A WARNING TO POLITICIANS.

In another column we print in full the late decision of the Sopreme Court concerning corrupt elections. The New Constitution provides that "Any person who shall, white a candidate for office, be guilty of bribery, fraud or willful violation of any election law shall be forever disqualified from Commonwealth ; and any person convicted of wilful violation of the election laws shall, in addition to any penaltics provided by law, be deprived of the right of suffrage absolutely for a term of four years," The case of George Walter, elected Sheriff of Butler county last year, is the first one that has come before the Supreme Court. Mr. But-
