The little engine and parlor car "Gem," of the Reading railroad exploded at Mahanoy City on the afternoon of the 16th inst., killing five persons. The superintendent, J. H. Olhausen had just scepped out of the car in the depo when the shock came. Among the victims were George and Horace Hagenbuch, sons of Charles C H genbuch formerly of this place, and grandsonof the late Dr Russey. The e two, with Willie Wenrich and Calvin I, 12, all boys between the ages of eight and twelve years, were found had died on top of each ottor, between the depot and telegraph office and were covered with debris When the explosion took place they were dis tributing handbitts on the platform, about ten feet rom the engine Young Laur's father pick ed him up from the ruins, not knowing that it was his son, and began to wash the dirt and smoke from his face The little fellow moaned in agony. He was taken home as soon as he was recognized by his parent and died two hours

Horace Hagenbuch was badly cut. He scra bled out of the ruins and endeavored to find his brother. Covered with blood, he ran down town, and when his uncle caught him in his arms he cried, "Let me go; I can walk home. Go find George; he is hurt worse than I." His injuries are not fatal. His brother George, however, was terribly scalded. His head was lacerated and skull fractured. He lixed two hours and a half. The whole top of Willie Wenrich's head was blown off. His body was badly disfigured and was unrecognizable. His brains espattered the depot and his limbs were twist-

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.

At the special meeting of the Town Counilfheld November 13th the committee on the sue of bonds made the following report : After an examination from the records the committee find a fleating debt of $2000 and a onded debt of $500 due and unprovided for Therefore in order to fund the floating debt above and to refund the bonded debt the folowing resolution was unanimously passed: Resolved, That the funded debt of the Town of doomsburg be increased in the sum of $2000 sentioned in the foregoing preamble and to be in lieu of said floating debt and that the fured for by refunding the debt represented by said bonds and to be in lieu thereof; for which bearing interest at six per centum per annum payable semi annually and the principal re-imbursable as follows. LIABILITY OF ROAD COMMISSIONERS.

The Supreme Court of this State has recently ecided a case of interest to Read Commissions and Supervisors. The case was appealed rom the Common Piers of schuy kill county. The plaintiff brought suit to recover damages for the death of her husband, the same having seen caused, as alleged, through negligence of b-fendants in not providing a safe road. The vidence was that where the accident occurred he road was barely of sufficient width to allow wo vehicles to pass. A wagon was standing or one side of the road and on the other the end d a log protroded, and in attempting to drive tween the two the husband of the plaintiff truck the end of the log and was thrown out supervisors from responsibility, the bond havng stipulated to save the township from all acble on the general principal that if a jury be-the township is responsible. -Ex. Board met at their usual place on Monday even ing. All the members were present. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. The following bills were approved Stephen Knorr for repairs to castings, etc., M. S. Williams for slating, Eli Jones for work, Wilson Wanich, J. R. Graul on commission

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Washington, D. C., Nov., 19 1878. Many Congressmen are already here. The ession begins in two weeks, and besides preparstory work of Committees, there is always some-shing for members to do before the actual day of meeting. I fancy, too, that quite a number of repudiated Congressmen prefer, since the Oc ober and November elections, to be outside rather than inside their Districts. Conversation with the Democrats who have already arrived eaves no room for doubt that Mr. Randall will se the nominee for Speaker of the 46th Con cress and will be elected. The growing imporence of this office—an importance which can rardly be explained to one who has not watch, ed legislation here for many years—calls early ttention to the selection of a fit man. Mr. Randati is not exactly the ideal speaker, but his qualifications are greater than ti ose of any other nan in the house, and he has signally proven a capacity for improvement.

a few years ago, many bodies were not recover-ed or identified. One man, always supposed to ed or identified. One man, always supposed to have died, reported yesterday at the navy yard W. C. McKinney's. in this city. His wonderful story is that he was picked up after remaining in the water a whole day and night, and carried to a Norwegian port, and that he has since been in the hospital there. The Secretary of the navy and other officials are convinced that his story is true, and the money due him, which has already been paid to a person represented as his father, will be paid

The earnest attention of members of Congress from all the states is asked to the present condition of the District of Columbia on financial and other affairs. Your correspondent has no special scheme for a District Government, and will not now urge that the United States assume further responsibility for existing debt, but all will admit that those who are creditors of the D strict to the amount of twelve or fifteen millions have a right to know exactly what the responsibility of the Federal Govern ment is in the premises. Citizens of the Dis trict, also, who find that under present laws their Governors are in continual conflict with for the purpose of discharging the floating debts other United States officers, to the great detriment of District business, have a right to at least an official inquiry into the cause of never end. in lieu of said floating debt and that the further sum of $500, a part of the funded indebtness represended by "Park bond No.4" also severy form, the District tax payer and business man can only appeal indirectly to Congress Every member should feel himself in some degree our representative. To Mr. Blackburn of purpose coupon bonds to the amount of $2500 ky, and Mr. Hunton, of Va., we are indebted for much intelligent labor in our behalf, but no two men however able or diligent, can spare the time from their other Congressional duties to master all the difficulties of our exceptional po sition. The House and the Senate should give more attention to District affairs, and in that save money to the United States and to our citizens. I would like to see special committees on the District to be composed, say, of Messrs Wheeler, Blaine, Edmunds, Voorhees and Gor don of the Senate, and of Mesers, Randall. Blac born, Stephens, Free and Conger or of men of like standing of the house. The whole country would heartily agree to any proposal of such
