THE CAMPAIGN COLUMBIAN

TO DEMOCRATIC VOTERS.

We will send the COLUMBIAN to persons in this county from the first of June until after the November election for 75 cents, and in advance. This barely covers the cost of the paper. Every family should seize this opportunity. The COLUMBIAN is the only paper in the county that gives all the news of the Great Exhibition, and in addition to that, the doings of the different state conventions of both parties, the national conventions at St. Louis and Cincinnati and all the important news of the campaign will be given weekly. If you take the paper, show this to your neighbors; if not, send 75 cents to THE COLUMBIAN, Bloomsburg, Pa., and get a good newspaper for six months at one fourth less than usual rates.

One of the newest and most attractive stores now in town is that of D. A. Greasy.

Next week we will give details of decoration services at various points in the County.

John D. Williams and wife, of Northville, California, are visiting relatives in this place.

Everything is Centennial now days; even "Coca-Cola" has an inside coating of red, white and blue.

Some of the would-be-like-to-sheriffs took considerable interest in decorating soldiers' graves at Berwick last Tuesday.

One would suspect that horseflesh was certainly at a discount when they are turned loose to hunt their own living upon the streets.

"Bupert," a suburban of this town, can boast of two walkies.

George, who is not a Ryder?

On Monday last Anne Karchner, who was working at the quarry of Knittles & Glade, had her leg broken by a fall of dirt and rock.

Mr. Frederick J. Lefter, of Greenwood township, this county, lost his arm, with all its contents, by fire, early on Tuesday morning, May 30th. It was caused by the explosion of a lantern in which kerosene was used.

Excursion Tickets are now issued at the D. L. & W. depot in this place to Philadelphia via Harrisburg at $5.70, and via Scranton, Delaware Water Gap and Trenton, N. J., for $6.45.

CENTENNIAL.—A large number of our citizens are visiting the Centennial Exhibition this week. All agree that it is the best show they ever attended, not excepting Dan Rice's.

Mr. Walker's bungalow has not yet been found. It is a pity the search could not be made and punished. He evidently knew that Mr. Walker was necessarily absent at Danville Court.

All persons using the American Movable Frame Bed in Columbia county, without the right, let them know that D. A. Greasy at Bloomsburg, Pa., will pay for them, and they will be proceeded to the full extent of the law.

On Wednesday last the residence of Mrs. Ellen Eves, at Millville, was burned to the ground. As to the cause of the fire we have not been informed. Insurance $2,000 in the Millville Co.

If the town clock is intended to be of any service to the citizens on Main street near the Court House or to those passing in front of it, it would suggest that the town should be informed that the time of day may be seen.

Mr. George A. Herring, has under consideration, a plan for bringing the water from the springs on the opposite side of the Susquehanna, into our town, and if successful, Bloomsburg will soon rejoice over the fact of having water works.

The Junior Editor started for Philadelphia on Monday last to see the Centennial. We omit our usual letter on this subject this week in celebration of the brilliant one promised from his pen. The paper, however, should be carefully read, so that our readers may contrast this and the next Centennial.

As most of our readers know, some of the finest farms in Columbia county are along the Frying Creek. Among these none take higher rank for good cultivation and scientific farming than that of William Holmes of Benton. His wheat crop produced an excellent yield, and, we believe, is not equalled in the county.

Our neighbor, the editor of the COLUMBIAN, is a successful farmer. His wheat is no where. Forty of the finest trills on one acre, but only one minute, a Republican.

As our neighbors do not know the difference between a mallow and a catfish, we leave them in ignorance. But on Friday last we know that the editor of the COLUMBIAN spent the afternoon angling, and did not bring home to his expectant family a single fish.
