org makes the awkward complaint that the publican leaders of Penneylvania do not forthe party in the minority counties-mean ng Columbia. It is a just complaint with arge foundation. For years and years Mr Beckly and his newspaper partner, Mr. Brown have attended the party conventions and helped put the party through in good shape, and all hey have ever got for their trouble is the loomsburg Post Office, which is only an insigni, icant affair, worth but sixteen bundred dollars No man can be expected to keep his patriotism up to the high water mark on such slight enouragement as this. To be sure, Mr. Brown gets a great many nominations for various hings; he sometimes runs for Congress, some mes for County Surveyor, sometimes for some ing else, but he never gets elected to anything and the whole consolation of the party in this se county committee, since the Postmaster had give up the place at the invitation of the Presdent. It is surely about time the party in minrity counties was heard from, and it is gratifying to have the complaint come from those who

The following extract from the Pennsylvania School Journal of December. 1878, with o doubt be of interest to the School Director Columbia county:

"The warrants for the payment of the State appropriation to the school districts throughat the State, have been withheld at the re uest of the State Treasurer, who informed the department that he has no money to pay hem. Of that $1,000,000 appropriated, only $300,000 have been paid to the present time, Nov. 21st. This amount was paid to the districts that were the first to send in their re-ports and certificates. This delay is a source of great regret to the State Superintendent, but the remedy is beyond his power. All he can do is to promise that the warrants shall be ssued at once as soon as he learns that there s money in the Treasury to pay them."
