HER TREASURES

BY MARY AINGS DE VERE.

I thought my heart would break that day !

Is Willie's ? No, dear, that's young Blake, Who took the West Point highest prize :

I keep them in the old, old box

That Willie gave me years ago.

The time we parted on the rocks:

His ship lay swinging to and fro, At waiting in the lower bay,

The picture with the pensive eves

He went half crazy for my sake. Here are a lot of rhymes he wrote,

Is this his ring ? My dearest May,

I never took a ring from him !

This was a gift from Howard Ciny.

The setting looks a little rough.

He was as handsome as a prin

I used to visit at his home,-

Oh no ! I sent his letters back.

I know ljused to treat him ill,-

At Paris, and among the Alps :

This is the doctor's signet ring.

So sadiy at that raven tress. You know the head that lock forsook ;

About whose brow that ringlet curied.

Why won't I tell? Well, partly, claid,

Because you like the man yourself :

WHAT ARE THE STARS?

Are they white lambs, these stars on high,

That, when the day star sinks in night Still feed in pastures of the sky,

And to the shepherds lend their light ?

With sweetest petals open spread,

That, when we mortals rest from care, Their fragrance o'er the weary shed 7

That on God's altar shine so bright,

With which good angels, clothed in white, sweet hymns of love for us prepare,

The greatest trouble having been invented to do the work, though it would seem that such a machine in the shape of a coarse comb might easily be invented. But labor is cheap in the places where they are grown, which are in the light sandy soils of Tennessee, Virginia and North Carolina in this country. Peanuts are also largely grown in Africa, India, Brazil and other places. The best are raised in the valley of the river Gambia, in Africa, and yield large quantities of oil. This product, when properly produced is equal to olive oil ; but it is also used in woolen manufactures, in soap making, in lamps and for lubricating machinery. Last year the crop in see, 235,000 bushels; Virginia, 450,000; which Boston imported 38,000 and New this year is somewhat larger than that of last year, and promises well, the nut being generally better filled and matured than for two years and of finer quality.
