Friday, Nov. 22, 1878.

Gov. Hartranft announces Thursday, the 28th day of November, as a day of thanks siving and prayer.

Stanley Woo Iward thinks II set will be the next republican candidate for president. It would be a satisfaction to Mr. Woodward's numerous friends to know exactly where he does stand. We believe he pretends to be a scrat-he figured prominently in the lobby of the national state convention to secure the ninstion of Mr. Mason, and finally turned up as a supporter of General Hoyt for gover-nor.—Pattsville Chronicle.

Sale of a Newspaper by the Sheriff.

SHENANDOAH CITY, November 15 .- The Shonandoah Herald, the only greenback paper in Schuylkill county, was advertised to be sold by sheriff's sale on Monday, November The Herald, has been in bal shape for some time, but was kept up to plead the greencause until after the election. On the day following election the bills announcing the me were posted. The paper will eminue issuing, but the management will be changed. It will remain a "soft money friend."

CHAIRMAN SPEER. We do not know that he is wholly to blame for the conduct of the last campaign, but he showed a wonderful lack of leadership, and called around him for assistance a et of fossils whose experience of a campaign I's based upon a series of ignoble defeats, We had excellent candidates Better mana rement has elected worse. We had a good platform, and it reflected the views of a majority of Pennsylvania's voters. But our astute political managers selected as conductor of the campaign a man who carried into the canvass his hatred of the men who objected to his salary grabbing vote, as a member of Congress, and who almost unanimously rejected him as Chairman of the cratic Convention at Wilkes-Barre in

The conduct of the campaign was thoroughly imbecile. Our financial poaltion as a party was rendered uncertain by Speer's own speech. The heavy Demo-Delaware was unaided by the State Committee and left to inefficient local committees. The lunate Democracy of a few counties survived the wreck, but no thanks were due to the Speer-Dieffenbach leadership. In a word, a prepared victory was ruined by in-competent management. The soldiers were more faithful than their general.

State Appropriations to Common Schools.

At the meeting of the Lancaster count teachers' institute Prof. Wickersham delivered "Jecture relative to his recent European trip, after which he was asked to give the reason why the state appropriation of $1,000,000 has not been distributed among the several school districts. The professor replied that the rea-100,000 more recently among the districts that had first made their official reports; $700,-000 is still due and will be distributed as soon as the money can be obtained. The state rev enues it must be remembered, have greatly fallen off; many corporations have failed to pay their taxes on account of the hard times. Dr. Wickersham said he could draw his warant on the state treasurer for the money due more use than it would be for a man to draw his check on a bank in which he had no funds.

The Intelligencer says the doctor's explanation did not seem to satisfy the directors, who shook their heads and seemed to wonder how this could be thus under a beneficient republiean rule, an "honest money" administration, which claimed to have been so economically inistered, and to have made such sweeping reductions of the public debt. Then they thought of that clause in the constitution which says the legislature shall provide for the mainnance and support of a thorough and efficient system of public schools and "shall appropriate at least $1,000,000 each year for that purpose." If the legislature has done its duty why are there no funds in the state treasury for the school purposes?

The Coming Legislature.

Who is to be Speaker-The Discussion of the Other Positions at Harrisbury.

The Pittsburg Telegraph speculates as follows: Hon. Robert S. Frazer, who was urged by some of his friends to enter the contest for the speakership of the next house at Harrisburg, has withdrawn in favor of Henry M Long, and the latter will have the united sup. port of the Allegheny county delegation. Knowing ones predict that Henry will make the riffle. Beojamin L. Hewitt, of Blair county, who wants to wield the gavel has no cal strength, having a Democratic colleague and being surrounded by Democratic counties, and although he has the favor of the house of Cameron will hardly succeed. Lish Davis will be the choice of Philadelphia, and as he is a former resident of Venango county, may have some support in the northwest. The doughty Davis will, however, doubtless have to stand aside for the man and "brother-in-but Clark declined. Using his knowledge ha" from Allegheny. Dr. W. C. THE "TIMES" ATTACK.

