

The Columbian.

BROOKLYN & ELWELL, Editors. BLOOMSBURG, PA. Friday, Dec. 27, 1878.

THAT $2,000 "EXPLAINED."

Mr. Brockway, Rise Up, and Explain the "Explanation."

Yesterday's March Chuk Gault contains the following editorial, headed "The Two Thousand Dollars Explained."

Our readers will remember the frequent allusion made to a certain $2,000 transaction in which Mr. Brockway was supposed to be engaged.

This is fresh milk in the Gazette man's East Penn cocoa nut, and "the high toned organ" now and heretofore called Brockway.

In the mean time we also summon, as corroborating witnesses, Messrs. Alex. Leisinger and General William Lilly, and perhaps one or two other money-men, to tell us all they know, if anything in regard to the matter in question.

The above mendacious statement was originally published in the Coal Gazette, a Republican organ. Had it rested there, it would have paid no attention to it, as it is natural for Republican papers to abuse known Democrats.

Mr. Hewitt succeeded in getting into the Congressional Record the fact that which the Times has already called attention, that Secretary Sherman has kept on deposit for six months past in the First National Bank of New York, a balance averaging thirty millions of dollars.

Mr. Brockway's reply to a resolution of inquiry from the House, as also that the balance in this favored bank has been as high as forty-five millions at one time.

It is not possible for any one to tell at this day all that happened to the moving mass and its involuntary inhabitants.

In conclusion—Bob Klotz—let me say that every word in the above article so far as relates to myself, is a dirty mean and unnecessary lie, and you know it; and I now challenge you to turn to assert its truth, or you and your paid henchmen hereafter branded as consummate liars.

The widespread assertion by McClure, yourself, and others of like standing, that I had received $2,000 from Republican sources did my work, aided by the corrupt use of money, lying circulars, and backed up by the unauthorized edict of that organizer of defeat—R. M. Speer.

The belief that dogs are subject to hydrophobia only during the period known as "dog days," is a common error.

The belief that dogs are subject to hydrophobia only during the period known as "dog days," is a common error.

It seems that the closing of the Bank of Scotland is the forerunner of hard times in that country and England, just as the crash of J. Cooke & Co. threw this country into a money panic.

Bayard Taylor, Minister to Germany died on the 19th inst. He was a well known writer, and traveler.

H. W. Palmer and Liu Bartholomew are both named as proper persons to fill the office of Attorney General of the state.

We see that it is proposed to inaugurate Gen. Hoyt in magnificent style.

Hon. R. Milton Speer, who so gallantly led the Democratic party of Pennsylvania to glorious defeat this year, also was the Secretary of the United States Senate after the 4th of March next.

The stranger then became a wonderful traveler and saw many things about which many large books have been written.

The stranger then became a wonderful traveler and saw many things about which many large books have been written.

LENDER AND BORROWER.

Specie Resumption is a fixed fact, and unless some calamity should befall the country, it is safe to assume that hereafter gold and government money will be interchangeable at par.

But there is this anomalous condition of affairs, that whilst money is plenty and interest low at money centers, loans on the best of paper can scarcely be obtained, at country banks.

The following quotation from the Philadelphia market sustains our assertion: "We continue to quote call loans at 2 1/4 per cent; best commercial paper is held at 4 1/2 per cent; for four months or longer at 5 1/2 per cent.

Second, capitalists and banks have reason to be careful as to their loans. The many unexpected failures has been a salutary warning.

It is easy for a borrower to parade his assets, to hide his unrecorded indebtedness, and to borrow money by legal forms, may make secret professions of judgment, fraudulent conveyances, assignments, and heretofore take the benefit of a bankrupt law by which an honest creditor realized nothing.

It is not possible for any one to tell at this day all that happened to the moving mass and its involuntary inhabitants.

Mr. Brockway's reply to a resolution of inquiry from the House, as also that the balance in this favored bank has been as high as forty-five millions at one time.

It is not possible for any one to tell at this day all that happened to the moving mass and its involuntary inhabitants.

