Three prisoners escaped from jail one day last week, one returned, another was captured and the third, Sheriff says, is still at large.

Have any of our readers noticed the extraordinary brightness of the Evening star of late? It is really quite remarkable. On Tuesday night last the star was surrounded by a well-defined halo and looked like the moon in miniature.

The suspension in the coal regions will continue until March 20th.

Nathaniel Taylor, and Frank Bartholomew were admitted to practice law in Mouton County last week.

Farmers, if you want a first class iron-beam plow go to Harnan & Hasser's.

Subscribers to the Columbian who propose to change their residences should give us prompt notice.

We are informed that William Krickbaum, County Clerk, is suffering from a severe attack of diphtheria.

George D. Jackson has been chosen as representative delegate from Sullivan county to the Democratic state convention.

Judge Taft was sworn into office as Secretary of War last Saturday. The oath was administered by Chief Justice Waite.

An adjourned session of court for the trial of several important cases, will be held in April, beginning on the 10th. The list of jurors will be found in another column.

Large flocks of pigeons passed over and near town last Saturday. Several of our sportsmen were out but with no success the birds flying so high as to be beyond gun shot.

Hon. Charles R. Dickel has been chosen by the State House of Representatives as one of the Board of Trustees of The Pennsylvania Museum and School of Industrial Art.

Hairpins covered with silk to match the shade of the wearer's hair are another invention. They are invisible, and, moreover, keep in place better than the ordinary kind.

CORRECTORS.—A station agent at Bhopert requests us to deny that he is in any way implicated with the "Merry Magnates." We give him the benefit of his denial, and refer him to our advertising rates.

JURORS.—The Commission for the County of Luzerne, called by D. H. B. Brower, it proposes to be independent in all things. The Doctor has the ability to get out a good newspaper, and undoubtedly will do so. We wish him success.

What pigeons in greater numbers than have been seen for years are now in the upper part of this county. Perhaps some of these birds may find their way into our markets and at such prices as to put them within the limits of every purse.

Prof. J. W. Ferrer delivered a very interesting lecture at Normal Hall on Friday evening last. His subject was "The nature and practical value of mathematics." The Professor, always interesting, sustained his reputation on this occasion.

Monday last was the first genuine March-day we have had this year. The wind was high and keen, the sun's rays warm, and the general feeling of the community was that although the winter's luck none would have been broken if it had given any evidence of possessing one, there was some vitality in the old fellows system yet.

It is remarkable how many persons aged one hundred years or thereabouts are coming into sight lately. The veterans have become suddenly quite fashionable so much so, in fact, that no family having a proper conception of its own dignity should be without one. Where's Barnum? Here is a glorious opportunity for him to secure a galaxy of the "oldest living human beings on the globe." Admitted to the County liberal arrangements made for Sunday School.

This is St. Patrick's Day. It is not celebrated by parades in Pennsylvania this year. The order has gone forth from the heads of the various Irish societies "that out of love for American liberty and a desire to render those hundredth anniversary of the declaration of independence all the better to the occasion, and to make the Fourth of July parade a memorable one in the history of the Irish organizations, that there be no general parade upon the 17th of March."

Thus far the fruit trees seem to have suffered no injury, the weather not having been continuously warm as to start the buds. What is looking well and has sustained no damage from the alternate frozings and thaws which it could be a pity, try to have short crops, especially of fruit, in this Centennial year with all the world on our own soil prepared to eat an orange. It is odd, by the way, that the annual detestation of peach buds in New Jersey has not as yet been reported.

The following bill now before the Legislature will, if passed, save much money to those who are stockholders in the building and loan associations of the country.

From and after the passage of this act it shall not be lawful for any building and loan association heretofore incorporated, or heretofore to be incorporated under the provisions of any act of the general assembly of this Commonwealth, to impose upon its stockholders or stock interest on any loan made by it, or to require any stockholder to pay interest on any such loan.

An advertisement headed "Consumption Cured" and signed by W. C. Stevens, Monroe block, Syracuse, N. Y., appears in many papers in this section of the state, and for the benefit of the press, we give our experience with the gentleman. After a letter of inquiry, as to price etc., which we answered, we received the following postal card.

Syracuse N. Y. Dec 15th 1915. GENTLEMEN: I am 17th year old. My lungs are satisfactory. Please insert ad "Consumption Cured" and receipt of "COLUMBIAN" and two dollars and my name in your paper. I am ready to pay for the medicine. I will receive it by P. O. order for first quarter. Yours truly, W. C. Stevens.

The advertisement was inserted on Dec 24th, 1875, and the paper sent regularly, but no P. O. order was received. The Dr. Stevens, as he is called, has not answered. They were made again, with the same result. Finally, determined to lift the matter thoroughly, we sent a light draft, dated February 27th, which came back to us on March 7th with a refusal to pay, and an endorsement "will write." After again waiting several days we wrote him, saying that if we did not hear from him within four days we would publish him. That time has passed and we are as good as our word.

Newspapers containing this advertisement may as well discontinue, and charge to profit and loss.

THE COLUMBIAN AND DEMOCRAT

Jerry Black has become known for the District of Columbia real estate ring, as well as for his "Baltimore" paper, who know him better than he never takes a "lower case." Jerry is a hard-hell Democrat.—Gandy & Bellows.

Republican scoundrels are getting hard pushed and doleful moods against their wills, have to employ Democrats to help them out in their troubles. They don't trust their own party associates and so go where they can get honesty and ability. There will be more of them heading the aid of "Hard shell Democrats," before the end comes.

YANKER DOODLE. In this Centennial year every thing relating to the Revolutionary era is being revived. But "Yankee Doodle" seems to have been forgotten. Many versions of it are now being, but we agree with a correspondent of the Boston Globe that the following are the original words. At least our grandmothers taught us so:

Father and I went down to camp, And with Captain Gooden, As thick as hasty pudding, And there was Mr. Washington, And all the folks about him, And I think that father said, "It is a goodly sight to see without him."

Public Sales. All sales for which we print bills will be notified in this column free of charge. Drafts of bills containing a list of articles or a description of land to be sold, with the date and time of sale and the conditions of payment, can be sent to us by mail or otherwise, and we will promptly print and return them to any part of the county as directed.

The Republicans of last week give no information to its readers on the subject of Helikon. In an editorial headed "A Severe Morse" it labors to show how tickled the Democrats are because "they think they see a little political capital" in the affair. It gives no particulars of Balknap's offense, but does not fail to charge Hon. Helikon with permitting Morse to escape.

There is no political significance in this exposure of some of the administration pets, why is the Republican allowed to tell the whole story? When it says that the President issued no order directing the prosecution of all who were connected with the transaction, it shows that it either does not read the papers, or else that they willfully misrepresent facts.

The Committee on patents of the House of Representatives have reported adversely on the application of A. B. Wilson for the extension of his patent on sewing machines known as the "diamond motion feed." Herebefore the various sewing machine companies have been compelled to pay a heavy royalty for the use of this extremely valuable improvement and it is claimed that as it now becomes public property the price of the machines will be reduced.
