OUR ENGLISH MINISTER.

Just as Don Cameron had the job nicely set up for his reverend sire to go to Eogland to represent this country at the Court of St. James, the bottom fell out and Simon did not go. Don first fixed the Pennsylvania delegation in Congress, and then got the President and Secretary Evarts to partly in the State is from 10,000 to 12,000. In promise that the choice of that delegation should be appointed, and when that choice was made known it was none other than their lord and master, Simon. This pill the administration could not swallow. As Secretary Evarts said, they had no idea that the Pennsylvania Republicans would resurrect a man who had been so long dead that his son and heir was in possession and enjoyment of the estate. As the son was dismissed from the Cabinet with a slap in the face when Haves was forming a new one, so the old man is now shelved in a very similar manner. It must shelved to a very similar manner. It must Berwick ...... be growing painfully apparent to the Came- Benton ......

ron Dynasty that their reign is drawing rapidly to a close. Mr. John Welsh, of Philadelphia, a gentleman whose character is above reproach, has been appointed by the President to fill the important mission to England, and every good citizen of this Commonwealth will be pleased to learn of his confirmation by the Senate, Mr. Welsh is a Republican, but the contrast was so strong that all Democrats were delighted to hear of the rejection of Cameron for such a man as John Welsh, He will do credit to the nation.

The Lesson of Tuesday.

A heart-sore, despairing Republican party rrendered Tuesday to its own internal deralization, and gave over Ponnsylvania to the Democracy without a contest. Whether the majority shall foot up ten or twenty thou and it matters not; the lesson is the same The measure of the disaster will not add to the emphasis of the rebuke the people have siven to the leaders who seined upon one of the noblest political organizations the country the country and described it to selfishness. as ever known and degraded it to selfishness and greed. Its once fair temples have been eslimed by the track of the crawling pretend rs: its patriotic aims have been subverted to he clamor of mean ambition ; its crown ha been polluted by the nest of the spoiler, and ts strong foundations have been burrowed b he mousing placeman. A faithful President, who remembered his pledges when called to he highest civil trust of a free people, and ought to restore a corrupted government to urity and fidelity, was met with consuming ontempt and resentment by those who claim can and hostile to any change that might ed to have elected him; and the versiet of yesterday in Pennsylvania is but the consider ate judgment of an honest people demanding honest public servants. Thus has Pennsylvania spoken, and she has spoken because her people mean to be heard in defense o their own great patrimony. The State candi lates voted for were but straws on the curent. They were borne to victory or crushe in defeat without regard to their personal merits, for the issues were mightier than the the claims of any mere individuals. All were competent and worthy, and Judge Trunkey Colonel Schell and Colonel Noyes are victorringsters as members of the Convention, but because they were the only agents through would have defeated the object of the people whom the people of the Keystone State could in securing an amended Constitution.