lated Oct. 28th., I have every reason to beieve was manufactured in Philadelphia and not far from McClure's office. It is late in the day for Col. McClure to attack my Democracy. I was firm in that faith when he was rushing jobs through the lower branch of the Legislature when a member from Franklin, and he was then the service tool of Simon Cameron. When Senator as now, he was the paid counsel of the Pennsylvania rail-road. I was faithful to my party during the war, when he and others were curiching themselves at the expense of the nation-a matter he could easily do on account of his close relations to Cameron and Curcin. The principles of my party, and its candidates I have seadily supported by roice and pen since boyhood. During the present campaign, none have been more zealous, nor worked harder for the whole ticket than myself. It therefore ill becomes man of McClure's antecedents,-one who has no fixed principles of any kind to libel chance to be heard. To those who so malme in the interest of such men as Klotz; and I therefore pronounce every charge or insinuation against my party fealty to be utterly false and malicious. THE MONEY QUESTION.

Whilst I believe that as a general rule is is nobody's business where I get my money or loan it, any more than Mason, Dill, Orvis or Klotz, nor how I apply it, as some stress cratic vote between the Susquehanna and has been laid upon the question, the answer is simple. I needed some money to pay notes due in bank, and if nominated, campaig's expenses, I borrowed $2,000 in Philadelphia from a friend,-gave him a judgment note,assigned a judgment certified by Prothono tary Zarr, and pledged real estate in Conyngham and Locust held by me. That mon ey was kindly held by Mr. Lowenberg, for me, except $100.00 for necessary expenses, until the Monday following the nomination. My nomination at Scranton cost me $89,50-be ing the expenses of the conferees and candidates at that sitting. They never asked for that, and received no more,-nor were promised more, except as to printing tickets; and the usual assessments for campaign purson was because there was no money in the state treasury. On the Saturday afternoon before the to make a speech, -I discovered that doogers were being printed at a Republican office, of which the following is a copy:

The following Telegram has been received from the Chairman of the Democratic State Committee :

Philadelphia, Nov. 1st., 1878. D. Lowenberg, Boomsburg, Pa. In my judgment it is the duty of every or Congress. The candidacy of Brockway, is in the interest of the Republicans. R. M. SPEER.

all over the District. Men who are church members desecrated the Sabbath to do their dirty work, by traveling all day, and by circulating the infamous lie that I had sold myself to the Republicans for $2,000. Conspicuous among these was a certain Megargell who wished to have revenge because I had thrice defeated him for Congress in this County, besides some expectant nom-

These documents were circulated by Klotz's friends and hirelings on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday in every election precinct in the District, when I had no opportunity to respond. It is a query with me how it was, that if Klotz was the regular nominee, and if Speer was convinced that I was working in the interests of the Republican party, it was not discovered until the eleventh hour, and that the virtuous Speer permitted me to do all the damage I could, as he intimated I was doing, until he was interviewed by Klotz or his friends. He decided the case without hearing me, or giving me notice, permitted me to stump the District for the Democratic ticket, and then, at the last moment, "was persuaded,"

But by what right did he decide this contest? As Mr. Buckalew said, "his opinion was that of a mere individual." If he could proposition that would not insure his elec- go outside of his jurisdiction to determine ex parte this case, he could that of any other candidate. The Democratic party ac knowledges no autocrat. Its nominations The dispatch to the Times from Scranton, are made by the people, acting through delegates and conferres; and when so made, neither he nor any other tribupal can reverse or interfere with their verdict.

THE CROWNING INPAMY. Not content with previous jobs, other lov tricks were resorted to. On the night before, and the morning of the election, posters were put up in different portions of the District, that I had withdrawn in favor of Klotz! Even my brother in Luzerne at first believed it, but it was too late to contradict the lie in this wide District, Again, the same night. Klotz's hirelings went into numerous townships, and stole or bought up all tickets containing my name.

