

How to Use the Mails. BLOOMSBURG, PA. Friday, Dec. 21, 1877.

CHRISTMAS. In all christianized countries, the anniversary of the birth of Christ is observed as a holiday.

1. Parties addressed have the option to refuse to take any package out of a Post Office, or the hands of a letter carrier, for any cause, they do not see fit to accept them.

2. Postmaster is not obliged to accept in payment of postage any currency which may be so mutilated as to be unrecusable.

3. A business card may be printed or wrapped on the envelope or wrapper of a package of third class matter, without subjecting the package to extra postage.

4. A mail carrier should not receive mail matter unless it is one mile or more from a Post Office, and when received such matter should be delivered into the next Post Office at which it arrives.

5. Anything other than an address written or printed upon the side of a Postal Card which contains the words, "Write the address on this side, the message on the other," renders the same unmailable as a Postal Card.

6. When two or more kinds of mail matter are enclosed in the same package is subject to the higher rate.

7. To paste or attach anything to or upon a Postal Card, except the name and address of the person addressed, renders the same unmailable as a Postal Card.

8. Manuscript passing between (either way) authors and publishers of books in the mails is subject to a postage of one cent for each ounce or fraction thereof.

9. "Drawings" made with pen, pencil or brush, are subject to postage at the rate of three cents for each half ounce or fraction thereof.

10. Music manuscript and proof sheets of the same cannot be sent through the mails for less than letter rates of postage.

11. Manuscript letters transmitted by mail are subject to postage of three cents for each half ounce thereof, when sent in sealed or unsealed envelopes.

12. Unpaid letters containing orders for goods cannot be lawfully carried by the mail carries outside the mails.

13. Specimens of penmanship enclosed with printed matter cannot be mailed in the same package without subjecting the whole to postage at letter rates.

A Carious Clerical Case. In this country, as well as in England, many religious persons, decidedly against the use of wine, spirits, or other strong liquors, indulge in such causes, inordinate, and in the end, they are administered in the communion service ought to be simply the unfermented juice of the grape.

What country has the largest national debt? At the latest date, when statistics are now in hand, Great Britain had that was in March, 1875, when the debt of that country was $7,876,000,000, reckoning the pound sterling at five dollars.

From 1850 to 1871, 215,000,000 acres of public lands were granted by Congress to States and corporations for railroad purposes, 159,000,000 in the Pacific States, and nearly 5,000,000 acres have been granted for canal purposes; for the Pacific roads a debt of $64,000,000 was assumed, now swollen to $122,000,000, and promising to exceed $150,000,000; and the largest grantee proposes to repay the Government by practically borrowing anew from it.

WASHINGTON LETTER. WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 17, 1877. It seems there was real danger on Saturday morning of a duel between Senators Gordon and Conkling. But friends interfered and the trouble is not settled, but the settlement made matter of record in the Senate, Senators Ransom and Hamlin were the active parties in bringing about the desirable result.

After all the House passed the deficiency with additional sums, amounting to more than a million, added by the Senate. Senator Matthew's silver resolutions go over until after the Holiday recess. The personal and political unpopularity of Senator Matthews had much to do with this.

By refusing to vote, and thus leaving the House without a quorum, the Republicans on Friday and Saturday succeeded in preventing for the present certain investigations desired by the Democrats.

Senator Butler of South Carolina, just prior to adjournment on Saturday, presented a resolution requiring the proper committee to investigate the manner by which the votes of Senator Patterson and Conover were secured in favor of his (Butler's) admission. This of course, is because Senator Edmunds, when the question of admission was up made charges of corruption.

I have never had any great confidence in the sincerity of Secretary Schurz's efforts to reform the civil service. He has not appeared to do about it as if he was earnest. He has been seen and shy in his investigations. For months he has refused to act on charges of fraud after they were investigated. He has just done one thing, however which shows that he means to be the head of his Department. He has issued an order to prevent lobbying before Congress by chiefs of Bureaus under him.

This nuisance had become intolerable. One of his chiefs has spent much of his time late in attempting to secure such legislation as suited him in relation to his Bureau. Clearly if Mr. Schurz is to be responsible for the conduct of his Department recommendations for legislation regarding it should come from him.

The National Republics besides being very rude in its treatment of Mr. Hayes, is publishing a series of savor articles attacking Secretary Sherman. It demands the treatment of that gentleman the Secretary of State, and the Secretary of the Interior on the cabinet. It is the organ of Senator Conkling.

All the developments so far announced by several committees investigating our relations with Mexico, go to confirm the belief that we have a large element on this side of the Rio Grand, striving to precipitate war with that country.

Hayes's National University. The faculty of Mr. Hayes's proposed great National University at Washington has not yet been fully arranged. Several important chairs including those of Greek, Latin, Political Economy, and the Use of the Bible, remain to be filled. So far as determined upon, the Board of Instruction and Government is constituted as follows:

President and Emeritus Professor of Eight to Seven Law, JOSEPH P. BRADLEY, Ph. D. Professor of Applied Theology, DONN PIATT, A. M., by brevet.

Emeritus Professor of Jurisprudence, HIRAM ULYSSES GRANT, LL. D. (Harr. Oxon.) Professor of Ordinary Literature and Steward of Customs, G. WASHINGTON CHILDS, A.M. (Print.)

Tom Paine Professor of Natural and Revealed Religion, Rev. ROBERT J. INGERSOLL. Professor of Political Ethics, ZACHARIAH CHANDLER, D. D.

Emeritus Lecturer on Antediluvian History, JOHANNES A. DIX, OCC. Joint Hayes Professor of Pure Mathematics, J. MADISON WELLS, R. B. THOMAS C. ANDERSON, R. B.

Jay Gould Professor of Journalism, WHITEFELLOW REID, D. D. Professor of German and Instructor on the Piano-forte, CARL SCHURZ, (Bonn.)

Professor of the French Language and Literature, M. EDOUIN F. NOYES. Paris Professor of Philanthropic Slaveholding, JOHANNES WELSH.

Instructor in Ethic Botany and English Composition, WILLIAM K. RODGERS, A. S. S. Tutors in Practical Mathematics, G. ASHENAVE, L. KEMMER.

Director of the Gymnasium, WM. M. EVARTS, LL.D. (Yale). Janitor, STANLEY MATTHEWS.

*To whom candidates for admission should apply for forms, fee, text books, and board and washing—N. Y. Z. 200.
