That fearful scourge of childhood, diptheria. is playing havoe both in this and adjoining counties. Parents should exercise the greatest care to guard their little ones from danger. The children should be warmly clothed and shod and slight attacks of sore throat should be promptly attended to. See that both shoes and by dry ones, and that the feet are warm when the children go to bed. A number of thieves were arrested near Harrisburg, last week, for robbing a Pennsylvania R. N. W. AVER & Son, Advertising Agents have removed to the handsome building just erected by the Philadelphia Times at the corner of Eighth and Chestnut Streets. Their business had assumed such proportions as to necessitate much larger accommodations, and they are fortunate indeed in securing so eligible a location.

The body of a young man named Harvey Wright, of Beach Haven, was found floating in the Susquehanna at Nanticoke, in close proximity to a canal boat owned by B. Turner, which was preparing to load with coal. It is said that Wright fell asleep on deck and rolled into the water, but the story does not sound very credible.

Inventors, in order to obtain valid Pa ents, should employ attorneys of high standing. Messrs, Edson Bros., Washington, D. C., are an old, experienced and successful firm. Their ability and zeal to promote the interests of their clients is attested by the best of references. They share the fortunes of the inventor, since their fee is not called for until the patent is ailowed. Send for their circular.

The newest parties announced for the winter, are those of Wristlet. The modus operandi is as follows: The ladies formsh the wrislets and each pair with a number is put in a box, and is sold to the gentleman by a committee and corresponding wristlets with the numbers are won by ladies. The fan commences when each gentleman buys a wristlet and finds the owner of the mate to it, to whom he is to pay attentions Send in your name at once. during the evening.

A telegram from Sunbury, says that Mrs John Clark, a widow lady residing at that place was struck by the engine of a freight train while she was crossing the track on Market Square, and instantly killed, on Monday morn ing. The wheels of the engine passed over her breast and neck, crushing her in a terrible manner. No blame is attached to the engineer, as he was running slow and ringing the bell and stopped almost instantly when he discoverel that deceased was under the wheels.

THE GOODS OF A BOARDER NOT LIABLE FOR UNFAID REST .- An error appended to the end of a communication published in the Ledger vesterday requires immediate correction. It was therein stated that the effects of a "boarder" are liable to seizure for rent due and unpaid by the lessce of the premises. This w at one time believed to be the case, but it was a boarder are not liable to be distrained for rent case was then elaborately argued, and the late dict for defendants, Chief Justice Gibson put the exemption of a boarder's goods upon this ground ; that "for the benefit of trade a thing put upon rented premises by a customer, in the way of the ionant's business, is privileged from distress."-Phila. Ledger.
