SAVETHE OLD PAPER.-Never throw away old paper. If you have no wish to sell it, use in the house. Some housekeepers prefer i a cloth for cleaning many articles of furniture for instance, a volume written by a lady wh wided herself on her experience and tact, says After a stove has been blackened, it can be cept looking very well for a long time by rubing it with paper every morning. Rubbing with paper is a much nicer way of keeping the outside of a tea kettle, coffee pot, and tea pot bright and clean than the old way of washing hem in sads. Rubbing with paper is also the est way of polishing knives, tinware, and mone; they shine like new sitver. For pol hing mirrors, windows, lamp chimneys, etc. uper is better than dry cloth. Preserves and ickles keep much better if brown paper, intend of cloth, is tied over he jar. Canned ruit is not so apt to mould if a piece of writing paper, cut to fit the can, is taid directly on the fruit. Paper is much better to put under a carpet than straw. It is warmer, thinner, and makes less noise when one walks over it." Towarda, Bradford county is about the size f Bloomsburg. In some respects it compares favorably with our town, and in others, unfavorably. The grading and paving of its streets and sidewalks is not at all creditable, and at night time it is necessary to carry a lantern to get safely over the walks and crossings, and to avoid running into the lamp posts which emit no ray of light, the gas for some reason having been shut off. With bad walks, rough streets, no light, and but one public school to support, (that building being larger and finer than either of ours however) the taxes are higher than they are in Bloomsburg. Its hotels are excellent the Ward House and Means House conducted by T. R. Jordan and his estimable wife, and the Eiwell House kept by John Sullivan would be a credit to any town. During a recent visit there we noticed that every day the business part of the town was thronged with wagons, and ment Bishop in the Evangelical Church, will the murchants all appeared to be doing a good trade. As a matter of curiosity we examined the several newspapers published there, and o'clock. As a pulpit orator, Bishop Dubs ranks found that there is hardly a business man in the place who does not advertise largely. The papers were filled with standing advertisements of home dealers, and those who announced themselves in that way were doing a brisk business. There is no doubt about it, extensive and judicious advertising increases the prosperity and business of a town, and if printers ink were used more liberally here it would not fail to glean the following : A singular case of attempted burglary transpired at Kemmerer's flouring mili, situated about half way between Milton and Watsontown, last Friday night. It seems that a son of Mr. Kemmerer had been working about the mill until midnight, and was just wasting his hands before going home, when a man in disguise opened the door, and presenting a pistol at the young man's head demanded ome flour or his life, seeming to have a preference for the former, as he at once laid hold of a sack of floor, which he proposed to appropriate to himself. Mr. Kemmerer told him that sack was sold, but he would get him some Frank Vanderslice of the Sentiael have gone light, started, his visitor flourishing the pistol from another part of the mill, and lowering his uncomfortably close to his head the while. Ar riving at the bin mentioned, Mr. K. suddenly seized a flour stamper, and, quick as thought felled the intruder to the floor, dealing him several blows purely complimentary to the occa-sion. The racket brought a large dog upon the field of action just in time to extend a welcome to another intruder who opened the door, and
