STATE TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR, ANDREW H. DILL, OF UNION COUNTY. FOR SENATE, HENRY P. BOSS, OF MONTGOMERY CO. JOHN FERTIG, OF CRAWFORD COUNTY.

A MEMORANDUM STATEMENT.

Our readers may remember the violence with which the Republicans attacked Mr. Buckle in the gubernatorial campaign of 1872. It not only made charges that were utterly false but the writer knew them to be so.

Because Dill is the son of a Methodist preacher, a few preachers are trying to make capital for him. Fessinger's Note is among those that are playing upon this "harp of a thousand strings."

Some of these statements we know to be untrue, and the senior editor of the Republican, coming from Lewisburg, having been a Methodist minister, knew the above statement to be false.

We sent the slip to Gov. Dill, and from him received the following letter which completely refutes the slanders of the Republican.

LEWISBURG, Pa., June 11, 1878. DEAR BROCKWAY: Allusion is made in the slip you enclosed as to my brother Ed. a printer, who learned his trade in Williamsport and to which he added the art of photography.

DEAN BROCKWAY: Allusion is made in the slip you enclosed as to my brother Ed. a printer, who learned his trade in Williamsport and to which he added the art of photography.

The Republican says: "Our country wants rest. Our business men want rest, labor wants rest, but the eternal agitation that Democracy is keeping up is killing capital, killing labor, and prostrating every enterprise."

Our country wants rest. Our business men want rest, labor wants rest, but the eternal agitation that Democracy is keeping up is killing capital, killing labor, and prostrating every enterprise.

Louisiana Carpet Bag Politicians. One of the features of the Louisiana investigation that forces itself on public notice is the rollicking humor with which statements of the Louisiana carpet bag stripe regard the enormities of Louisiana politics.

A Big Law suit. The great partnership case of Freck against Blackiston was again on Thursday last week before Judge Yerkes and Finletter for argument.

Candidates. THE SCANDAL THAT HAS FORCED A BISHOP OUT OF THE CHURCH. DETROIT, June 7.—The scandal in which Bishop McCook's name was involved a few weeks ago has been followed by his relinquishment of the office of bishop. It will be remembered that Bishop McCook denied his guilt, and that Fannie Richards asked him to clear her name; but the investigation of the case, which was begun after he had reached New York on his way to Europe, brought out some documents that did not admit of satisfactory explanation. The report in the McCook affair that was yesterday submitted to the Michigan Diocesan Convention, in session here, contains a document that had been received from him in these terms: DETROIT, May 18, 1878. As my resignation of my jurisdiction of the Diocese of Michigan was withdrawn at the request of the convention of the House of Bishops to consider it, I now present my resignation of my office as Bishop of the Diocese of Michigan. I find myself unable to discharge the duties connected with that office, and I do not wish to be a burden to the diocese. If I recover I can still try to do some good in the subordinate offices of the ministry. SAMUEL A. MCCOOK. This letter of Bishop McCook was unsatisfactory to the standing committee of the diocese, and so another letter of the same date was sent to the presiding bishop, in these words: DETROIT, May 18, 1878. Having heretofore presented my resignation of jurisdiction of and over the diocese of Michigan, and subsequently withdrawn the same, I now desire and do hereby resign my jurisdiction over the same, and do further resign and relinquish my office as bishop in the Protestant Episcopal Church of the United States, and desire that the House of Bishops may meet at the earliest convenient time to consider and act upon this resignation, upon such length and manner of notice as shall be thought best by the presiding bishop. SAMUEL A. MCCOOK. This resignation has been accepted. Continued under the church laws, it involves not only the resignation of the bishop, but of the ministry also, and is of the most complete kind. The convention has voted to pay the resigned bishop an annuity of $1500, subject to revision by future conventions. Rioters' Depredations. QUEBEC, June 12.—The laborers on a strike have been plundering Renaud's flour store on St. Paul street, stopping traffic on the street and forcing truckmen to assist them in carrying off their plunder. B battery and the police are now engaged in dispersing the mob. LATER.—The riot is on the increase. The strikers now number about 1,000. B battery has been forced to retreat, the riot not having been met on the ground. Captain Provost, the adjutant, and some of the men, are badly cut with stones. The mob took from Renaud's store nearly 200 barrels of flour. The military are marching up and down St. Paul street. 2:30 p. m.—The military are attempting to disperse the crowd, but without avail. LATER.—The riot has just been read. Firing has commenced and one man is reported killed and several wounded. Several rioters and spectators are wounded. Captain Short and Provost are badly cut with stones, and some bullets are also believed to have taken effect in their arms and legs. Two or three of the mob have received severe cuts from the cavalry. Everything is now quiet. The rioters have dispersed and B battery is guarding the parliament house. Employment for Ladies and Gentlemen at Home. Our attention has been called to some new and labor-saving cooking utensils—recently invented. One of which, the Universal Weight and Measuring Utensil, for weighing sugar, flour, butter, and measuring molasses, milk and all kinds of liquids used in cooking, entirely superseding expensive scales. The Patent Centennial Cake Pan, the best and most convenient Cake Pan ever made, and which every housekeeper will have when they see its advantages over all others. Also, the Kitchen Gen, a plated water boiler to hang inside of an ordinary pot, for boiling all kinds of vegetables, eggs, etc., which when done, can be removed by simply turning a handle, lifting the heavy pot up to the stove. These goods are sold exclusively through agents to families, and offer a splendid opportunity to some reliable lady or gentleman canvasser of this county to secure the agency for a very profitable business.
