The Bloomsburg Columbian, in criticising the remark of the Williamsport Bullion should stick to the truth. The pardon of the Schuylkill county commissioners was recommended by the Board of Pardons which is composed partly of democrats and partly of republicans, and therefore, if any blame be attached for the act of opening their prison doors, it ought not to iall on Gov. Queer notions of history obtain even in this young country. Gov. Hartranft desires to have historical sketches prepared between this date and next Fourth of July, treating of the affairs of towns and counties, which are finally to be deposited with the Libra-rian of Congress. A work of years is to be done in a few weeks. The mass of rubbish, unverified, jumbled and heterogeneous which would be put in the hands of the Librarian, if this well-intentioned purpose were executed, would appal and amaze that function ary accustomed as he is to congressiona publications and attuned to tediousness The 4th of July for him, and all of us, in stead of a day of rejoicing would be a day of howling and despair. - Patriot,

Fortunately, however, for Columbia county her history has been written by a gentleman of get such an amendment, and wanted me to excellent literary ability, and whose name is well known throughout the State. We refer to Hon. John G. Freeze, late a member of the Constitutional Convention, who has been collecting the necessary material for years. His history will soon appear, and will be found to be well written and entirely correct. Advance chapters have been pub lished in the COLUMBIAN. We advise his selection as the Centennial Orator for Columbia county.

A number of patriotic, stay-at-home Re publicans having called the loyalty(?) of Mr. Randall in question, we beg leave to submit to them a letter from him, while a soldier in the service of his country, to Col. ThomasA. favor of the promotion of Col. Geo. H. Thomas, who subsequently became a Department commander and leading general in SANDY HOOK, Md., Aug. 3, 1861.

I am, as you perhaps know, a private in the First City Cavalry of Philadelphia, and I never saw Colonel Thomas until I saw him on parade, and our intercourse has been only such as exists between a colonel and one of his soldiers, hence you can see my commendation comes from pure motives and is en-tirely free from social or political considerations. I speak for and write in behalf of the prave men who, in this hour of our country's peril, are coming forward and endangering their own lives, and, perhaps, leaving those most dear to them without a support I write warmly because I think I know the necessity of the case. THE BOOM BILL.

The House of Representatives has finally oncluded to again send the bill reducing the boomage charges of the Susquehaum Boom Co, to the Senate. They have ever cluded that not to do so would be a triumpl for Herdie and the monopoly, and that the bill is just and proper in itself.

As to the evidence before the committee our readers are mainly concerned in that of its own Representatives. The death of Mr. Ryan prevented the committee from taking his testimony, but in no way is his name disgracefully connected with the subject.

In justice to Mr. McHenry, we give his testimony in full below:

Still another charge is made against poor, fallen Babcock, and it is about the worst yet. The New Orleans Democrat squarely asserts that the appointment and confirmation of the infamous Billings as District Judge to succeed Durell was brought about on a strictly cash basis by a ring, of which the chief members were Senator West, Babcock and Porter. Billings is said to have offered $45,000 for the place to Brother-inlaw Casey, who communicated the proposition to Babcock and Porter. The latter are represented as eagerly undertaking the job, while Casey, frightened by the numerous investigations then just beginning, backed out. The others went ahead, and the appointment was made. The story is very circumstantially told, but needs confirmation .-

The venerable and consistent editor had a different opinion of the "smelling committee" of the lamented John Covode, which did such a tremendous business in the way of detraction on much smaller capital than that on which the present investigations are operating. On Monday morning after a quiet Sunday or cogitation, the House resumed the con-
