This was one of the largest, if not the largest onvention ever held in the county. The Opera House was crowded. Notwithstand the number present, and the bitter strife of candidat and their friends, there was not a single word or act to mar the harmony of the meeting. For the excellent arrangements made for the convention the party is indebted to the efficient Chairman of the Standing Committee, Mr. D. Lowenberg. A HORSE COMMITS SUICIDE.

Several weeks ago a very valuable horse b onging to Henry Oakley, of Hart county Ky. was sunstroke, and ever since has been crozy Mr. Oakley found it impossible to keep the horse confined, so last Saturday it was turned into a lot near by, where there is a very large pond, the centre of which is about twenty-five feet deep. The horse made a complete circuit of the pond twice, and then waded out as far as it could, without swimming, and put an end to gining on the evening of the 29th inst., and continuing for ten days, under the charge of Rev. W. G. Ralph, paster of the A. M. E. church of Bloomsburg.

We are authoritatively informed that the Greenback Labor Reformers of Monroe county, having been induced to indorse Mr. E. E. Orvis, of Columbia Co., for Congress, through misrepresentations, they desire to withdraw such endorsement, and will meet with the other Congressional conferees of the district at such a time and place as may be designated, in order to select a candidate and transact such other business as may properly come before them,—Hauleton Sentinel.

We learn from a private source that the Greenbackers are rushing forward to put in a point on the north side of the public road leading from a tawless to mouth of Roaringrees, twenty-five (25) feet west of a frame dwelling now occuthe field as early as possible a Democrat as their candidate for Congress, with a view to influence the Democratic conference into ratifying their choice. Fincher was in Stroudsburg, and through Monroe county early in the week, trying to work up a sentiment in that direction. But Democrats there have been warned not to touch him. We think we express the feeling of the Democrats in this district when we say that they will not be caught with such chaff. Let an able, honest straightout Democrat be nominated. The platform of his, and his party's principles will be broad enough for every honest workingman to stand on. The Finchers, the Dickey Williamses, the Abe Strohs, and others of that ilk, will of course find no conothers of that ilk, will of course find no congeniality in such a nomination .- Curbon
