TO SUBSCRIBE.

We do not believe in the policy of constantly changing our subscribers for no other reason than that we are obliged to call their attention to the following: We presented the Columbus Democrat to 1875, and all subscriptions since then are payable to us. It is now nearly nine months since that time, and we have never asked an individual for his subscription, though the terms are payable in advance.

THE LUTHERAN SYNOD.

ONE OF THE BUSINESS MEN.

One of the business men in which Bloomsburg takes great pride, is the clothing establishment of David Lorenberg. The many perfect fitting suits worn by our citizens are done to the explicit taste in selection of goods, and the skillful cutting of Mr. J. R. Townsend, who cannot be excelled in his line outside of the city.
