IMPORTANT LEGAL DECISION.—The Supreme Court has decided, in a case from the Common Pleas of Northumberland county, that orders drawn by the president of a board of directors upon the treasurer of the school di trict, under school law, are not negotiable bill or orders, but are warrants for the payment t money to the persons to whom they are issued to be disbursed by the treasurer under the au thority of the law. They therefore do not at thorize a subsequent owner to maintain suit is his name upon a promissory note, bill or order They do not possess the ordinary properties of a mere contract, but are a statutory means o drawing the public money out of the hands of the legal custodian of the fands of the district

How to use Gas.—There are numerous causes of steep gas bills, which housekeepermight well look to. Prominent among these are defective burners, a poor one of which may easily burn double the gas and not give half the light of one properly made. The ordinary style of burner, besides, burns out, and through the enlargement of its orifice soon become wasteful of gus. Another cause of waste is due to people trying to read or work by several lights located in a high chandelier or fixtur instead of by one light brought near them. A Director, Emanuel Lazarus, Isaac Yost; Asse single burner, one foot distant from the page of sor, Peter M. "In Bloomsburg, where a somewhat comined and compounded system of restrumizhe polls, all organization fails. No expres ion upon any thing is possible where sevposition, and wherein only expert gambling | Israel, is a winning eard. Elections have lost so much of their interest and vitality that the coters generally interest, themselves only in those offices wherein each can east only a single vote, or two at most. Yet amidst all of hand, we observe the same sure landmarks as here. Thus, Hon, David Lowenoerg, one of the most influential and ever uarter of the State, carried the city for Mayor by a majority largely in excess of his arty strength-five or six times as much He is a genial, most worthy and very popuar gentleman. Every policy of insurance is a special conract, and is to be determined by its particudar provisions. For instance, if A has a stock of goods valued at $40,000, which he nsures against fire to the amount of$20,000 and being damaged to the extent of $5,000 he may recover the full amount of the $5,000 osa if he has a policy properly worded to that effect. But if he has taken a policy with a clause which limits his recovery to such a proportion of his loss as his insursuce bears to the total value of the property at risk he will recover only half of his loss,

WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb'y 24, 1876, Special Correspondence, The preachers say "faith is the evidence of things not seen," and that the Bible not only describes facts that have occurred, but that these facts are typical of things to come. Taking these statements for granted, I have just read in my well worn and often thumbed topy of the Bible, the history of the building of the tower of Babel and the confusion I tongues incident thereto. I am strongly nelined to accept it as typical not only in name, but incident, and that the writer looked forward with the eyes of faith, or through espiration, over centuries of time and saw what would occur here in Anno Demini, 1876. A little broadness in the pronuncia ion of the name of that tower, would make t fit our national capitol exactly. The tower of bubble is its best name. Some "potent and grave Seigneurs" in Congress have nough of classic lore to know that the ackling of geese once saved the city of tome, by waking up a sleeping sentinel in ime to prevent a barbarian irruption withn the city walls. And they are saving the country after the same manner. Streams of able flow from them as steadily as water from perennial springs, and like the geese they expect to be defined for their cackle. It omes from them "as the waves come when avies are stranded." I once saw a school f whales in the Pacific Ocean, they were in playful mood and were sporting around in lively manner. Whales, and minnows, too, essors, G. W. Creveling, G. W. Johnson; in our tower of babble remind me of that scene. They spout even more lustily than Kelchner, Daniel Mowery; Auditor, E. D. those Pacific whales, they cackle more industriously and louder than the sacred geose of Rome, they babble more incessantly than did the builders upon Shinar's plain. The confusion of tongues is more manifest among them than it was ever among the bubblers of Babel after an injunction had been served against the further proceedings with the The face and the threat will harden into healthy building of the tower. By the way, couldn't indifference to cold; but the muffler, exchanged an injunction be made to lie against our babblers. I think there is one court with proper jurisdiction. It is the cours plentee, or the court of the people. If you agree with me, Saxon will apply to this court and see if this eternal, I might say infernal babbling, cackling, spouting cannot be When that unliquidated and now almost orgotten instrument, the Constitution of the United States was made, the Congress was instituted as a legislative body, invested with power to make and report laws. Nor it onsumes its time in trying to make reputation for its members, to secure their re-election, to make party capital, and let law making go to hades.

