The Commissioners of Columbia county desire to erect a new jail, on a scale so handsome and costly as to have aroused popular indigua tion. The plans contemplate a structure to cost a sum represented by six figures, placed in this manner: $100,000. The good people of Columbia do not exactly see the necessity having so grand an edifice, even if they have just had a tripple murder trial, and expect a tripple hanging before long. Accordingly they are trying to circumvent the extravagant ly inclined county commissioners by appeal ing to the court for an injunction to restrain the commissioners from such a waste of the county's resources. ATTEMPTED SUICIDE .- On Tuesday evening of last week S. S. King an agent of the Dunannon Iron works stopped at the Danville Hotel in that town. He attended to his business on Wednesday, and after eating a hearty supper went to his room. During the night a report like that of a pistol was heard, but it was supposed to be a noise on the street. Thursday morning Mr. King did not appear, and about nine o'clock the proprietor went to his room and rapped, but received no reply, where upon he broke the door open and discovered King in bed with a new revolver in his right hand, and his face covered with blood. Surgeons were summoned at once, and on examination reported that the man had shot himself in the right temple, and the ball was lodged in the brain. His breathing was imperceptible and his pulse very low. On the bureau wa the following note in lead pencil, "Farewell, my life has been a failure, and I am tired of it Let these letters be given to my friends. 'S. S. King, Duncannon, Pa." Three letters ready to be mailed lay near the note, addressed to his wife, his father, and John Wister Jr., all of Duncannon. A telegram was sent to them. Mr. King is said to be a prominent member of the Methodist church, and a temperance Society, and has a wife and two children. About seventy dollars in money, and a note for forty dolin his clothes.
