and as both are alleged to be second Washingtons, it may not be amiss to call the attention of original Republicans to the dirference of views entertained by Grant and Lincoln as to the use of soldiers. In his message in 1861, Lincoln said: "Elections controlled by military are not a reflection of popular sentiments."

"Ballots are the rightful and peaceful suc cessors of bullets."

In 1872 Forney called a "Halt" on Grant. and supported Buckalew against Hartranft for Governor. For several years he was exiled to Europe, and in the meantime seems to have forgotten the noble words he once spoke. To show how much he is "mixed" we quote two paragraphs from the same issue of the Press : "Amnesty and oblivion for the errors of Florida Probably Democratic. A reporter of the Tribune called on Senator Jones, of Fiorida, at the Fifth Avenue Hotel, recently, to obtain his views of the political situation and prospects in Florida. Mr. Jones said that although Florida had always gone Republican since the war,it was a closely contested State, and there was little doubt that Democrats would be successful in November, as the Republicans had two State tickets in the field and as the Democratic candidate for Governor was a very popular man. Mr. Jores said that a desire for a change in the national administration was prevalent throughout the South, and many persons who had heretofore voted

Misrepresent, falsify, lampoon as they will, the republican journals cannot rub out the record of a saving of THIRTY MILLIONS OF DOLLARS to the people by the Democrats in Congress. Let Morton rage and Sherman explain, let Chaudler curse and Cameron carp, this fact stands out in bold relief, uncontradicted and incontrovertible. Nay, more; the saving was effected in spite of the resolute and persistent opposition of of the resolute and persistent opposition of in the pending campaign. The Press is constrained to say :

"There is such a thing possible as render ing popular government a mockery, and the combination of unmitigated knavery and ignorance which ruled in South Carolina before Chamberlain was made Governor before Chamberlain was made Governor came very near realizing that possibility. The whole country knows this and the car ses. It was not because most of the voters were men of black skins and their leaders white politicians transplanted from the North, but because the former were so igno-rent as to be pliant tools, and many of the latter utterly unscrupulous."

Yet Forney would continue the rule of the rascally "carpet-baggers" and "ignorant

An Apt Illustration.

In discussing political questions a few weeks ago a Benton Township farmer illustrated the absurdity of seeking reform by putting Hayes at the head of the Cameron, Boss Shepherd, Kemble, Spencer and Bab cock rings, instead of Grant, as follows: "When a hen has set on her nest so long that the eggs have become rotten, what is the use of trying to mend the matter by putting a new hen into the old nest?"

A GREAT SAVING.

This is doubtless a continuation of last year's bargain, by which he sold his influence to the Republicans for gold. It is a notorious fact that Schurz was paid $10,000 in gold to stump Ohio for Hayes. What his figure is to be this year has not yet been stated.

one, the latter brought in at a later period. In regard to these, I adopt fully and without reservation the principles announced by the late National Convention in New York, and in the words of the platform promulgated there, I consider "these questions as settled forever." I accept this as the result accomforever." I accept this as the result accomplished by the war, and as its logical and legitimate consequence. This I have done from the day the war closed, and I have counselled our people to look upon it in the same light. I was strongly in favor of the action taken by this State conferring on the negro equal civil rights with the white man; and more than a year ago I advocated the policy of giving to him as soon as we had the power to do so legitimately, suffrage based on qualification. The Democratic Convention held here in April last recognized him as "an integral part of the body politic," and declared that it would, when our party and declared that it would, when our party and declared that it would, when our party came into power, grant him partial suffrage. The State Central Club has just reaffirmed this declaration, and I have no doubt but that this declaration is sustained by a vast majority of the white citizeus of the State. We regard the Reconstruction acts as unconstitutional, but we look for their over-throw, not by violence, but, in the language of a sesolution unanimously adopted by the Democratic Party in Convention assembled "by constitutional agencies and peaceful remedies alone." We invoke a decision on the constitutionality of these acts from the only tribunal competent to pronounce on them—the Supreme Court of the United States; and we were prepared in good faith to abide by that decision. It may not be inappropriate to correct a misrepresentation widely spread by radical papers touching these acts. In these I have been charged with having dictated that portion of the Democratic platform relating to reconstruc-tion This charge I have more than once denied, and I do so again most emphatically The sense in which I spoke of the words

If the people of the North wish to build up a strong and lasting Union, let them be magnanimous and generous to the South; magnanimous and generous to the South; let them confide more fully than they have done, to the honor of our people, and they will meet with a keartfelt response. The future destiny of the Republic is in the hands of the North, and upon their action it depends whether there is again to be a Union, based on fraternal feelings, or one held together by the iron bands of military rule. the Republican ticket would this year cust

The victim of the tragedy was a your man named George Sheath, a prominent member of the Odd Fellows' fraternity, wide ly known and highly esteemed for his per sonal worth. He boarded with a widow lady named Warren, the yard of whose resifront of Mrs. Warren's premises and outside of the fence, stands an apple tree, one-fourth of which hangs over the lot owned and occupied by Trayer, who claims sole possession of the fruit. Just previous to the tragedy Sheath climbed the tree to knock off some apples for his boarding mistress, when Trayer's, a young man nineteen years old. Sheath did not obey, whereupon young ate aim, shot him in the abdomen. Sheath achusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New fell instantly to the ground and shortly af-

Judge Green sentenced Thomas Munley, the murderer of Thomas Sanger, and Judge Pershng pronounced the doom of James Carrol. James Boyle, James Roarity and Hugh McGehan, the assassins of Policeman B. F. Yost, of Tamagua. They all protested their anoceace of the crime for which they were condemned. Munley, upon whom solitary confinement has evidently produced a terribly depressing effect, asked that the death warrant be signed and he be sent over as soon as possible, as he "didn't want to live much longer." He also nade the curious statement that he was sinning every day in jail.

TTO COLLECTORS.

Collectors of County Taxes will be required to be prompt in paying ever to the County Treasurer at september Court next. Collectors for 1856, were required to make payment the latter part of July, but a number of their failed to do so, and we have satisfactory proof that some of the lax payers have not been called upon for their faxes. Sun Collectors have neglected their duty and must abile the consequences.

The County needs the money and Collectors can be experiented for neglected duplicates dated prior to 1816 must settle up.
