FOR PRESIDENT. SAMUEL J. TILDEN.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT. THOMAS A. HENDRICKS.

OF NEW YORK.

OF INDIANA.

FOR PRESIDENT. SAMUEL J. TILDEN. The Democratic Convention at St. Loui-

nominated for President Samuel J. Tilden, now Governor of New York, Our readers are aware that our first choice was Gen. Hancock, and the Pennsylvania delegation deserve credit for the solid support given him. But the selection of Gov. Titden on the second ballot, by 42 votes beyond the requisite two thirds showed the determination of the delegates to put in nomination, not only one of the nation's ablest statesman, but to do it with such unanimity as to leave no doubt in the minds of the people as to the wisdm of their choice,-Heretofore, rivalry and dissension have slaughtered many of America's ablest statesman, and it is seldom that a man so prominent as Gov. Tilden has received the neces sary two-thirds with so slight a contest,

It is a response to the universal demand of the people for Reform; and who better could be entrusted with this herculean task than the man who inaugurated it in New York, against the strongest Ring combinations known in history? We give the people not only our pledge for Reform, as an organization, but present a leader who has been identified with it, and would carry it into effect at Washington as thoroughly as he did in New York. Unlike his opponent, he would lead in the work, and not be dietated to by factions, nor by corrupt influ-

Let every voter who would have A CHANGE ECONOMY AND REFORM, RALLY FOR TILDEN! P. S.-Hendricks, of Indiana, is nominated for Vice President by acclamation. It is a ticket to win. It insures the Democracy not only New York, New Hampshire, Con-North, but gives us a good chance for Pennsylvania, Ohio and Illinois. Oregon and California were sure before. With the States we can carry in the South, Tilden and Hendricks will sweep the country.

THE INDIAN WAR. The Press dispatches give us the follow ing from the "seat of war."

Gen. Crook and Capt. Nickerson have telegraphed to Omaha, under date of the 19, inst., that they had a sharp fight with the Indians on Rosebud Creek, on the morning of the 17th. It lasted several hours, and the loss of the military was 2 man billed.

Be seen and felt, and if his nomination fail to arouse great enthusiasm it will certainly be lore, than for brutality. He always went with Mackey.

The convention might have nominated Morton or Conkling.

Persons living in unhealthy localities may avoid all billious attacks by taking a dose of tack in force, but were defeated, and the soldiers camped on the field. Thirteen dead Sioux were found on the field, and it is believed that many more were killed. Gen. Crook's horse was shot under him. General Crook has ordered five additional companies of infantry and one of cavalry to report at

The action seems to us much like a drawn dians, on account of their superior numbers can well afford to lose thirteen men killed to our nine. Camping on the field, and sending for reinforcements does not look much like a victory. Perhaps Grant had better have left Custer command the expe-

HARD OR SOFT?

The financial plank adopted by the Republicans at Cincinnati is as follows :-IV. In the first act of Congress signed by President Grant, the National Governpurpose to discharge all just obligations to public creditors, and solemnly pledged its faith to make provisions at the carliest practicable period for the redemption of the United States notes in coin. Commercial prosperity, public merits, and National credit demand that this promise be fulfilled by a continuous and steady progress to specie. by a continuous and steady progress to specie

This is richness. The Western greenbacker can argue unlimited time for resumption from it, and the hard money man contend that it means immediate resumption. But we would ask in all candor does it mean the resumption of Specie payments in 1879, according to the Sherman Act? Will the Republican inform us?

What desecration of the Sabbath! Peti tions should at once be prepared asking the authorities of Rhode Island to close all places of interest in their jurisdiction on Sunday, so that the Emperor of Brazil may see how a United States Sabbath is observed. It would be well if an injunction could be served on His Royal Highness, restraining him from such wicked amusements. Would ing the Centennial Exhibition closed on Sunday, that it is our duty toward sGod, rather than that we may show the world how we keep the Sabbath.

