

Our Next Congressman. BROCKWAY & ELWELL, Editors. BLOOMSBURG, PA. Friday, Nov. 1, 1878. A FINAL WORD.

OUR NEXT CONGRESSMAN.

Before another issue of this paper the great question that has been settling the State for several months past will have been settled. Next Tuesday will determine the battle, and the result depends entirely upon the constancy and activity of the Democratic party.

HON. CHARLES B. BROCKWAY,

True to his friends—true to his party, and who never betrayed or deceived either. He was nominated by the unanimous vote of Pike, Montour, Lackawanna and Columbia counties, and by the contesting delegation from Luzerne.

And friendly understanding, especially as my mind was filled with generous resolves toward him. "These facts have the benefit of legal evidence in communications to others before conflict—as lawyers say, ante litem motam. Their number and respectability preclude doubt or denial.

And what rule shall be applied to the prohibition? Shall I insult them also? Shall I tell them they are too insignificant to notice? Who are they that proclaim my duty to the republican party? The people? No—they were for me. Am I to be reproached by those who disappointed the people by using a defeated candidate to control the votes of the second county in the state.

It is estimated that the annual damages caused by the ravages of insects and worms exceed $150,000,000 in the United States alone. Truly an enormous loss! Yet it sinks into insignificance when compared with the ravages of that more terrible scourge, Consumption, which annually sweeps hundreds of thousands of human souls into eternity.

ON DAILY EXHIBITION

In the various Departments of their elegant new store, STRAWBRIDGE & CLOTHIER.

BLACK AND COLORED SILKS, GOLDEN SILKS of all shades and widths, ALL-BOILED LAINES, COLORED SILKS, 15 to 18 inch wide at $1.00.

The only genuine Democratic ticket in this paper. Vote no other.

THE STRAIGHT TICKET. We print in this issue three tickets. They are the straight Democratic ticket, and all those differing from them in any way are bogus.

TO DEMOCRATS OF COLUMBIA COUNTY. The time is drawing near when the Democrats of Columbia county will be called upon to show their strength and unity.

GENERAL ALBRIGHT. During the war of the rebellion Albright raised a nine months' regiment with an appointment of colonel from Gov. Curtin.

Look out for bogus tickets. There are several in circulation.

Corrected Statement. In setting the "Report of Conferees" in the COLUMBIAN, of the 25th inst., an omission of a line in the copy made the end of the second paragraph read entirely different from the original.

AGNEW VS. CAMERON & CO.

The Chief Justice Delivers a Strong Opinion Against the Ringmasters. THE DUPLICITY AND TREASONERY OF CHAIRMAN FULLY EXPOSED.

Chief Justice Agnew has published an address to the people of Pennsylvania on the subject of his candidacy for election which we reproduce in full below.

"To the People of Pennsylvania: The time has come when I can no longer silently suffer my position before the public to be misconstrued.

"In July, 1877, Mr. Quay, my townsman and neighbor, and the present Chairman of the Republican State Committee, asked my intention as to the Judgeship in 1878.

"During the same term I had numerous calls from eminent gentlemen of the bar of the surrounding counties, asking me to be a candidate.

Do not encourage a split by voting for any one but the regular nominees. The straight ticket is printed in this paper.
