NORMAL SCHOOL.

The closing exercises at the Normal School for the term just ended, took place last Thursday evening at the hall. A large audience as sembled, and the entertainment was good. The programme consisted of essays, recitations, diaogues, tableaux, vocal and instrumental music, gymnastic exercises by the model school, &c. The singing of Le sabre de mon pere by senior class was well executed, as were all the pieces on the list. The prospects for a large attendance at next term is said to be good. The school will reopen on Monday, January 6th.

Resumption will take place next Wednesday. We hope we shall not be obliged to procure a dry good box to contain the gold that may be thrust upon us after the first of January. However, we are willing to put ourselves to this expense if our friends render it necessary. As payments run at present, if all bills should be paid in gold, we will be able to carry all the coin in our vest pocket, and be obliged to turn the pocket inside out to find it.

The wholesale and retail establishment of J B. Scott is one of the attractive points just now, owing to the large assortment of dolls and toys which take the eye of the young folks. His bakery and confectionery is one of the best in this section, and the liberal patronage that he receives proves that he gives entire satisfaction. Country dealers will find it the place to buy hol iday toys at wholesale. Thankful to the public for past favors he solicits a continuance of their d203w patronage.