In conclusion—Bob Klotz—let me say that every word in the above article so far as relates to myself, is a dirty mean and unnecessary lie, and you know it; and I now challenge you to turn to assert its truth, or you and your paid henchmen hereafter branded as consummate liars.

The widespread assertion by McClure, yourself, and others of like standing, that I had received $2,000 from Republican sources did my work, aided by the corrupt use of money, lying circulars, and backed up by the unauthorized edict of that organizer of defeat—R. M. Speer.

The belief that dogs are subject to hydrophobia only during the period known as "dog days," is a common error.

It seems that the closing of the Bank of Scotland is the forerunner of hard times in that country and England, just as the crash of J. Cooke & Co. threw this country into a money panic.

Bayard Taylor, Minister to Germany died on the 19th inst. He was a well known writer, and traveler.

H. W. Palmer and Liu Bartholomew are both named as proper persons to fill the office of Attorney General of the state.

We see that it is proposed to inaugurate Gen. Hoyt in magnificent style.

Hon. R. Milton Speer, who so gallantly led the Democratic party of Pennsylvania to glorious defeat this year, also was the Secretary of the United States Senate after the 4th of March next.

The stranger then became a wonderful traveler and saw many things about which many large books have been written.

The stranger then became a wonderful traveler and saw many things about which many large books have been written.

The stranger then became a wonderful traveler and saw many things about which many large books have been written.

The stranger then became a wonderful traveler and saw many things about which many large books have been written.

The stranger then became a wonderful traveler and saw many things about which many large books have been written.

The stranger then became a wonderful traveler and saw many things about which many large books have been written.

The stranger then became a wonderful traveler and saw many things about which many large books have been written.

The stranger then became a wonderful traveler and saw many things about which many large books have been written.

A CHRISTMAS LEGEND.

A few evenings since Senator Daniel R. Emmert was called upon to deliver an address before a church society in Reading and chose for his theme a beautiful Christmas legend.

The following quotation from the Philadelphia market sustains our assertion: "We continue to quote call loans at 2 1/4 per cent; best commercial paper is held at 4 1/2 per cent; for four months or longer at 5 1/2 per cent.

Second, capitalists and banks have reason to be careful as to their loans. The many unexpected failures has been a salutary warning.

It is easy for a borrower to parade his assets, to hide his unrecorded indebtedness, and to borrow money by legal forms, may make secret professions of judgment, fraudulent conveyances, assignments, and heretofore take the benefit of a bankrupt law by which an honest creditor realized nothing.

It is not possible for any one to tell at this day all that happened to the moving mass and its involuntary inhabitants.

Mr. Brockway's reply to a resolution of inquiry from the House, as also that the balance in this favored bank has been as high as forty-five millions at one time.

It is not possible for any one to tell at this day all that happened to the moving mass and its involuntary inhabitants.

In conclusion—Bob Klotz—let me say that every word in the above article so far as relates to myself, is a dirty mean and unnecessary lie, and you know it; and I now challenge you to turn to assert its truth, or you and your paid henchmen hereafter branded as consummate liars.

The widespread assertion by McClure, yourself, and others of like standing, that I had received $2,000 from Republican sources did my work, aided by the corrupt use of money, lying circulars, and backed up by the unauthorized edict of that organizer of defeat—R. M. Speer.

The belief that dogs are subject to hydrophobia only during the period known as "dog days," is a common error.

It seems that the closing of the Bank of Scotland is the forerunner of hard times in that country and England, just as the crash of J. Cooke & Co. threw this country into a money panic.

Bayard Taylor, Minister to Germany died on the 19th inst. He was a well known writer, and traveler.

H. W. Palmer and Liu Bartholomew are both named as proper persons to fill the office of Attorney General of the state.

We see that it is proposed to inaugurate Gen. Hoyt in magnificent style.

Hon. R. Milton Speer, who so gallantly led the Democratic party of Pennsylvania to glorious defeat this year, also was the Secretary of the United States Senate after the 4th of March next.

The stranger then became a wonderful traveler and saw many things about which many large books have been written.

