WRITS OF ERROR.

On the 15th day of February 1870, the Legislature passed a bill "to allow writs of error in cases of murder and voluntary manslaughter." The bill had been vetoed by Gov. Geary, but was passed over his veto by both Houses by the requisite two thirds vote. The law provides that:

In all cases of murder in the first degree In all cases of murder in the first degree, removed into the Supreme Court under the provisions of the first section of this act, or now pending in the said court, it shall be the duty of the judges thereof to review both the law and the evidence, and to determine whether the ingredients necessary to constitute murder in the first degree shall have hear proved to evide and if notes. have been proved to exist; and if not so proved then to reverse the judgment and send the same back for a new trial, or to

Gov. Geary in vetoing this bill probably acted under the advice of his Attorney General, and that advice was good. The present Legislature would do well to repeal this law. There is no necessity for any such law and the objections to it are numerous and strong. It virtually makes the Supreme Court both judge and jury, and to that extent does away with the necessity for the latter in the lower courts; it imposes upon the already overworked Supreme Court as immense amount of new work; and it offords priminals a convenient method of postponing the sentence of the law.

The lower Courts are perfectly competent to dispose of this class of cases, subject only to the usual appeals to the Supreme Court from rulings and charges. The law as it stands is a stumbling block to justice and a rock of offence to the highest legal tribunal in the State, and it should be repealed. With the rapid increase of murders the Supreme Court bids fair to be turned into a Court of Oyer and Terminer-and if not of general jail delivery at least of general delay. There is not much danger that the poor slaughter ers of their fellow beings will suffer too much if this law is done away with.

SCHENCK. Robert C. Schenk, late Minister to England, has been testifying before the foreign relations Committee, relative to his connection with the Emma Mine swindle and has come off but badly. He thinks he is an ill used man and apparently endeavored to convince the Committee that he was a fool but not a knave. He admitted that for more than a year he held five hundred shares of the mine stock, for which he had not paid a cent, and received dividends of two per cent a month-twenty-four per cent a year-for part of that time and one and a half per cent a month-eighteen per cent a year-for the rest of the time. Schenck says he gave his note for the amount of the stock, but the absurdety of any mining company taking a promissory note for stock paying two percent a month is too great for credence It is difficult to imagine how much proof Mr. Schenck would deem necessary to make given and the dividends paid to Mr. Schenck an advisory council, who are to judicially the very room of the Post Master General for the use of his name as United States Minister to float a rotten stock on the Enfectly successful in convincing the committee and the country that he is a fool, but not so successful in making it appear that he is not also a knave. When he admitted the holding of the stock, without giving an idends he virtually confessed all the charges sgainst him. He stands before the people a disgraced man-a contempible fellow who used the high position he held as a cloak under which to defraud the people to whom he was sent as embassador and as a means to secure his safe retreat when threatened with

The New York Times says the Democrate may call this a victory if they like, but it is a victory which warrants the expectation that Connecticut may be counted among the Republicans States in November. This beats Mark Tapley. The Democrats elected their whole ticket with four parties in the field; havea majority on joint ballot in the Legislature of 89, against 34 last year and secured a United States Senator for the ensuing six years, and yet the Times "don't was happy," and thinks this overwhelming defeat "warrants the expectation" of a Republican victory next fall. If there was only one Republican in Connecticut the Times would cherish the hope that he would rally "hisself" and in solid phalanx and in serried column hurl "hisself" re sistlessly against the Democratic ranks and elect "hisself" to all the offices in the State. It takes an organ to get comfort out of nothing-the old feat of extracting blood from a turnip is nothing to it.

Grant has been much abused for appointing inferior men to high positions, but he seems to have known the kind, after all, that the Senate would confirm. He broke through his usual rule, recently, and appointed Richard H. Dana Jr., a gentleman and a scholar, minister to England. Did the Senate confirm the appointment? Not much. That pure and high toned creature Ben Butler entered a protest, Cameron, Morton and the rest endorsed it and the senate rejected Mr. Dana. Grant was right and will likely enough send in the name of Babcock, Harrington, Boss Shepherd or one of the broken-down carpet-bag statesmen and the Senate will promptly confirm. Butler runs bly. This act the Legislature can repeal. this government just now and we might as If the Legislature has the power it should well understand it.

Now let the organs raise a loud howl, and a long howl and a howl altogether at the"rebel" element which has been insidiously worked into the grand juries of the South. Let Morton conover this fresh insult to the party of "loilty," and give us the concluding portions of that This card is to call your attention to his undelivered Mississippi speech.

Mr. Butler B. Strang, of Tioga, State Senator, is a Republican leader and has been so long in legislative harness that he is popularly supposed to know all the business pertaining to law making. He is an able man-at least be has that reputation-and a man of influence. Yet he is the one who introduced the resolution in the Senate not to take up any House bills after the lat of April, and who is mainly responsible for its passage. Shrewd politician he may be—but A BEAUTIFUL PARTY.

