATE ROAD.

Our readers may remember that by an Act of the Legislature passed in 1368 a State road was authorized to be laid out in the counties of Columbia and Luzerne, commencing in Briarcreek Township. The ordinary delay in completing it. When finished, however, the Treasurer of Luzerne refused to pay that County's proportion of the expense. On a hearing before Judge Handley a mandamus has been granted, commanding the Treasurer to pay the amount due.

Shall Centralia and conyngham townships be attached to Schuylkill county? Now is the time to make the move gentlemen.-Ashland Advocate.

Our people will have something to say on that subject when the time comes, Brother Steele. In fact, some of the townships in Schuylkill, bordering on Columbia would like to join us for the sake of securing order and low taxes.

True religion has nothing to gain by any alliance with party politics.

SO I THINK. CHURCH AND STATE. We find the following ominous paragraph in a leading political exchange:

"METHODISTS AND THE THIRD TEPM. "Boston, Dec 6 .- At a large meeting to day of the Methodist Episcopal Sabbath School Union and of the Tract Society, and also the weekly meeting of preachers, com-prising nearly two hundred ministers, Bish-op Haven urged as a measure of relief for the public, the renomination of General Grant for President. Itmay not be just clear to every one how very appropriate it was for a meeting of, perhaps, over two hundred Methodist clearyperhaps, over two hundred Methodist cle.gy-men and other leading members, ostensibly assembled in a Sunday-school and Tract So-ciety Union, to be voting who should be nominated for the next President of these Quakers. In 1796 an addition was made to United States. The fact that it is well the town by James Watson. In conclusion known that General Grant's family are members of that church, and that his own sympathies are in that direction, together sympathies are in that direction, together with the oft repeated charges made against him fer partiality toward Rev. Newman and other M. E. elergymen, does not lessen our surprise at the assumption and most untimely action of this ecclesiastical body. Have they forgotten the effect of the Newman Letter upon Mr. Harlan, of Iowa, a few years ago? General Grant may well pray to be delivered from his religious friends if this is the way they propose to help him.

will by no means be accepted as a "measure of relief for the public!" We have always found much in Pres. Grant to admire, and have twice given him our vote. But we now have at least three reasons why we do not desire to give him a third vote. First and most important, we are opposed to any man's occupying the Presidential chair for a third term. Second, we want a President to spend more time at Washington in the discharge of his official duties.