The stranger then became a wonderful traveler and saw many things about which many large books have been written.

The stranger then became a wonderful traveler and saw many things about which many large books have been written.

The stranger then became a wonderful traveler and saw many things about which many large books have been written.

The stranger then became a wonderful traveler and saw many things about which many large books have been written.

The stranger then became a wonderful traveler and saw many things about which many large books have been written.

The stranger then became a wonderful traveler and saw many things about which many large books have been written.

The stranger then became a wonderful traveler and saw many things about which many large books have been written.

The stranger then became a wonderful traveler and saw many things about which many large books have been written.

REAPING THE REWARD IN WALHALLA.

The strange scene on the mountain of a frail wreath the bloody head of a white horse today emblazoned on the banner of England.

The following quotation from the Philadelphia market sustains our assertion: "We continue to quote call loans at 2 1/4 per cent; best commercial paper is held at 4 1/2 per cent; for four months or longer at 5 1/2 per cent.

Second, capitalists and banks have reason to be careful as to their loans. The many unexpected failures has been a salutary warning.

It is easy for a borrower to parade his assets, to hide his unrecorded indebtedness, and to borrow money by legal forms, may make secret professions of judgment, fraudulent conveyances, assignments, and heretofore take the benefit of a bankrupt law by which an honest creditor realized nothing.

It is not possible for any one to tell at this day all that happened to the moving mass and its involuntary inhabitants.

Mr. Brockway's reply to a resolution of inquiry from the House, as also that the balance in this favored bank has been as high as forty-five millions at one time.

It is not possible for any one to tell at this day all that happened to the moving mass and its involuntary inhabitants.

In conclusion—Bob Klotz—let me say that every word in the above article so far as relates to myself, is a dirty mean and unnecessary lie, and you know it; and I now challenge you to turn to assert its truth, or you and your paid henchmen hereafter branded as consummate liars.

The widespread assertion by McClure, yourself, and others of like standing, that I had received $2,000 from Republican sources did my work, aided by the corrupt use of money, lying circulars, and backed up by the unauthorized edict of that organizer of defeat—R. M. Speer.

The belief that dogs are subject to hydrophobia only during the period known as "dog days," is a common error.

It seems that the closing of the Bank of Scotland is the forerunner of hard times in that country and England, just as the crash of J. Cooke & Co. threw this country into a money panic.

Bayard Taylor, Minister to Germany died on the 19th inst. He was a well known writer, and traveler.

H. W. Palmer and Liu Bartholomew are both named as proper persons to fill the office of Attorney General of the state.

We see that it is proposed to inaugurate Gen. Hoyt in magnificent style.

Hon. R. Milton Speer, who so gallantly led the Democratic party of Pennsylvania to glorious defeat this year, also was the Secretary of the United States Senate after the 4th of March next.

The stranger then became a wonderful traveler and saw many things about which many large books have been written.

The stranger then became a wonderful traveler and saw many things about which many large books have been written.

The stranger then became a wonderful traveler and saw many things about which many large books have been written.

The stranger then became a wonderful traveler and saw many things about which many large books have been written.

The stranger then became a wonderful traveler and saw many things about which many large books have been written.

The stranger then became a wonderful traveler and saw many things about which many large books have been written.

The stranger then became a wonderful traveler and saw many things about which many large books have been written.

The stranger then became a wonderful traveler and saw many things about which many large books have been written.

The stranger then became a wonderful traveler and saw many things about which many large books have been written.

R. F. KUNKEL'S BITTER WINE OF IRON.

The truly valuable tonic has been so thoroughly tested in all classes of the community that it is now deemed indispensable as a Tonic medicine.

The following quotation from the Philadelphia market sustains our assertion: "We continue to quote call loans at 2 1/4 per cent; best commercial paper is held at 4 1/2 per cent; for four months or longer at 5 1/2 per cent.

Second, capitalists and banks have reason to be careful as to their loans. The many unexpected failures has been a salutary warning.