The workmen in our tower of babble should remember the fate of their prototypes They were dispersed about the earth and numble to communicate with each other 131.05 The power that created them dispersed and destroyed them. So too, the power that sent our "babblers" to the tower, can disperse them and make them as insignificant in the 5.00 That power is the people. And they are tired of the babbling, eachling, spouting 21.00 crew. If a grand procession of all the voters in the United States could quietly march through Washington, each one spending a day in viewing the public servants, how small our great men would become, and how many of them would be relegated to private Mr. Eptron, — Deep Sires A sail arcident oc-ared in Main Township, near Malayille Col. His I opine that if this were done that the barn to do their milking and chores leaving beight of Mount Moriah, might be repeated two little children alone in the house. After two little children alone in the house. After they had been gone about fifteen minutes they driven from our temple. Mind you, I am at the three and were stricker with not writing of either party, for they are both alike in what I am talking about,

I feel scripturally inclined to-day, my mind seems to seek smiles in that book, and Monday Marning when the pain was relieved as I wrote of the Tower of Babble and the Temple of Moriah, I remembered Samson It is supposed the clothes caught by the chil- and langued aloud as I thought how the long-haired glant would have felt ashamed of himself if he could revisit this plane and see what improvements our modern leg islators have made in the usesof his favorite instrument of warfare. He slew a thousand licated and twisted invention, or double re- of the men of Philistia with the jaw bone of an ass, but some of our babblers are dong called cumulative voting, is practiced at ling better, many of them are killing themselves with the same weapon, which should be a greater cause of rejoicing to our people eral persons are to be elected to the same than Samson's feat was to the children of

But the bablers and cacklers and spouter are not all in the tower or in the Departments. There are thousands of them who sit at tables or desks and babble, eackle and spout over the wires or through the mails this demoralization and hair-splitting sleight and old Guttenberg's invention, with steam childish babble broadcast over the land. How put that prayer, "From all manner of active Democrats in that county or that evil, good Lord, deliver us," comes in when we think of these. Fortunately not much damage can be done by this class. Their babbling has grown innocuous to a great exent because the babblers have become known to the people. Their eackling is like strength consists in his carnest, constant and the hissing of the East Indian cobra when its fangs are drawn. To leave the Bible and ook into Shakespeare for a thought, we re nember the fat knight and his exclamation when we read after these spouters, and say Good Lord, how this world is given to by

I put in that last from Shakespeare to prevent you from thinking that Brother Ham mond, who is here trying to convert the sin ners of this city, has drawn me into his folds icipal governments of the Commonwealth. I have consulted with him on the subject. The law provides that all officers named above write about, and suggested that as he had write about, and suggested that as he had not the strength of Hercules his attempt to cleanse this Augean stable would fail. But the old man feels confident of hi ability to start the dirt, and says the people must play the part of Hercules, and shove out the filth. He says that if this is done grace and hard work may do the balance and Washington be saved from the fate tha befel "the cities of the plain." A little sprinkling of sulphur and fire might not be amiss. The sulphur itself would probably cure some men of the itch they have-for of ice—though the disease, once contracted, is said to be incurable.

Are you Centennially inclined? If so, yo an pack your carpet-bag, for the show will open punctually as advertised. (See small sills for particulars.) The main ball is finished, and most of the other buildings are in such condition that all will be ready. Ex hibitors are sending in their goods, and th managers are delighted. Come on with your duds. Saxon will be there to meet you; and while he will have neither silver nor gold-not even gold-"such as I have will I give unto thee."

A monster petition is now being circulat d, and will be presented to Congress, asking a large appropriation for "Old Proba-He has given us such delightful weather that he should be encouraged to renew his efforts and give us in smamer about the temperature of his winter in this latitade. The Superintendent estimates that on May 31, 1879, there will not be more than 600 orphans in the care of the State, and that no great hardship will arise from their discharge at that time under the law as it now stands. The number admitted to the schools since 1875 has been 7,858, and of these 3,443 were discharged because they had arrived at the age of sixteen years, 1,482 were discharged "on orders," and 162 died. The whole State expenditure for soldiers orphans since the inauguration of the sysom has been $4,438,226 and the estimated cost for the three succeeding years in which the system will continue in operation is and lightning enable them to send their $1,400,000, including the amount now ap-

RATIONAL MEDICATION .- Medication is only successful when it is rational, and it is rational only when it begins at the beginning. In other words, to core a malady, its cause must be removed. Weakness, either general or local, is the origin of the great majority of diseases. Reinforce the vital energies, regulate digestio and secretion, by strengthening the organ which perform those all-imperant function and dyspepsia, constipation, kidney and bladde complaints, uterine difficulties, impure circula tion, and the thousand and one allocats which are the consequences of debility, are complete ly, and in most cases permanently, removed. The best, sufest and most agreeable tonic and alterative that can be employed for this purpose is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. The ex ber of ephemeral preparations which have en-tered into competition with it, has proved it to be unequaled as a remedy for all disorders accompanied by or proceeding from weakness
