

THE COLUMBIAN.

BLOOMSBURG, FRIDAY, NOV. 10, 1876.

Table with 2 columns: Train Name and Time. Includes 'Hill Road Time Table' and 'CATAWISSA RAILROAD'.

James D. Brewer, of Muncy, caught a salmon weighing six pounds, with a hook and line, in the river immediately below Muncy dam, on Thursday last week.

Centennial Award.—Mr. Alex. M. Loxley of New York, whose Gothic Refrigerator (advertised in our columns) and Zero Refrigerator, have become so popular, received for the latter the highest award.

According to the report of the appraisers the total assets of the broken Potsville bank of the Mercier trust company are only worth $263,425.40.

The latest novelty is a short iron "looking chimney," made first of an ordinary oil lamp, and so confining the heat, that one can warm the baby's medicine or get up a plain stew in quick time by placing a cup or diminutive saucepan on the top.

Mr. Baltzer Leacock gave a game supper at his mansion on Thursday night of last week, on which occasion some dozen gentlemen did full justice to the delicious viands.

Here is an item of interest to landlords in this and other counties: A boarding-house keeper in Mercer county, Pa., was ordered to board, and the landlord not having copies of the late Hotel Act, posted up in his bedrooms, the boarder was released from paying his bill.

The COLLEMAN don't fly the Collins flag. What the former says is "Collins" "Nix" "organ," ain't right, you, Jerry? Look again. By the way, speaking of "organs" what kind of a political tune does your paper play?

What a year for apples this is! They are selling in this State for from three to eight cents per bushel, ten to fifteen cents for cider, and ten to twenty dollars for our lady apples.

A destructive insect known as the "carpet bug" has made its appearance, to the great disgust and dismay of house-keepers. It is entirely different in appearance and habits from the well known "carpet moth."

Farmers should be on their guard. A new dodge of swindling has been put in operation. Several strange men drive through an agricultural district. They stop at all the farm houses and make a contract to take all the butter the farm can furnish at fifty cents per pound.

The season falls to lugs is fairly insignificant and sausage, pork, and scrapple are becoming familiar adjuncts to the breakfast table.

The Northumberland Press says that J. Leisher, son of Daniel Leisher, of Point township, that county, hanged 120 bushels of corn, and tied up the fodder, in ten and a half hours.

The hens in this section of the country are not behaving themselves well; they will not lay and are leaning about doing nothing, in the face of advancing days.

There is an exhibition at Hemeshott's drug store a life-size crayon portrait of the late Gen. W. H. Est, which is really admirable.

The last Legislature passed a law giving the Commissioners of each county in the Commonwealth the power to fix the compensation for light, heat and fuel, for election purposes, in each and every township, borough, ward and election district in the State.

On Pine Creek, the other day, a lad of twelve years, by the name of Clark Jackson, while out gunning for birds, with his dog, the latter traced a cunning of large size.

An exchange eagerly remarks: We observe that the greatest man after a newspaper is the one who is too mean to subscribe.
