levied a school and building tax of twelve lows: mills on a dollar and placed a duplicate in the hands of their collector amounting to over $10, 000. When we consider that Bloomsburg now owná public school property amounting to more than $40,000, the condition in which the property is kept, the number and excellent quality of teachers employed, and the number of pupils to be instructed, this is not a large sum. We have reason to be proud of our common schools. Teachers for the ensuing year will be appointed on Monday the 17th inst.

The Republican finds fault because the name of Tilden and Hendricks were left on the large flag swung between the Court House and the Exchange Hotel on the 4th. We have only to say that this flag is the property of the Democratic party, purchased for their use, and it was hung out nearly a week before the 4th. It was impossible to remove the names as the Republican very well knows. They want to creep out of a small hole now, and so make the 4th an excuse for not yet having shown the names of Hayes & Wheeler. To be consistent with its own doctrine, the Republican ought to have omitted the names of its candidates in this weeks ssue. Their appearance gives the paper a "partisar" aspect you know.

The Jubilee Singers, of Williamsport, gave a oncert in the Opera House on Thursday evenng of last week to a large and highly respectable audience. This troupe is composed of members of the choir of the A. M. E. church of Wiliamsport, who are engaged in the landable effort of raising money to pay off a debt on their meeting-house. In one sense it is no charity to attend their concerts, for one gets the full worth of his money. Their singing is good, and of Koons is sufficiently recovered from his recent that character peculiar to the race; not marked serious illness to be able to leave his room. His by great skill in execution, but by sweemess of numerous friends will be pleased to hear of his tone; and the lively interest which the singers seem to take in it never fails to captivate the audience. We hope they will favor us again.

At about two o'clock on the morning of the belonging to one Seibert, of Berwick, was the 4th, three youngsters, who might be young men it they knew how to behave themselves, acceeded in alarming the town, by ringing the bell on the Episcopal Church. At first no one thought anything of it, supposing it to be part held last Friday night, the pavement on Main of the programme, but when it was continued below West street was changed from eight feet for a long time without any other bells ringing, it was thought to be about time to end it. When requested to stop, the boys answered by directng those on the pavement to go to a very warm climate, whereupon an entrance was effected and these smart youths jumped off the roof. We are perfectly familiar with their names, but withhold them out of respect to their families, who are attendants at that church.

There are now farmers living in said town-ship, (middle aged), who began on fifty acres unimproved, who now own as many as three farms valued at five thousand dollars each.

Mr. M. C. Brittain having erected a flag staff in front of his residence, our Republican friends concluded it would be the cheapest kind of a way to have a Hayes and Wheeler ratification neeting, and so made their arrangements ac cordingly. On a few six by ten inch posters they announced a grand rally on Saturday evening last. The band came out, and several citizens and a host of small boys proceeded to the spot to raise the first Republican flag that has made its appearance on the streets of Bloomsburg since the Cincinnati Convention, held nearly a month ago. Mr. Brittain made some appropriate remarks about the flag, but forgot o mention the Presidential candidates. This omission was made up by the second speaker, The indominitable Brower, of the Danville A. C. Smith, Esq., who in spread eagle style told the multitude(?) of the iniquities of the Democratic party. During this oration the band very properly employed their time by townsman, David Lowenberg, who had just re-The old German Reformed churchyard is in delegate to the National Democratic Convention. We ought to say on behalf of the Republicans that this delay in rejoicing over the Cincinnati Blaine having been put on the Republican flag a little too soon, and consequently they had no banner to fling to the breeze. Mr. Brittain supplied their want, and they took advantage of his private enterprise. Similar enthusiasm is being displayed by our opponents all over the nation.

NORMAL SCHOOL EXAMINATION. The examination of the Senior Class at the Normal School on Monday of last week by the State Examining Committee resulted in passing the entire class, twenty-five in number, without a dissenting vote. This speaks well for the class and the school. Notwithstanding the obstacles and the many depressing circumstances under which the school has labored the past year, the Committee pronounced the class a fine one, one that would do honor to any Normal School in the State. Deputy Superintendent Curry speaks of the school in high terms of praise. He also gives it as his opinion that the new dormitory building is the best arranged building in the State for school purposes, and that the school is not surpassed by any for efficiency and in furnishing the best of school advantages. Bloomsburg may justly be proud of her Normal School.

The names of the Committee are as follows Robert Curry, Deputy Superintendent of Pub. lic Instruction; William Noetling, Superintendent of Snyder county; Silas Wright, Superin tendent of Perry county; John M. The magnitude and value of the work grow upon us as we consider it. In the methods and appliances of Sabbath school instruction we see an improvement, to which the comparison of views in such conventions as this, the many excellent Sunday school periodicals, and the use of the uniform lessons ave contributed.

We would record with gratitude to God that during the past year there has been an unisually large number of accessions to the com-numion of the churches from the Sabbath school; and we would emphasize the early conversion and sarctification of the soul as the great end of ur efforts, and the power of the Holy Ghost a Sketch of Governor Hendricks.

