Judge Dana, of Luzerne county, was in town on Tuesday. Ash Wednesday comes on the 14th of Feb ruary, this year, St. Valentine's day.

The Danville Intelligencer notes the arrival oblice birds. Spring like, very.

John M. Barton of this town has accepted the position of clerk at the Montour House, Danville.

Three highly enthusiastic and disorderly individuals were put in the lock-up last Wednesday afternoon.

The total valuation of the borough of Laporte, Sullivan county, for taxable purposes is certi-fied by the Commissioners to be $19,804. Valuable town, that.

The Altoona Evening Mirror strongly approves Mr. Buckalew's plan for the election of President, published in the COLUMBIAN of December 22d, 1876.

Two spans of the Danville and Hazleton Railroad bridge, over Roaring Creek, were carried away by the ice on Saturday. The damage was at once repaired.

Henry D. Boas, Secretary of the Citizens Building and Loan Association of Shenandoah, in Schuylkill county, was convicted on Satu day of having embezzled nearly $7000.

Thomas Flynn, a youth of 17 years, was run over and killed by a dirt car at the Provosb Colliery, near Centralia, on Tuesday merning

J. S. Sanders, of the Hazleton Sentinel was in town the first of the week. He will publish a full report of the proceedings in the murder trial in his daily.

A Republican exchange says that "Abram S Hewitt has not slept well nor enjoyed a meal for twenty years." It is a good thing for some editors that lying does not produce that effect on the system.

The bill granting stay of execution for tw years on all judgments now obtained, and on which execution has been issued, passed the House, at Harrisburg, on Wednesday by the decisive vote of 108 to 67.

The oyster saloon of Enos Jacoby was en tered by thieves on Thursday night of last week and a quantity of oysters and crackers stolen. The loss is about five dollars. Thieves are mostly hungry this winter.

Corruption in our National affairs has same effect on the Government that a severe cough or cold has upon the human system. Political reform in the former and Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup in the latter case will remedy the evils. At the druggist's 25 cents.

An exchange sarcastically remarks that "It is a refreshing illustration of economy in these hard times to see a man sifting four quarts of coal ashes with a ten cent eigar in his month. Not the first instance of a good resolution "ending in smoke."

and nine assistants are in town evidence on the marder trial. E. D. York, the official stenographer of Schuylkill county is as-sisting Prof. Walker of this county.

We publish elsewhere the full text of the bill to establish a County poor district. The bill was referred to the Judiciary Local Committee returned with a negative recommendation and subsequently recommitted. Our renders can judge of the merits of the bill by reading it.

We have received a copy of the Public Ledge Almanac for 1877. It is beautifully printed with illuminated cover, and is full of valuable statistics and general information, which can hardly be obtained elsewhere in so compact i form. Our thanks are due to Mr. Childs for his very useful and handy book.

The wife of Ezekiel Keller, of Anthon township, Montour county, committed suicide by hanging, on Tuesday of last week. Mrs. Keller had been insane for some months, but had been discharged from the Danville Insane Asylum as cured. She was 36 years of age.

The present Legislature has two old friends Option bill. The session could hardly be considered a success without one at least, of these measures "to the fore," but our law-makerslucky beggars-have both of 'em this year. Dodging and ducats-take your choice.

On motion of John G. Freeze Esq., on Wednesday last, Messrs. George W. Ryon and Wm. H. M. Oram Esquires, of Northumberland county, were admitted to practice law in the several courts of Columbia county. On the same day on motion of Col. Freeze, Peter A-Mahon was likewise sworn in, as an attorney or the same courts.

The following gentlemen representing the newspapers set opposite their names, are in town attending the trial of the alleged Rea murderers : T. B. Fielder, Shenandonh Herald ; George F. Helm, Miner's Journal ; J. Townley Crane, jr., Philadelphia Times; J. Erigena Barrett, Scranton Republican and N. Y. Herald and Mr. S. Bruce Coleman of the Wilkes-Barre Record of the Times.

At a meeting of the Pastors of Bloomsburg, on the 5th inst., it was agreed to hold two Union Temperance meetings on Sabbath evening next the 11th inst, as follows : The first three churches, alphabetically ar ranged, viz : Baptist, Evangelical and Lutheran to meet in the Lutheran church. The last three, viz: Methodist, Presbyterian and Reformed, to meet in the Methodist church. Three ministers at each place to conduct the services. The meetings to consist of short addresses and prayer, with singing. Moody and Sankey Hymn Books to be used.

the law is plain and not to be misunderstood. No Judge could possibly fine a hotel keeper for selling liquor after the closing of the polls.

THE REA MURDER. Bloomsburg has not contained as many strangers during court week, since the trial of Thomas Donohee, Michael Pryor and John Duffy, for the murder of Alexander W. Rea, a Col iery Superintendent in 1869 at present assem bled here. The defendants were acquitted at that time, and ever since there has been an ef fort to discover the guilty parties, but no one had been arrested until recently, when Patrick Hester, Michael Graham, Patrick McHugh and Patrick Tolly, were 'taken in custody for the nurder of Rea, on the information of one Kel ley. The prisoners were brought to Blooms burg on Friday of last week, and placed in the jail where they are under the charge of a number of the coal and iron police. On Wednesday the Grand Jury returned a true bill against Patrick Hester, Patrick McHugh and Patrick Tulley for the crime with which they are accused. It will be remembered that Mr. Rea was murdered while on his way from Centralia to Mt. Carmel. The testimony of the first trial In full can be obtained at the COLUMBIAN of

A Centennial Decision,

A Contentiate Decision, Competent judges representing the civilized people of the world appointed for the knowl-edge of particular art or sciences, convened at Philadelphia for six months to decide upon the comparative merits of the various inventions of mankind, awarded to the manufacturers of Ben-son's Capcine Porous Plaster, after a careful test and comparison of this remarkable remedy with ordinary vorous and other kinds of plaster, the Monday night, near Neal's switch, and was so terribly injured that death resulted in a few hours after. He was frightfully cut in different parts of the head and so badly mangled across the chest that the lungs were exposed. Coleman, with some companions, was stealing a ride ordinary porous and other kinds of plasters, the highest and only medal, above all foreign and on the sway to Pittsburg.
