BURGLARY .- The night was dark and stormy. The lightning flashed in furid streaks across the heavens. It was the witching hour of about half post nine, when a certain neighborhood of the town of Bloomsburg was suddenly startled by cries of "Help!" and the announcement from a second story back window that a man was trying to break into the house. In response to the call several brave young men who happened to be not far distant armed themselves for the conflict. One took a hammer and another a In ntern and started for the scene of action. On their way they were encountered by another neighbor who had fortified himself with an unbrells and a revolver, and who nervously de demanded of them some information as to where the "man" was. Cantionaly the party advanced, with their lantern blazing brilliantly as a target for the robber to shoot at, if he should happen to be armed. As they neared the burglarized a sode they observed a man on the front perch quietly smoking a eigar, and after capturing him and carefully examining his person they discovered him to be --- never mind names; i was a perfectly harmless young gentleman who had kindly gone to inform the family that the head of the house was called away from town and that they should not be alarmed if he did not return. Explanations were made, and the Locust Pre-xic .- On Friday last a large number of the citizens of the Roaringcreek Valey met in Snyder's Grove, near Slabtown, and had a first-class pic-nic. The Kernstown band was in attendance. After an ode by the members of the O. U. A. M. present, the crowd was addressed by B. F. Zarr, Esq., and C. B. Brockway. A magnificent dirner was then enjoyed, after which dancing began, which was kept up until a late hour.

HORSE THIEVES ABOUT!

The large number of horses which have been olen in our county lately should put our reades on their guard. In fact, if the people would ake the Continuan and keep track of events ewer losses would ensue and detection of thieves could be easier. On last Friday C. R. Funston, a livery stable eeper at Catawissa, was induced by a man givng his name as Levi Cable to hire him his best iorse, buggy and harness for the estensible purpose of going to Orangeville, and from there to erseytown, to return Saturday afternoon. The "rig" stopped for supper at the Excharge, and has not been definitely traced since. The man, who called himself Levan, was generally a uainted in the neighborhood, and alleged that e had been working for Wm. Holling-head, in he valley, and spoke of the latter's having come a Funsion's for coal. It is alleged that he goes y the alias of John Whipple,

On Saturday last a horse of Douglas Hughe was also stolen. Now last harvest Mr. Hughes had about $80 stolen from him by an employee named George Fetterman. Learning that he had a sweet-heart in the wilds of Sullivan, Mr. Hughes, reinforced by Mr. Funston, started in that direction in pursuit. Just beyond Sonestown a man on horseback was about passing them when Mr. Hoghes suddenly recognized is horse and the rider. The latter started on a run—the buggy was turned in a twinkling and a shot was fired by Funstan, which is believed to have taken effect in the criminal's arm. The chase became exciting. Hughes got out-so did a spoke-for Sullivan roads are macadamized with upright stones. But Funston's pony was gaining on the fugitive, and he escaped to the woods. Search was instituted for him, and about 5 o'clock on Monday afternoon he was found in a blackberry thicket, curled up like a snake. On seeing his pursuers he demanded to see the warrant. A revolver cor vinced him, and he went quietly towards Laporte. Out West he wouldn't have got out of the woods. This shows our superior civiliza tion. He was promptly lodged in jail and handenfied; but if the jail is no better than

It is about time our County was thoroughly organized. Our opponents are hard at work in every direction, and the party organization is like a log at sea.

SHOCKING ACCIDENT,-Willie DeLacy, of Scranton, an interesting lad eight years of age and an only son of Capt. DeLacy, was thrown under a moving coal train while endeavoring to get on it in the vicinity of Scranton, on Thursday the 17th inst, the wheels mangling and mutilating his limbs in a horrible manner. It was found necessary to amputate the left leg above the knee, and all but one of the toes of his right foot. The lad is very weak, but may recover. Another warning.-Hadelon Sentinel

DEMOCE ATIC POLE RAISING .- On Saturday next, September 2, at six o'clock in the a fternoon, the Democracy of Bloomsburg will inaugarate the campaign in this county by erecting a large Hickory Pole at Geiger's, on the corner priate to the occasion will be made. Let there be a full turn-out.

On Monday evening there will be another rally at the Opera House, beginning at ! o'clock, Mr. Brockway will address the Club, Distinguished speakers from abroad are expected. Keep the fires burning. Let Bloomsburg at least show our friends in the County that we are armed and ready for November fight. The Republicans want a quiet campaign. We want one that will arouse and bring to the polls every man who is opposed to Grantism, and radical corruption and

> DESTRUCTIVE FIRE. On Monday morning last, at about half past wo, the startling cry of fire was heard, and in a ew moments all the bells in town were ringing out their wild alarums. It did not take long to secretain where the fire was. When first dis covered the rear of the buildings on the north east corner of Main and Iron steets were in dames. The fire soon spread to the clothing tore of A. J. Evans the grocery store of W. H. Brown and the jewelry store of Louis Bernhard and did not abate until all three build-ngs were reduced to ashes. Mr. Bernhard sucseeded in removing his property from the front som, except a large iron safe, which contained most of his valu bles. On Monday after non it was taken from the ruins and opened, and the ontents found somewhat tarmshed but not ruined. Mr. Bernhard's lass is about six hundred dollars, nearly covered by insurance. A.