The Democratic National Convention me on Tuesday in St. Louis, and elected Henry Vatterson, of Kentucky, temporary chairman, Mr. Abbott, of Massachusetts, offered a resolution adopting, until otherwise ordered, the rules of the last National Convention, which included the two-thirds rule. The resolution was adopted. Committees on permanent organization and resolutions were then appointed, and Miss Phoebe Cozzens, of St Louis, was heard in behal of Women Suffrage. A recess was taken until evening. when the Committee on Permanent Organiration reported Gen, John A. Mr. Belmont, of New York, read ome resolutions arraigning the Republican party and appealing to the American people o put an end to sectional strife. They were referred, and the Convention then adjourned

On Wednesday morning the Convention re-assembled, and the platform was adopted. The several candidates were placed in nomination, and the balloting was as follows: FRIST BALLET.

There being no choice the Convention

Whole number of votes cast, 738; necessary to a choice, 492. Samuel J. Tilden having received the requisite two-thirds vote was declared nominated. The Convention then adjourned until Thursday morning at 10 o'clock without balloting for a candidate for Vice President

(Communicated) THE TRUE INWARDNESS OF THE CINCIN-

NATI NOMINATIONS. The nomination of Hayes and Wheeler at Cincinnati has taken the whole country by surprise. Upon the rank and file of the Republican party its effect has been much the surprise. Upon the rank and file of the Republican party its effect has been much the same as a douche bath. The ardor and enthusiasm for favorite candidates had become high; but suddenly the thermometer went down to below zero. The main work of the party leaders since has been, by every spicles of political strategy, to simulate, and gradually to create, an enthusiasm which this nomination did not, and of itself could not produce. Hence the Hartford Post says: "We see no reason why Gov. Hayes should not speedily coquire the popularity and receive the vigorous support accorded to Lincoln in his first canvass." Who is the oldest living member of the Pennsylvania Legislature? Alexander Colley, residing in Benton township, this county, now past ninety years of age, representWASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 27, 1876, There was little of interest transacted in the House of Congress on Saturday, except-ing the passage of the bill to repave Penn-sylvania Avenue, and that indeed is only sylvania Avenue, and that in-ceed is only interesting to the tax-payers of the city, and the railroad that traverses that street. To them it is very interesting in a pecuniary point of view as it will cost them heavily to pay their allotted proportion. Mr. Sayler, of Ohio, on Saturday was elected Speaker of the House pro tem vice Mr. Cox, who was absent, having gone to St. Louis. This will make Mr. Sayler Speaker until Mr. Kerr re make Mr. Sayler Speaker until Mr. Kerr re-sumes his duties and should he die or resign (neither of which it is hoped will take place) it will go a long way towards making Mr. Sayler Speaker for the next session. The city is full of strangers and the streets look lively. The most prominent topic is the anticipated action of the St. Louis Convention. is a recognized fact that while the citizen of Washington have no voice in the selec-tion of a President, they are perhaps more immediately concerned than the people of any other city, hence the excitement that exists here during every compaign among local politicians. From present appearances there does not appear that self denial on the part of prominent aspirants at St. Louis, which should characterize those who have the success of great party principles at heart and feel that in disseminating those principles they will be serving the best interests of their country. This one, that one, or the other won't take the second place on the ticket! Oh, yes, so and so, and so and so, would make an ex ellent ticket and would be certain of election; but we must change the order of their names. Oh no, our man first or not at all. Now talk like that the office seeks the man and not the man the office, and when the representatives f the Democratic party there assembled shall declare or intimate its preference for one to fill a certain position let us hope that ail personal or local considerations will be at ouce thrown aside and that the party designated will at once avow himself ready to serve his party and thus benefit his country There will be other elections to take place coming years and afford ample opportunit; for such self abn gation to find its rewards The Morning News argues very conclusively that the recent order issued from the War Department discontinuing the military di-vision of the South has a far deeper significance than appears on its face. It is under-stood to be the initiation of a plan design-ed to secure the electoral votes of Alabams, Arkansas, Louisiana and Mississippi for the Republican candidates, These four States will now be under the direct military con-trol of Lieut Genl.