Thomas Andrew Hendricks, of Indiana, who has been placed in nomination as the Democratic candidate for Vice President is five years younger than Mr. Tilden, having been born in Muskingum county, Ohio, September 7, 1819. When he was only three years old his father removed to Shelby county, Indiana, and that State was his ever atterward. Mr. Hendricks received a liberal education, and graduated from Hanover College in 1841, after which Fishing Creek township is about eight miles he studied law in the office of the late Judge Thompson, of Chambersburg, Pa., and was admitted to the Franklin county bar in 1848, the distinguished jurist, Jeremiah S. Black, being at the time the presiding justice of the courts of the county.

He returned to Indiana after coming the Bar, and began the practice of his profession. Success was not long in coming to the young lawyer, and he soon acquired not only a competence, but a high place at the Bar. He had not been long at the Bar, however, when he began his potitical career. In 1848 he was chosen a member of the Indiana Legislature, and in 1850 he served in the State Constitutional Convention. During the next five years he was a representative in Congress, and in 1855 President Pierce appointed him Commissioner of the General Land Office. He continued to hold this position under Mr. Buchanan's ad- the Democratic rules of Columbia county ;) ministration until 1859, when he resign-

In 1860 he was the Democratic candidate for Governor of Indiana, but was defeated by Henry S. Lane. Lane was soon afterwards chosen United States Senator, and in 1863 Hendricks became his colleague in the Senate. At that time the Democracy was a very weak minority in that body, but Mr. Hendricks succeeded in making a great reputation in the Senate both as a statesman and a lawyer. He was active and outspoken in opposition to the Republican measures of the time, among them the bill overturning marching up town and seranading our honored | the old State governments of the South, the Civil Rights bill and the Freedman's Bureau ourned from St. Louis, where he had been as a bill. In the impeachment trial of Andrew Johnson he played an important part, and added greatly to his reputation as a lawyer. In a single term in the Senate Mr. Hendricks acquired a position of great prominence before the country, and he placed himself so far forward in his party that since 1868 he has been generally regarded as among the Democratic candidates for the President. But for the Greeley movement he might have been nominated in 1872. After his retirement from the Senate in 1869 Mr Hendricks returned to the practice of his profession at Indianapolis, but he was not long allowed to remain out of publie life. After Greeley's nomination at Baltimore Hendricks was induced to accept a nomination for Governor of Indiana, in order to strengthen the Presidential ticket, and, after a bitter canvass, he was elected by a small majority, the rest of the ticket, except the Superintendent of Public Instruction, being lost to the democracy. The personal popularity of Governor Hendricks car-ried him through, but he had the advantage of having an opponent against whom th temperance sentiment of his State was arrayed. He has made an acceptable Governor, and has offended only in one respect-by signing a local option liquor bill, which was subsequently repealed.

Governor Hendricks is a man of strong and generous instincts. Socially he is one of the most agreeable men in public life, and he carries the urbanity for which he is noted into the court room as well as the exnoted into the court room as well as the ex-ecutive chamber. No one meets h'm with-out being charmed by his society. He pos-sesses a fund of wit and anecdote which make him a charming companion. His words felicitously chosen, his sentences al-ways well constructed and his elecution uent and easy. His house is full of books and paintings, and, although not a scholar in the higher sense, he is well versed in litera-ture and has been an especially close student of English and American oratory. In busi-ness affairs he is careful, methodical and E. Kline, A. Wilson, S. Miller, I. Patton, M. E. Schlicher, R. Stephenson, S. Smith.

ABE YOU COING TO PAINT.

Dr. Terry's Vegetable Nerve Remedy.

For a perfect restoration of the nervous system causing an immediate and proper cure in the following cases: nervous debility impaired nutrition of the body, insetted, evakiness in the finite and back independent and incapacity for study, duffiness of apprehension, loss of memory, aversion to society, timidity, self-district, dizziness, headache, incident to both sexes, for whose benefit it is designed and whose hap-timess it will promote.

The most entirent physicians of this country have exerted themselves to the utmost to check the increasing fatality resulting from the relaxation of the nerves. Having for a long period devoted much study, time and labor in establishing a remedy for the perfect restoration of the nervous system, it is grafifying to be able to amounce the success at tending my new method. Through this remedy the nerves can be reached and in such a way that, however shatterned or prostrated, they can be perfectly ever shatterned or prostrated, they can be perfectly ever shatterned or prostrated, they can be perfectly ever shatterned or prostrated. Tending my new method. Through this remedy the nerves can be reached and in such a way thin, however shattered or prostrated. Lay can be perfectly restored. It acts on the nerves at once, yet with gentlemess—restoring them to a matural state, and removing the above distributing diseases.

Both stress, more or less, through the prostration of the nervous system, one their energy. In such instances the Nerve Remedy may be relied upon in reviving the patient into the vigor of youth.

The Nerve Remedy is carefully compounded and put up in house with full directions. Price, one delar, expressed to my address on recent of price.
