TULLY'S CONFESSION.

We have before us a pamphlet entitled "A War of Classes. How to avert it, by Thomas Algeo Devry." We do not know who Thomas Algeo Devry is, but from the contents of his book we judge him to be either a had man whose object is to induce the classes to riot and blood shed, or an escaped fanatic who ought to be looked after.

His views on the Mollie Maguire trial and execution in this state and denounces the entire proceedings as "judicial murders." In order to carry out his argument successfully it became necessary to show that none of these men committed the crimes of which they were convicted. THE NEW DOG LAW.

The new dog law passed at the last session of the Pennsylvania legislature makes all dogs personal property; for whatever damage they do to their owners shall be liable, even for the costs and attorney's fees, if the suits be taken to court.

An annual tax of fifty cents on male and one dollar on female dogs will be levied, which will be kept in a separate account by the county treasurer, from which owners of sheep shall be compensated when dogs deplete their flocks.

The owners of the dogs of the county must be ascertained. If discovered, the latter must make good the loss. Assessors are required to take an account of dogs in their districts, with the names of the owners.

At the end of the year the amount of money in the hands of the county treasurer from this source exceeds a given sum, the surplus is to be divided among the school districts.

The adoption of this law is made optional in counties. A ballot shall be taken not often than once in two years, upon acceptance or rejection, and it will remain with the voters to pronounce upon the merits of the measure.

Newspapers are so much in the habit of giving advice to other people that they should be ready to appreciate any which may be directed to them. And so they may find matter worthy of consideration in a resolution adopted by the Presbyterian General Assembly.

That body recognizes with satisfaction the enterprise of the secular press in obtaining and publishing ecclesiastical and religious news, and the ability with which it discusses and advocates measures in promotion of education, sound morals and good order.

This much by way of compliment. But then follows a warning which newspapers sometimes forget. The Assembly therefore calls attention to the propriety and duty of giving less prominence to the details of crime, especially of all forms of larcenousness, as their publication tends to destroy delicacy of feeling, to tempt the public mind, and to make that familiar and less repulsive which should always be viewed with abhorrence.

Induced by the Medical Fraternity, popular in every circle, found everywhere, Glenn's Sulphur Soap is undoubtedly the most popular purifier, remedy for skin diseases and injuries, and complexion beautifier in America. Sold by all Druggists.

DEATHS.

Death moves in a mysterious way. It knows neither friend nor foe. The high, the low, the rich, the poor, the strong the weak all make a road by the hand of the Destroyer.

We are pained to chronicle the severe loss that has just befallen Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Freeze in the death of their only son and youngest child, Boylston, 7 years and 14 days. He was a boy of unusual promise.

Though small in stature for his years, he was far beyond his years in intellect. Always bright and happy he had made many friends, and his active and cheerful voice will be missed in other places than his own home, now made so desolate. On Thursday last week he was attacked with diphtheria in its worst form.

Col. Freeze who was away from home was telegraphed to on Saturday, and reached here on the evening of Tuesday morning, then appeared to be a change for the better, and his family began to feel encouraged about his recovery, but in the afternoon he suddenly grew worse, and in a few moments breathed his last. The funeral took place on Thursday morning at St. Paul's Church, and the remains of the little one who was the pride of his father, the comfort of his mother, and the joy of the household, were laid to rest in Rossmore Cemetery. This is the second time that this family has lost an only son. Twelve years ago a son and daughter, Hope and Helen, were born within a few weeks of each other, and now Boyd has joined them. A sympathetic community mingled their tears with those of the afflicted family over the grave of their dear child. A number of ladies had strewn the grave with flowers previous to the burial, and the casket was lowered into a bed of roses.

AN EXCITING CHASE.—Our readers may remember the trial of the Com. vs. Mrs. Harman Bright, in which a party's brotherly love led to a church row. The Sheriff and Deputy went to the scene of a coroner on Tuesday last to make a return for non payment of costs, in greenbacks or other Government currency. It seems the lady in question was dining out, and our modest Sheriff and timid Deputy were at one surrounded by a squad of ladies. After a parley, in which the ladies had the advantage, the briefing failed, and the Sheriff and Deputy were ordered of the culprit, after she had time to make some material repairs. They watched and waited. By the merest accident the Sheriff discovered his prisoner hurrying towards the wood, and she had a good start. He gave chase, "a stern chase is a long chase," and through fields of wet, wheat, and tangled grass, a severe warm breeze, and dykes—the pursued and pursuer labored. At last, after a long and weary chase, the party returned in good order to the jail at Bloomsburg. The buggy is narrow seated, but the police constable and Sheriff managed to succeed in executing their duty.

Since writing the above Mrs. Bright has been released on giving a mortgage on her property to the Commissioners for all the costs that have accrued.

"WAITING AT THE RIVER."—As the Irishman stood, waiting at the river for it to be let in, he was thinking of the case where the follicles are beautifully shown on the scalp. The effects are beautifully
