The Fair opened on Wednesday, the weather being all that could be desired. In the afternoon crowds began to appear on the streets, and it looks at this writing (Wednesday evening) a though there will be a large attendance. A full report will be given next week.

A public spirited citizen of this place offers to donate one hundred dollars for a public reading room. If a few more men would do like wise the proposition would become a fixed fact. Such an arrangement would be creditable t the town, and beneficial to all classes.

Geo. P. Reichard of Espy is doing a large trade. Among other things he has a stock of "Williamsport Boots" manufactured by J. E Dayton &c. These goods have a wide reputation and are guaranteed to give satisfaction None are genuine unless bearing the stamp of the manufacturers, J. E. Dayton & Co.

The useful matter contained in the Agricultura column is alone worth ten times the subscription price of the COLUMNIAN. The items are not only o immense value to our tarmers and their families, but to every housekeeper. To utilize them a scrap book should be kept, and in this manner a vast amount of valuable information could be gathered for future use.

The opinion of Judge Elwell in Williams port Bond case has been sustained by the Su preme Court, Judges Agnew, Woodward and Sterrett dissenting. This settles the law, but it opens a loop hole for an immense amount of extravagance. We presume that under that decision, our town council will go ahead and build water works for Bloomsburg.

The Democrats of this county have comple ted their ticket by the nomination of Dr. Doyle for coroner and I. H. Reynolds for surveyor .-Berwick Independent, matters in this county, but confess that we were not aware that the Democracy had made such nominations.

One day last week Constable Woodward discovered a man apparently asleep on the Episcopid Church door-way. A brief examination showed that the man was dead drunk, and a bottle of whisky was found between his feet He was toted at once to the lock up. His name is said to be John Care. It was Care-less for him to get drunk, even if it proved he was Care-tull.

A MASONIC IMPOSTER .- John Ogden, claim ing to hail from and having in his possession a certificate of membership of Columbia Comman dery No. 2, District of Columbia, is going about the country imposing upon the members of the order. He is pronounced a fraud and an im-poster by the officers of said Commandery, no such person ever having been a member thereof Knights Templar and the Masonic fraternity generally should be on their guard against him Pass him around.