It is easy for a borrower to parade his assets, to hide his unrecorded indebtedness, and to borrow money by legal forms, may make secret professions of judgment, fraudulent conveyances, assignments, and heretofore take the benefit of a bankrupt law by which an honest creditor realized nothing.

It is not possible for any one to tell at this day all that happened to the moving mass and its involuntary inhabitants.

Mr. Brockway's reply to a resolution of inquiry from the House, as also that the balance in this favored bank has been as high as forty-five millions at one time.

It is not possible for any one to tell at this day all that happened to the moving mass and its involuntary inhabitants.

In conclusion—Bob Klotz—let me say that every word in the above article so far as relates to myself, is a dirty mean and unnecessary lie, and you know it; and I now challenge you to turn to assert its truth, or you and your paid henchmen hereafter branded as consummate liars.

The widespread assertion by McClure, yourself, and others of like standing, that I had received $2,000 from Republican sources did my work, aided by the corrupt use of money, lying circulars, and backed up by the unauthorized edict of that organizer of defeat—R. M. Speer.

The belief that dogs are subject to hydrophobia only during the period known as "dog days," is a common error.

It seems that the closing of the Bank of Scotland is the forerunner of hard times in that country and England, just as the crash of J. Cooke & Co. threw this country into a money panic.

Bayard Taylor, Minister to Germany died on the 19th inst. He was a well known writer, and traveler.

H. W. Palmer and Liu Bartholomew are both named as proper persons to fill the office of Attorney General of the state.

We see that it is proposed to inaugurate Gen. Hoyt in magnificent style.

Hon. R. Milton Speer, who so gallantly led the Democratic party of Pennsylvania to glorious defeat this year, also was the Secretary of the United States Senate after the 4th of March next.

The stranger then became a wonderful traveler and saw many things about which many large books have been written.

The stranger then became a wonderful traveler and saw many things about which many large books have been written.

The stranger then became a wonderful traveler and saw many things about which many large books have been written.

The stranger then became a wonderful traveler and saw many things about which many large books have been written.

The stranger then became a wonderful traveler and saw many things about which many large books have been written.

The stranger then became a wonderful traveler and saw many things about which many large books have been written.

The stranger then became a wonderful traveler and saw many things about which many large books have been written.

The stranger then became a wonderful traveler and saw many things about which many large books have been written.

The stranger then became a wonderful traveler and saw many things about which many large books have been written.

TRUTHS. HOP BITTERS.

All diseases of the stomach, bowels, blood, liver, kidneys and urinary organs, nervousness, female complaints and diarrhoea.

The following quotation from the Philadelphia market sustains our assertion: "We continue to quote call loans at 2 1/4 per cent; best commercial paper is held at 4 1/2 per cent; for four months or longer at 5 1/2 per cent.

Second, capitalists and banks have reason to be careful as to their loans. The many unexpected failures has been a salutary warning.

It is easy for a borrower to parade his assets, to hide his unrecorded indebtedness, and to borrow money by legal forms, may make secret professions of judgment, fraudulent conveyances, assignments, and heretofore take the benefit of a bankrupt law by which an honest creditor realized nothing.

It is not possible for any one to tell at this day all that happened to the moving mass and its involuntary inhabitants.

Mr. Brockway's reply to a resolution of inquiry from the House, as also that the balance in this favored bank has been as high as forty-five millions at one time.

It is not possible for any one to tell at this day all that happened to the moving mass and its involuntary inhabitants.

In conclusion—Bob Klotz—let me say that every word in the above article so far as relates to myself, is a dirty mean and unnecessary lie, and you know it; and I now challenge you to turn to assert its truth, or you and your paid henchmen hereafter branded as consummate liars.

The widespread assertion by McClure, yourself, and others of like standing, that I had received $2,000 from Republican sources did my work, aided by the corrupt use of money, lying circulars, and backed up by the unauthorized edict of that organizer of defeat—R. M. Speer.

The belief that dogs are subject to hydrophobia only during the period known as "dog days," is a common error.