For years the newly enfranchised negroes have been ruling and ruining South Carolina. The whites and property owners were in the minority, and the once proud old State became the prey of carpet baggers. Plunder and corruption, as usual, followed Radical sway. But the rogues have fallen out, and there is a chance—a mere chance—for the redemption of the State. The Associated Press dispatch given below tells one of the Governor Chamberlain insisted that where any county sent two sets of delegates all about the contest of th Elliot, who asked whom he meant, that he (Elliot) was the head and front of those robbers. Elliot drew a pistol and sought to get at Mackey, who awaited him. Desks and chairs were overthrown and the exci-ted delegates gathered around Mackey and Elliott and dragged them apart. A chair was brandished over Governor Chamber-lain's head by an opposition delegate. No blows passed, and when the convention had calmed down a little, the chairman, ex-Congressman Whittemore, ruled out the con-testing delegates, all of whom were supporter ofChamberlain, Swails, colored state senator nominated for president pro tem., and the vote was 80 for Swails and 40 for Chamberlain A. committee on credentials, mainly made up of the anti-Chamberlain party, was appoint-ed, and the convention adjourned to seven Lanahan has a respite of one year. A le Lanahan has a respite of one year. A lo-cal gives a graphic description of the re-ception of the news by the prisoner. If there was ever a wilful, premeditated and vindictive murder, the killing of Capt. Jack Riley was one. If ever there was evidence to convict a man of crime, Lenahan was fairly convicted of the murder of Riley. Whether, as has been suggested, it is because the wilder of Riley. Whether, as has been suggested, it is because the widow of Riley is poor, or the murderer has powerful friends, does not matter, it seems likely to be further proof that there is no real justice to be found in the courts of this country. After a wonderful display of zeal in arresting and trying a man for a foul crime, and a conviction upon proof which the court and jury decided could leave no reasonable doubt of guilt, the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania decides that a year there has been an honest conviction and then there has been an nonest conviction, and then interest will have died out, and the prison doors may be opened. There may be some mistake about the report, or the trial must have been a well acted farce, and a disgrace to Luzerne.-Record of the Times.

As a matter of fact the Democrats is strong for Bristow admitting that Blaine were defeated there from 1855 to 1867. The Republicans were also successful in 1868-1869—1871 and 1872. In other words for 21 years the Democrats have carried the State but five times.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 10, 1876. Special Correspondence.

The disclosures of the last week, while they are not so startling as the Belknap affair, are of much greater importance. fore Mr. Clymer's committee it has been proven, that President Grant himself sent r apy to St. Louis to prevent the conviction of Babcock. The witness Bell, who was the COLUMBIA, April 11,-This morning's ses- spy, tried to protect Grant, his old comsion of the State Republican Convention was both turbulent and exciting. There are two distinct parties in that body; one of them s led by Governor Chamberlain and consists washington and of Mr. Dyer and Col. Brodof those who support his reform policy. The other party is led by United States Senator Patterson who has at his back Collector Worthington, of Charleston, Congressman Small, ex-Congressman Elliott and most of the Republicans who were conspicuous as rulers of the party before Gov. Chamberlain's election. Each of the two parties desired to control the convention as that would carry with it not only the selecdesired to control the convention as that would carry with it not only the selection of delegates to the national convention, but also probably the control of the State nominating convention to be held hereafter. The trial of strength took place upon the question whether the delegates whose seats were contested by other delegates should be ring.

The naval committee have taken an in mense amount of testimony and have ungates, all should be temporarily admitted or all excluded. The debate grew very hot.

Judge Mackey, one of the delegates, denounced the anti-Chamberlain party as a band of robbers, and told ex-Congressman has not only diverted the public funds from earthed such a show of corruption in the has not only diverted the public funds from their legitimate use but he used millions of the government money and risked its loss to sustain the sinking fortunes of the house of Jay Cooke, McCulloch and Co., of London when he knew that house to be virtually bankrupt. Large amounts will be lost by his criminal conduct. The Navy Yards everywhere were used as political machines to forward the election of Radicals and the funds that should have been expended in building ships were used to secure votes. Robeson's friend, Cattell, was paid five per cent, on all contracts and no one desiring to sell anything to the navy department could do so without submitting to this black mail. But the Indian committee have demo strated even more of rascality than could be ound in the navy department, in the treatment of the Indians-veery species of venality that could be devised and the exstence of a ring which permeated every department of the government and even pene rated into the very committee room where the examination was being made. Congress man Page of California is on the Indian committee and was one of the sub committee over which Wilshire of Arkansas presided. Wilshire has been most industrious in hunting up frauds. He is a good lawyer and understands how to extract the truth from even an unwilling witness. Page was continually in the habit of brow beating witnesses before the committee and had to be reproved more than once for his conduct. It finally came out that he had a reason for his action, as one of the witnesses, Mr. Meeker a corresbeen informed that Page was himself a Boyd W Williams Berwick Borough pondent of the Herald, swore that he had member of the Indian ring, Meeker refused to give the name of his informant, and Page blustered about having him taken before the nouse and compelled to answer, but he has not done so nor does he intend to. Scales We have referred to this novel power and Wilshire of Arkansas deserve credit for given the Supreme Court in another the manner in which they have conducted this investigation.

But there is a worse evil than this, and The Post Office committee have also plication is based, and the Governor cannot Every day new revelations are being made and new investigations ordered, but the business of Congress is not neglected on this acplundering the people, and even if detected and convicted they have a friend in our of six millions of dollars made by the bill President-seeking Governor. > UNLIMITED REMEDIAL RESOURCES. People sometimes suppose that Dr. Pierce's Family Medicines represent the entire extent of his resources for curing disease. This is an error. Experience proved that while the Golden Medical Discovery, Favorite Prescription, Pleasant Purgative Pellets, Compound Extract of Smart-Weed, and Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, would, if faithfully used cure a large variety of chronic complaints, there would be here and there is case which, from its everity or from its complication with other disorders, would resis their action. These exceptional cases re quired a thorough examination into their symptoms, to ascertain the exact nature and extent of the diseases under which the pa-tient was laboring, and the use of specific
