Friday, Dec. 15, 18 76 THE ELECTORAL COLLEGE.

The electoral votes cast in the severa states on Wednesday foot up 205 for Samuel J. Tilden. The electors of Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, Indiana, Kentucky Missouri, Tennessee, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Arkansas, Louisiana and Texas, and Samuel J. Tilden.

In both Vermont and Oregon, one Re stitution of the United States expressly declares that no person holding an office of trust or profit under the United States shall sist the final success of that outrage attempted be appointed an elector. There seems to be a difference of opinion as to whether a vacancy exists under such circumstances, which can be filled. Gov. Grover of Oregon, holds that there is no vacancy and gives the grounds of his action in refusing the certificate of election to the Republican post-master and giving it to the Democratic elector having the kighest number of votes. After recitiog the facts of the case he save

It was ruled, in the case, that where the objection to an applicant's right to receive a certificate rests upon the ground that a con-stitutional prohibition is interposed, the Govcitution is bound to entertain and determine mine in such a way as to enforce the concutive power. It was also held that the law and the fact being well known, the votes cast for the ineligible candidate cannot be to nied for any other purpose and the eligible candidate because the next highest number of votes was duly elected. This ruling was based upon standard authorities, such as Cushing and Grant; the decisions of many courts like the Supreme Court and the Court of Appeals of New York; the latter uniform practice in the United States House of Representatives, and the great weight of English authorities, both parliamentary and

The law of Oregon providing for filling vacancies in the Electoral Colleges recognizes a vacancy only in case, where there has been an incumbent and such incumbent has died, refused to act, neglected to attend or is other-wise absent. In this case there was no incumbent, unless the next highest candidate should take the position, and there was no vacancy which could be filled by the other members of the Electoral College. The next highest candidate eligible under the constitution of the United States was there fore, certified to be duly elected.

This action on the part of Governor Grover, places the Republicans in an absurd po sition. They and their organs have been contending that Congress has no right to throw out the votes of States where certificates of election have been given by the proper authority. If this rule is observed even $100 against the claim of the humblest then the one Democratic elector from Oreman in America, would you? We know on the contrary, the Republicans recede from I crown in dignity and surpasses most crown their own rule and throw out the Oregon in power and responsibility, which no man Louisiana South Carolina and Florida will resting on his title? Can you encounter the go out too and Tilden will be elected. What terrible ordeal of helding such a position for is good law for the Southern States mentioned ought to be goo law for half the voters that you have obtained it Oregon. It's a bad lookout for the through judicial fraud and chicane? GRANT'S STUMP SPEECH.

The P resident, on Sunday, had a long con versation with a representative of the Associated Press in which he aired his views of political affairs at much length. Grant's opinions are those of the carpet-baggers and h talks the usual stuff about Hayes having carried all the loyal states but four, while Tilden carried all but three of those lately in rebellion. The three he thinks Tilden didn't carry are Florida, South Carolina and Louisianaall of which he did carry. Wretched twaddle of course but it is the best that can be expected from such a source. The President advised the Democrats not to impeach him "for it might bring out evidence which they would not like to see spread upon the records.' & This little threat to the House will not intimidate them much we fancy. He states to arrest Smith and place him in Fort Ladaythat he never intended General Ruger to place ette. troops in the State House in South Carolina but that Ruger so understood the order Those may believe this who will. We don't believe a word of it. Ruger got his orders straight enough and acted on them.

Grant said that there were six or eight hundred troops in Washington, and if there and eight batteries at once to New York. should be any necessity for more he would order them there. "We should have peace if any blood shed? we had to fight for it." He made allusion to letters received by him threatening assassination.