It seems that the closing of the Bank of Scotland is the forerunner of hard times in that country and England, just as the crash of J. Cooke & Co. threw this country into a money panic.

Bayard Taylor, Minister to Germany died on the 19th inst. He was a well known writer, and traveler.

H. W. Palmer and Liu Bartholomew are both named as proper persons to fill the office of Attorney General of the state.

We see that it is proposed to inaugurate Gen. Hoyt in magnificent style.

Hon. R. Milton Speer, who so gallantly led the Democratic party of Pennsylvania to glorious defeat this year, also was the Secretary of the United States Senate after the 4th of March next.

The stranger then became a wonderful traveler and saw many things about which many large books have been written.

The stranger then became a wonderful traveler and saw many things about which many large books have been written.

The stranger then became a wonderful traveler and saw many things about which many large books have been written.

The stranger then became a wonderful traveler and saw many things about which many large books have been written.

The stranger then became a wonderful traveler and saw many things about which many large books have been written.

The stranger then became a wonderful traveler and saw many things about which many large books have been written.

The stranger then became a wonderful traveler and saw many things about which many large books have been written.

The stranger then became a wonderful traveler and saw many things about which many large books have been written.

The stranger then became a wonderful traveler and saw many things about which many large books have been written.

The Columbian for 1879.

It contains the most reading matter. It contains all the official advertising. It contains all Court Proceedings.

The following quotation from the Philadelphia market sustains our assertion: "We continue to quote call loans at 2 1/4 per cent; best commercial paper is held at 4 1/2 per cent; for four months or longer at 5 1/2 per cent.

Second, capitalists and banks have reason to be careful as to their loans. The many unexpected failures has been a salutary warning.

It is easy for a borrower to parade his assets, to hide his unrecorded indebtedness, and to borrow money by legal forms, may make secret professions of judgment, fraudulent conveyances, assignments, and heretofore take the benefit of a bankrupt law by which an honest creditor realized nothing.

It is not possible for any one to tell at this day all that happened to the moving mass and its involuntary inhabitants.

Mr. Brockway's reply to a resolution of inquiry from the House, as also that the balance in this favored bank has been as high as forty-five millions at one time.

It is not possible for any one to tell at this day all that happened to the moving mass and its involuntary inhabitants.

In conclusion—Bob Klotz—let me say that every word in the above article so far as relates to myself, is a dirty mean and unnecessary lie, and you know it; and I now challenge you to turn to assert its truth, or you and your paid henchmen hereafter branded as consummate liars.

The widespread assertion by McClure, yourself, and others of like standing, that I had received $2,000 from Republican sources did my work, aided by the corrupt use of money, lying circulars, and backed up by the unauthorized edict of that organizer of defeat—R. M. Speer.

The belief that dogs are subject to hydrophobia only during the period known as "dog days," is a common error.

It seems that the closing of the Bank of Scotland is the forerunner of hard times in that country and England, just as the crash of J. Cooke & Co. threw this country into a money panic.

Bayard Taylor, Minister to Germany died on the 19th inst. He was a well known writer, and traveler.

H. W. Palmer and Liu Bartholomew are both named as proper persons to fill the office of Attorney General of the state.

We see that it is proposed to inaugurate Gen. Hoyt in magnificent style.

Hon. R. Milton Speer, who so gallantly led the Democratic party of Pennsylvania to glorious defeat this year, also was the Secretary of the United States Senate after the 4th of March next.

The stranger then became a wonderful traveler and saw many things about which many large books have been written.

The stranger then became a wonderful traveler and saw many things about which many large books have been written.

The stranger then became a wonderful traveler and saw many things about which many large books have been written.

The stranger then became a wonderful traveler and saw many things about which many large books have been written.

The stranger then became a wonderful traveler and saw many things about which many large books have been written.

The stranger then became a wonderful traveler and saw many things about which many large books have been written.

The stranger then became a wonderful traveler and saw many things about which many large books have been written.

The stranger then became a wonderful traveler and saw many things about which many large books have been written.

The stranger then became a wonderful traveler and saw many things about which many large books have been written.