To those who so nobly stood by me in the face of detraction, and despite State and local organizations, and the corrupt use of money and piedges, I tender my heartfelt thanks. I can only pity those who believed these slanders without giving men iciously and falsely aided in this vile scheme. I have the utmost contempt. They will get their reward here, or hereafter.

C. B. BROCKWAY. BEAMISH

The Carbon Democrat and Philadelphia Times, both edited by Republicans, have been particularly coarse in the abuse o Frank Beamish for a time one of the confer ees at the late Congressional Conference If their attacks are prompted because of his prosecution and conviction in Luzerne, Col. McClure should remember the letters published by him from Judge Harding Col Woodward, and C. R. Buckalew. The following letter from the latter to the Time should have silenced McClure ;

To the Editor of The Philadelphia Times, I am placed by you at the head of the list of named persons "and others" who, imploring executive elemency for Mr. F. A. Beamish, of Luzerne county, have been, in your opin ion, only too successful in their application, causing a virtuous Attorney-General to be overruled by his brethren of the Board of poses. Part of the money was used to pay Pardons and by his official chief, the Goverbands, traveling expenses, and other legitisue it. But, in the present case, some errors one cent was ever paid or promised to any of fact mar the artistic merit of the picture conferee, nor was a cent paid to any can-drawn by you for public contemplation. It didate or individual for any other puris not true that Beamish was convicted of pose. The items of expenditure are embezziement of public moneys, and that open to the investigation of any one. In his pardon was not asked for upon the grounds of innoceace and an unjust convic tion. Nor is it true that the strength of the application on his behalf consisted of suggestions of the distress of his family, the publican in any way contribute a cent promotion of peace and order in Luzerne county and other political and humanitarian I may here add that I left Bloomsburg on considerations recited in your correspond-Saturday noon of the Fair, and fully ex- ence from Harrisburg and Luzerne. Conpected to return home that evening. My victed of an offense which he never committed, his pardon was recommended by me nected with my father's estate, and an at and by others as an act of justice to him, and tempt to compromise a suit on the Lycom- to decent and dutiful administration by the ing trial list, in which I am plaintiff. My executive power of the state. It was believtrip to Philadelphia was mainly for the por- ed that a pardon, which was virtually invipose of borrowing the money I succeeded in ted by the judge who sentenced him, when pronouncing the sentence, and which would stand upon the solid foundation of justice, ought not to be withheld. Those recommend ation , however, were made last year and had election,-just as I was starting to Danville no connection with recent movements in the case by men who were formerly opposed to Beamish or indifferent to his fate. I am not advised as to their motives or the extent of their influences upon the result. But, be their conduct saintly or selfish, humane and honorable or otherwise, the merits of the ase remain wholly unaffected. But assuming the collection or blotter book to be the tax duplicate of the district, Democrat in your district to support Klotz and its mutilation to be indictable at common law, the undisputed facts in the case gave a complete answer to the charge, for it was shown by the prosecution that the book was found in its usual place in an unlocked desk in the defendant's office, during his absence of some weeks in Florida; that the leaves torn from the book were lying beside it, unsecreted and uninjured, and that the office was a public place, daily, open, and s thoroughfare for access to one or more offices beyond it. The defendant was in a remote state-his office open to the whole worldthe book where any one could do with it as he pleased-an active personal enemy in the next room—these were the circumstances under which the book was seized by the prosecutor and made the foundation of his emplaint. And there was not an atom of vidence in the case to connect the defendant directly with the act of mutiletion. Fully informed upon the facts given in Hotel. Besides as the Forty-Sixth Congress evidence upon the trial, and fully convinced does not convene until December, 1879, Dr. of the defendant's innocence. I signed an unsolicited recommendation for a pardon. The pardon was just, and the only complaint to be made is that it was too long delayed.
