For some days past the Methodists of this place have been holding a protracted meeting with encouraging results. At night the an-diences were very large, and the sermons unusually able.

A meeting of the Members o the Bar of Columbia county will be beld in the Law Library on Tuesday aftern on next at one o'clock Every member is requested to attend, as business of importance will be presented.

Fairbanks' Scales are so perfect in their construction, that whether the article subject to their proof be a car-load of iron or a handful of feathers, the respective scales used will indicate the exact weight.

At a meeting of the congregation of St. Paul's Episcopal church of this place, on Easter Mon-day 1877, for the election of members of the Vestry, a question arose as to who had the right vote. On m tion, Judge Elwell, Col. J. G. Freeze and R C Neal were appointed a comnittee to examine the obarter and report at the est meeting who where intitled to vote. On aster Monday 1878 the committee reported, As the formula for the cos ? .c. of elections will se acted upon at the next annual meeting, and
